III. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Clergy Executive Session

Marriott Waterfront, Baltimore

Wednesday, May 30, 2018 | 1:30 p.m.

The Rev. Frances Stewart welcomed the assemblage and requested they stand and sing the opening hymn, “How Great Thou Art.” Pastor Delonta Hicks led the Opening Prayer. The Rev. Patricia Sebring employed Bible storytelling and movement to present the Scripture, 1 Corinthians 12:12-27.

The Rev. Melissa Rudolph, chair of the Order of Elders, brought reflections. Church was a place where she always felt loved and accepted. “We are all one body in Jesus Christ,” she said.

She said that what we all have in common is that at some point in life we felt at home in the house of God and that we were called by God. Someone told us that “you are beloved, you are God’s.” Even as the church seems divided we need to remember that we are all baptized in one body in the name of Christ.

The Rev. Braulio Torres invited everyone to stand for the closing prayer, a litany after which all joined in singing the closing hymn “I Am Thine, O Lord.”

The Rev. C. Anthony Hunt, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, greeted those assembled. Bishop Easterling thanked the Worship Team for centering the assembly. She reminded those present that there was very important work required by the Discipline. “We are here in one covenant,” she declared. “All children of God covered by the grace of God.” She reminded everyone, “We are brothers and sisters in Christ, in covenant with one another. We will respect one another. We will speak with dignity and calmness. And we will not use words that are offensive or even words that might provoke a strong response. We are ‘One Body Beneath the Cross.’”

Hunt read the Clergy Session Organizing Motion. It passed. He then invited the Rev. Conrad Link, Dean of the Cabinet, to give the Cabinet’s response to Disciplinary Question 17.

The Rev. Mark Gorman, speaking as Chair of the Conference Rules Committee, raised a point of order question: “Concerning the Board and its work especially in light of its policy adopted that was announced in April... whether or not the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry should be in order at this point.”

Bishop Easterling responded, “It is the understanding of the chair that we can receive the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. We can take it seriatim so that items of the report that are not in question might be duly acted upon, then portions of the report that anyone deems out of order could be addressed at that time.”

Gorman moved that it would be in order.

Link gave the Cabinet’s response to Question 17.

Hunt presented the Board of Ordained Ministry narrative report that can be found in Section VI Reports. During his presentation, Hunt said that “three areas give particular evidence to the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry this year” and the importance of the work they do. They are The Residency in Ministry Program (RIM), coordinated by the Rev. Ron Foster; the Culture of the Call, chaired by the Rev. Kirkland Reynolds; and the Task Force on Human Sexuality, co-chaired by the Revs. Amy McCullough and Bruce Jones. They came forward and shared briefly of their work.

The four-year old Residency in Ministry Program is “starting to bear fruit,” Foster said. RIM is a three-year cycle with provisionals of teaching, mentoring and peer support. In monthly meetings, they spend the morning looking at best practices, lunch and fellowship, and afternoon in small groups. Recent cohorts have expressed positive outcomes from this program with comments ranging from “life-giving” to “life-saving” in their ministry.

Reynolds said that a culture of call is a “priority” not just for the Board or the Conference; “It is a priority for everyone of us in ministry, laity and clergy.” Reynolds explained, “A culture of call will not flourish if we only hope people will respond to God.” He gave biblical examples illustrating the responsibility of all people to encourage and equip persons to respond to God’s call.

McCullough gave an accounting of the work done by the Task Force on Human Sexuality, formed in June 2017, with a charge “to review the Board’s recent policies on sexuality, gender identity and marriage as it relates to the examination of candidates for ministry.” Based on this work, the task force was to make recommendations for future policies. In October 2017, the Board adopted its policy, used it in their examinations in January and February, and shared it with the Conference in April 2018.

Hunt began leading the session through the Disciplinary Questions regarding clergy.

Question 18.a was approved; 18.b and 18.c are informational.

Question 19.a. Currently certified candidates as candidates for ordained or licensed ministry, also informational.

Bishop Easterling recognized the Rev. Katie Bishop, Greater Brunswick Charge, Frederick District who stated that she has a certified candidate in her congregation, William Carpenter, who was not listed, and is interested in working toward being commissioned. He is a transfer from Florida and a candidate for Deacon. Hunt addressed the inquiry to the district committee chair. If he is being processed, his name will be added as an editorial change.

Questions 19.b. and 19.c are also informational. Question 20, is of those who completed studies for license as a local pastor but not appointed.

The bishop asked that Dave Schoeller, BWC Staff, be welcomed to provide instruction on the use of the voting devices.

The Rev. Bryan Oskvig, in Extension Ministry at Georgetown University, stated that according to conference rules the secret ballot requires a one-third vote and that using the voting machine is a secret ballot. He said that they should continue to use the cards.

The bishop disagreed and said that she believed the voting devices could be used.

The Rev. Angela Flanagan, Silver Spring UMC, moved that all questions in regard to conference relationships to include ordination, commissioning and honorable location and retirement, be by hand vote. The motion was seconded. In fairness, those who vote should be willing to go on record and that the vote should not be “trusted to technology that has been a challenge and barrier” in the past. Flanagan believed regardless of how people voted, they owed it to BOOM members to own their decisions and that part of being an “authentic community” was being honest with each other. She requested that we model for the church how to be open and honest with each other in conversation and in our decision making with one another.

Bishop Easterling allowed the motion to stand and asked if there were three arguments for and three against.

The Rev. Loretta Johnson, of Johns Memorial in D.C., spoke against the motion. She recommended the voting machine be used at the discretion of the bishop and also to ensure there is a valid count.

The Rev. Sarah Schlieckert, of Melville Chapel, asked for clarity on the motion, which she believes was that a hand vote would be done on all votes having to do with clergy relations.

Bishop Easterling agreed that Schlieckert’s interpretation of the motion was correct in regards to the report. The Rev. Mary Kay Totty, Dumbarton, spoke in favor of doing a hand vote or a standing count vote. She recounted her memories of the trouble with the devices last year and preferred that they stand for their vote and what they believed in.

Gorman offered a Point of Information from the Rules of the Session. “A standing vote count may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-third of the members present and voting.” He suggested the need to clarify whether the motion was for a standing vote or a hand vote.

The Bishop stated that she believed the motion was for a hand vote.

Rev. Rudy Bropleh was recognized. He stated that because most of the votes require percentage, it was best to use the voting machines to get the most accurate count.

Rev. Rachel Cornwell, Extension Ministry, spoke for the motion. She believes everyone needs to show what they are voting for and carefully count the votes. She said that she shares Totty’s concern about the technology and “our unwillingness to stand for what we really believe in.

Rev. David Graves, Extension Ministry, in a speech against, stated that in this day and age he trusts the handheld counting device more than he trusts the pages counting the hand vote and doing a tally that is later brought back to them.

Rev. Laura Blauvelt, of Potomac UMC, speaking for the motion, said it was an issue of transparency that was called for and that there are concerns about the voting pads because they used them for years but not as a way to cast votes during executive session.

After speeches for and against the motion, Bishop Easterling asked to hear the motion and the maker read it. “I move that all questions with regard to conference relationships to include ordination, commissioning, honorable location and retirement, be by hand vote.”

The motion failed.

Oskvig asked who was allowed to vote because he saw cards that were not blue.

Gorman said that all members of the clergy were allowed to vote. Hunt referred back to the Organizing Motion, which included who had voice and vote. Gorman pointed out that that would not just be blue cards because of lay members to the Board of Ordained Ministry and some local pastors who would have voice and vote. The bishop agreed.

The Rev. Ginger Gaines-Cirelli, Foundry, asked for clarification, “What vote is required – the one-third vote or is it a simple majority for this?” Bishop Easterling clarified that it was a majority vote.

The Rev. Bill Brown, Wesley Freedom, asked if it was in order to ask for a closed session. Bishop Easterling said the motion was out of order.

Gaines-Cirelli suggested that a bar be created in the room so that those already present would be able to remain but would be clear on the body that is eligible to vote.

It was agreed that there would be a ten-minute break during which time the bar would be established and people seated accordingly.

Only those members who were able to vote would remain in the designated area but the bishop asked that an exception be made for Bishop Stith.

Bropleh reported that the situation with William Carpenter had been resolved and Carpenter was added to Question 19a.

Bishop Easterling summarized the actions taken regarding using hand vote versus using the handheld devices, setting the bar to ensure the correct persons voted and called for a vote on the motion. The vote failed. The handheld devices were used for the votes during the session.

Dave Schoeller gave instructions on using the voting units and checked if they were functioning correctly. Those with problems were provided with new devices.

The Bishop informed those assembled that if the work of the session was not concluded, the session would be reconvened after the 7 pm “Opening Worship” that evening until the work was concluded.

Hunt resumed the Disciplinary Questions with Question 20. It passed. Questions 21.a, Full-time local pastors, and 21.b Part-time local pastors passed with a few minor corrections.

Question 25, which listed clergy in good standing who have been approved to serve within the bounds of the Annual Conference, was approved. Question 26.b. listed Affiliate members with no vote who were approved by two-thirds of the body to serve without vote in the Annual Conference and Question 26.a. had no one listed nor did Question 27.

Gorman asked if Question 28 could be treated ad seriatim and continue with the report and come back to these sections and perhaps picking up at question 35 to continue with those parts of the report least likely to cause discussion and debate. Bishop Easterling agreed to move to Question 35 and then return to Question 28.

Hunt turned the process over to McCullough, the co-chair of the Board, who proceeded to Question 38, as there was nothing to report in 35-37. Question 38, regarding transfers to other annual conferences, was approved. Gaines-Cirelli asked if Donna Lee Nelson, who was being received from another annual conference, was present and suggested she be welcomed, which she then was.

Question 42. b. was approved for the voluntary discontinuance. There was none to report for Question 43. a. and b. McCullough invited the Chair, Conference Relations Committee, the Rev. Jennifer Karsner, to come forward for Question 43.c. Bishop Easterling asked that there be pause and prayer for a moment in recognition of the seriousness of the vote. Pastor Michael Parker offered a prayer. It was approved.

McCullough next moved to Question 46.a and b. regarding conference membership termination and asked if the items should be handled separately. The bishop replied that they should be handled separately. Question 46.a. was approved.

McCullough then moved to Question 46.b., Philip Wogaman, withdrawal from ordained ministerial office. The Rev. Mary Kay Totty, of Dumbarton UMC, asked, “What would be the result if we vote against?” Bishop Easterling responded, “Philip Wogaman voluntarily surrendered his credentials at last Annual Conference during this clergy session.” She went on to say that his credentials, after being seen by the Conference Secretary, are now in the Episcopal Office. If the question did not carry, then the session would be telling Wogaman that the conference wanted him to stay in relationship as a full member of the Annual Conference.

Wogaman was at the conference as a lay delegate. Totty said she “missed him in this Order.” The Rev. Debbie Scott, Calvary UMC, asked for clarification that there were no disciplinary actions related to the surrender of credentials and that the body could vote not to accept them. The bishop agreed with her statement. The termination failed to pass.

The Rev. Bonnie McCubbin, of Good Shepherd UMC, asked if Wogaman was allowed to now be seated within the bar for the remainder of the clergy session. Bishop Easterling replied that if he were an Elder in good standing, he would be able to be seated in the bars of the conference. He would need to relinquish his rights as a lay delegate.

Wogaman said that he was “deeply moved.” His views have not changed and he has a book coming out in August about this. He thanked Bishop Easterling and said he had apologized last year for putting this upon her in her first annual conference. He thanked everyone.

Bishop Easterling reminded everyone that in clergy session the use of electronic media to share the work being done is a violation of the covenant with one another. Using electronic media of any kind to report out anything happening in the session is prohibited. The Communications team reports out on the work being done.

McCullough brought attention to Question 48, those who died during the year, and said they will be remembered during the Memorial Service. Question 49 lists provisional or ordained members who have received appointments in other Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church and is informational. Question 50.a., provisional, ordained members or associate members on leave of absence. All names were approved. Question 52 was for those granted medical leave due to medical or disabling conditions and was approved.

Question 53 listed members in full connection that have retired. Names were read aloud. The body approved those listed. The bishop asked for a moment for the body to celebrate the retirees. Question 56 listed retiring local pastors and was informational. McCullough asked to read their names and then invite all retirees to stand for a prayer for them. The bishop agreed.

Question 72.a. lists less than full-time service. Names were read. All were approved.

McCullough prayed for those on Medical Leave and for the Rev. Ted Marsh, who is sick, in response to a request for those prayers.

Question 76.c. lists those appointed to other valid ministries beyond The United Methodist Church. The Rev. J. W. Park, Central Maryland District Superintendent, rose to add two names: The Rev. Dianne Dixon Parker, Sharp Street UMC, and the Rev. Gertie Williams, Daisy UM Church. Question 76.c. was approved.

Hunt came forward to return to page 9 of the report, Question 28. The Rev. John Rudisill, Montgomery UMC, raised a point of order stating that he believed it was an “inappropriate motion as it stands.” He then read:

“No main motion is in order that conflicts with the corporate charter, constitution or bylaws and to the extent that the procedure rules applicable to the organization or assembly are prescribed by federal, state or local law, no main motion is in order that conflicts with such rules.” He concluded, “So I believe that in its current constitution that this motion is out of order.”

Bishop Easterling asked what he was reading from and he replied, “Roberts Rules of Order.”

Bishop Easterling clarified that he was raising an objection to this portion of the Board of Ordained Ministry report coming forward. The bishop deferred to the Chancellor on whether or not “raising a civil question is appropriate for the body operating under the Book of Discipline and the rules of the Baltimore-Washington Conference.” Rudisill cited ¶304.3 of the Discipline. Bishop Easterling stated that he was raising ¶304.3 for this part of the report.

Bishop Easterling asked Hunt if the candidates were examined in accordance with the Book of Discipline, specifically ¶304.3. Hunt replied that the Board of Ordained Ministry engaged in what they deemed to be a full examination of each candidate based on the candidate’s qualifications of which they were aware, including ¶365 and Judicial Council rulings that pertained to this. The question candidates were asked was, “Are you faithful in marriage and celibate in singleness?” They reviewed information from the candidates, from their local settings, district superintendents and District Committees on Ministry. All of the information was included in what they deemed to be a “full examination of each candidate.” He felt they adhered to those criteria and in terms of their review of good standing; they were not given any information on any candidate of the 29 being recommended that it was in violation of ¶2702 chargeable offenses.

Rudisill asked Hunt if, in light of Judicial Council Decision 1344, did the Board in faithfulness to that decision ask the candidates if they were practicing homosexuals? Hunt responded, “no.” He said that question was not asked in that way of any of the candidates. The question they asked on examination pertained to the Disciplinary Question: “Are you faithful in marriage and celibate in singleness?” They did not have a provision or guidance to ask the question as Rudisill framed it of any candidate. They did not have sufficient reason to ask the question as he framed it of any candidate. No information was presented from the local settings, from the District Committee on Ministry or the district superintendents, or supervisors or Recommender that indicated need to ask that question.

Gorman asked Hunt if he was aware of Judicial Council Ruling 1352, which is a ruling in response to the Board's action which requires the question be asked. Hunt said that he was aware of it. Gorman asked if the Board was aware of the policy when the decision was made and if decision 1352 was part of the Board's decision making. Hunt said that the information they shared was a matter of transparency and stated the Board's awareness of Judicial Council Rulings.

Bishop Easterling had a question for Hunt. She stated that last year, one person was a "self-avowed homosexual" and asked if that person was included in the list of candidates. Hunt said he did not recall the person indicating they were a self-avowed homosexual but conceded that "yes," based on his understanding of self-avowed, the person was. The bishop said if that were the case, there was no need for documentation or other cases or decisions. Hunt said they did not re-examine the candidate and sent communication to the bishop's office in October 2017.

Bishop Easterling explained that the Episcopal Office does not direct the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry when they are in session. It is not appropriate to speak to votes taken internally as they are doing their work. The first opportunity to speak to the work is when it comes to the clergy session at Annual Conference. The bishop then ruled that this part of the Board's report was out of order.

Rudisill requested a brief recess for additional consultation, which was not granted. Gaines-Cirelli voiced concern about relying on something said last year for making a decision this year, and asked to see the minutes from last year's Annual Conference Session to see if there was a public self-avowal.

The Rev. Laura Blauvelt asked for clarity if the bishop was ruling this part of the Board's report out of order and what that means for all the candidates being recommended by the Board at this time. Bishop Easterling offered several alternative actions that could be taken. She stated that she believed the Board was clear in their statement and that it was published in the UMConnection newspaper. She added that she wanted to avoid as much "gamesmanship" as possible. The Board was clear that they were not going to examine candidates with respect to whether or not those candidates met the definition of self-avowed practicing homosexuals. The question is whether the entire class has been fully examined, which would include whether or not any persons being brought forth as candidates meet the definition of self-avowed practicing homosexuals.

Gorman asked for a ruling on a question of law: "On the basis of the policy of the Board of Ordained Ministries of this Annual Conference, reported on April 6, 2018 (<http://www.bwcumc.org/news-and-views/boom-revises-policy-that-addresses-homosexuality/>) and confirmed by Board's chair in this Clergy session, specifically, that policy's candid admission that it is 'not compliant with the Book of Discipline,' and on the basis of The Book of Discipline ¶604.1, 604.3, and 635.1.b. as well as numerous Judicial Council rulings (e.g., #s 96, 690, 886, 1330, and 1352), I ask the following questions of law: Must the Annual Conference exclude from its business the portions of the report of the Board of Ordained Ministries [sic] pertaining to the election of candidates for membership or provisional membership?"

Bishop stated she would rule on the request before the end of the Clergy Session.

The Rev. Roberta Scoville, retired clergy, said that she was uncertain as to what options the body has.

Bishop Easterling responded that she believed the body had the right to examine the candidates for provisional and full membership. The Rules Chair confirmed this.

Scoville asked if the body had the right to question the candidates.

Gorman said there were two options (both of which the bishop had previously stated): 1) The bishop could recess and examine the candidates herself and report back to the body; 2) The body has the right, according to the Book of Discipline, to ask questions related to character and to interview each candidate individually. His preference was for the bishop to do that.

Hunt explained that the policy was prayerfully adopted and that there was serious deliberation to clarify the values of the board and of the Annual Conference. They stand behind all 29 candidates and the recommendations. For the good of the church and of the candidates, Hunt suggested the Board convene and question each candidate on the homosexuality question.

The Rev. Mary Kay Totty moved that “the clergy session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference affirm the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry and claim as a policy of the entire clergy session that we support the policy adopted by BOOM and we are completely satisfied with the thorough and full examination the Board of Ordained Ministry has made candidates undergo.” The motion was seconded. Bishop Easterling said that the motion was out of order because they would be voting to codify an action that is outside the Book of Discipline as well as the rules of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. Totty responded that the motion is in keeping with the Jurisdictional Conference of 2016. Easterling again said the motion is out of order.

A pastor asked if he heard correctly that the Board was willing to meet with and examine the candidates according to the Book of Discipline. Bishop Easterling confirmed that it was correct. He asked if it was appropriate to make a motion to be adjourned so that the Board could complete that task and meet again when the task was completed. Bishop Easterling confirmed with Hunt that he would fully examine the candidates in keeping with the Book of Discipline as well as the Judicial Council rulings. Hunt replied that he felt they had done a full examination but if necessary he would ask the question on human sexuality. He asked for further instruction from the bishop.

Bishop Easterling said that ¶33 of the Book of Discipline states that “the annual conference is the basic body in the church and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of clergy and lay delegates to the General and the jurisdictional or central conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its clergy members, and on the ordination of clergy and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution...” The bishop reiterated that the body has the right to examine the candidates before them for provisional and full membership within the Annual Conference.

The Rev. Bob Hunter of Thurmont UMC, recalled parading around the entire Annual Conference and Bishop Joseph Yeakel asking if anyone had questions for the candidate. It was a practice of the Annual Conference. Bishop Easterling agreed and said the Book of Discipline gives the body the right to do what he described. She continued that for transparency sake she will not examine the candidates privately because of the controversy it would create but agreed it was the right of the body to do so.

Rev. Debbie Scott, of Calvary UMC in Mt. Airy, raised a concern about how the candidates were prepared for being examined when for years they have been “automatically” sending candidates through. She questioned what they had been told as they were waiting. Bishop Easterling acknowledged that she appreciated Scott’s question. She explained that people longing to become provisional or full members of the Baltimore-Washington Conference have an obligation to read and to retain what is in the Book of Discipline and to expect examination, as it is the right of the Annual Conference. The bishop said that when a committee, agency or board take actions that will have bearing and consequence on what is coming before the Conference, she would think it would be incumbent upon the body to have conversations about possible consequences and discussions regarding who would be affected by those actions.

Hunt said they would have to think about the process. He reiterated that the ordination process is 7 to 10 years, and none of the decisions or consequences are taken lightly. Bishop Easterling said that in no way was anything being said to be taken personally. She said she believed the work was done with integrity and the best of intention. There was now a need to act upon the matters during the Annual Conference Session.

The Rev. Theresa Thames, who serves in Extension Ministry at Princeton University, questioned how candidates are being rated regarding fitness for ministry besides human sexuality. She asked what the other areas of fitness are. She shared that when she was ordained, no one asked her questions about her genitalia or even her work in the local church. The question to BOOM is how are we now, even as clergy colleagues, ranking candidates. She asked if they were ranking credit scores, financial giving, physical fitness and the fitness for ministry.

Hunt replied that a full examination is considered to be psychological reports by district committees leading to profiling, reports on credit checks, reports on effectiveness in ministry, recommendations from multiple people, including people in supervisory and academic chains. The examination includes multiple facets of a person's life.

Thames said she understood that but was interested in the ranking system that was now happening. Hunt responded that all of the things mentioned are important and if areas need more examination, more is done. She then asked if someone would be disqualified for not being physically fit or not having good credit. Homophobia and human sexuality appeared to be ranked above all else, she said. She was trying to determine if there were other disqualifying factors.

Bishop Easterling cited Judicial Council Ruling #1344 which states that all matters enumerated in the Book of Discipline that determine one's fitness and effectiveness for ministry are to be examined and held equally.

The Rev. Shannon Sullivan, of Calvary UMC Frederick, said she was ordained in 2016 and no one ever asked if she was a self-avowed practicing homosexual and she was concerned about her fitness for ministry.

The Rev. Curtis Ehr Gott, of Grace UMC in Hagerstown, asked that, because there is a difference between ordained and provisional status and in anticipation of changes in 2019, could the body move a person into provisional status in anticipation that things may change next year? Bishop Easterling explained that the Book of Discipline states that individuals are not eligible for provisional status or Elders orders if they don't meet the criteria for effectiveness and fitness through character.

The Rev. Meredith Wilson-Arnold, of Calvary UMC in Annapolis, who said she transferred her credentials from the Lutheran Church three years ago after being ordained in the Lutheran Church, said the questions about sexuality and marriage were asked before she was ordained. She said that many present sat on DCOM and BOOM while she was transferring and she was never asked about her marriage except in her psychological exam. No one asked about her marriage or her sex life and she was concerned that they were now going to do that to 29 people. She said that if it was going to be done to them, it needed to be done to all of the body in the same public manner.

Bishop Easterling said that for those who already hold credentials within the Conference, unless they are provisional and coming for full Elders orders, to be questioned, a charge would have to be brought against them. She asked the body to restrain from making statements that did not advance the work of the session.

Scott asked for the candidates to be brought in and advised of what was going on. Bishop Easterling said that BOOM will advise them. A pastor asked for the definition of self-avowed, practicing homosexual and is there any required proof of the practice? Bishop Easterling cited Judicial Council Decision 1341 as offering guidance on what is proof of a self-avowed practicing homosexual. Scott asked for a copy of the decision and Bishop referred her to the United Methodist website.

The Rev. Doug Hayes, of Lexington Park UMC, made a motion to adjourn the clergy session so that BOOM could fully examine the candidates according to the Book of Discipline. The bishop responded that the chair was about to recess the session and asked for five minutes. She then announced that the session would recess until after the opening worship service ended, and that she would not ask the historic questions during the worship service.

Laity Session

Wednesday, May 30, 2018 | 2 p.m.

Delores Martin, the lay leader of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, welcomed the laity to the annual conference session and thanked them for the outstanding and faithful work they do each day to make disciples and honor God in their churches and throughout their daily lives.

She introduced the district administrators and encouraged the laity to be in close contact with these workers, who serve on the front lines of ministry. They included: Tonia Bennett, Penny Gaver, Olivia Gross, Sophie Amer, John Gauthier, Christine Taylor, Christol Medley and Willine Kamara. She also introduced and thanked Joyce King and Debbie Albrecht, administrators in the episcopal office.

As the focal piece of the laity session, Martin offered two training sessions – one on leadership, led by the Rev. Barb Lemmel, a consultant from Tending the Fire; and the other on domestic violence, led by the Rev. Rick Vance of the General Commission on United Methodist Men.

Lemmel, a nationally sought-after speaker and coach (tending-the-fire.com), shared with laity ways they might improve their leadership, especially in times of perceived, or actual, stress.

To be good leaders, she said, laity need to focus on:

1. Self-differentiation – knowing who you are, where you end and where the church begins;
2. Connection – learning about who other people are and determining how much and how deeply to connect with them and situations that arise;
3. Vision – seeing, knowing and feeling the big picture. Knowing what it is we're truly about as individuals and as a church;
4. Having a non-anxious presence. Be calm on the outside, affirm to people what's important and be honest about what's wrong.

“Be faithful, don't be ‘nice,’” Lemmel said. “This is true for congregations and individuals. The only way to do that is to be rooted in God, the author of life and of love.”

Vance, shared with the laity that prevention is the best tool in stopping domestic violence and that the church stands in a unique place to provide information about this issue. One in four women in the U.S. experiences domestic violence, he said. “Before the day ends, three women will die at the hands of a man who says he loves her.”

The United Methodist Men are seeking to challenge the culture that supports violence against women and cultivate healthy masculinity by providing a resource called Amending Through Faith. More information on this efforts is at www.gcumm.org.

Martin closed the session with a prayer for The United Methodist Church, the people and leaders of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, and for the session ahead as the laity connected in ministry as one “Beneath the Cross.

Clergy Session

Wednesday, May 30, 2018 | 9 p.m.

Bishop Easterling reminded those assembled that only those people allowed in Clergy Session were to be there and that the bar had been established so that everyone on the lefthand side of the room were people who could be present but did not have vote.

The Rev. Scott Shumaker offered a prayer for the evening's work. The Rev. Tony Hunt shared the work done with the candidates during the dinner recess. He reported that members of the Board of Ordained Ministry met with all the candidates. They shared with the candidates that they were trying to find a way to move the process forward. It was also shared with all of the candidates that as a part of full inquiry as it pertains to the Book of Discipline and Judicial Council rulings, inquiries needed to be made in regards to human sexuality. He said that all candidates were given an opportunity to offer information and self-disclosure about any issues not brought up in the profiling and examination, particularly as they pertain to human sexuality. No additional information was shared with the Board. In the course of profiling, two candidates, TC Morrow and Joseph Heath, shared in writing that they are married to people of the same gender.

The Rev. Mark Gorman, of Centre UMC in Forest Hill, said in light of Hunt's report, he moved that the two candidates be removed from consideration for this session of the clergy.

Bishop Easterling asked how he was asking the question. He responded that he was asking it as a question of law: "Must this session of the clergy exclude these two candidates on the basis of Dr. Hunt's report and on the basis of the Book of Discipline ¶304.3?" Bishop Easterling reminded those present that she typically has 30 days to rule on a question of law, but she was unable to wait 30 days to rule on the information being discussed at the session. Easterling continued that the matter that was keeping them from moving forward on the report was "the concern that the Board of Ordained Ministry had not done a full inquiry as some believe the Book of Discipline requires and as some Judicial Council rulings require." The Board met with the candidates for commissioning and Elders' orders and asked for full disclosure on the matters indicated. Two candidates had previously disclosed in writing as part of their profile that they were married to same gendered partners. In light of that fact, and in light of decision 1341 by the Judicial Council and several decisions that followed and the Book of Discipline and the Baltimore-Washington Conference Rules, the bishop ruled that the two individuals would not be able to come forward as candidates for commissioning or ordination.

The Rev. Phil Wogaman stated that he recalled the decision "indicated it was presumptive but rebuttable." He asked if it had been determined that it was a rebuttable proposal.

Bishop Easterling replied that in 1341, the word "rebuttable" was there. Because the two individuals disclosed their marital status, the bishop said she ruled that they are not eligible for commissioning and ordination at this Annual Conference.

Wogaman responded that he did not think the Judicial Council said that if you are in a same gender marriage that it is not necessarily a self-disclosure. He said that is what is rebuttable. "You have a presumption, but the burden of proof is with you." He continued that it was "preoccupied with physical sex and not looking at the relational realities of marriage."

Bishop Easterling responded that her ruling of law stands.

Gorman moved that, in light of the bishop's ruling, consideration be given to combining the questions on provisional Elders and Deacons, to vote on it now and move the questions ahead.

Bishop said that the motion was to move ahead with all of the candidates, except the two candidates excluded.

Local pastor, Laura Kigweba James, asked that we hold the two people in prayer.

Hunt said that the people have been under the care of the Board of Ordained Ministry and that there was nothing to preclude them from continuing in some form of candidacy. He asked if at some point the two could be invited in and prayed with the body to share with them where we are.

The Rev. Kevin Wright, who serves in Extension Ministry, said that he was tired of prayer and wanted to see justice. He gave the "gun violence epidemic" as an example. He added that if all had taken a vow to do no harm, and then did harm and invited people in for prayer, it would be an act to appease their consciences and he did not want to be a part of that.

The bishop said that she could appreciate that, but that the prayers of the righteous "availeth much” whether we appreciate it or not. “God is not impotent to act upon our prayers.” Bishop Easterling called upon Laura Kigweba James to pray.

Bishop Easterling asked if Hunt agreed to move forward as was moved, and he agreed with reluctance.

Bishop Easterling explained that it was incumbent upon the Board of Ordained Ministry in their report on the vote of the body, to identify to the candidates what status that places them in. She said the Board should review the Discipline and decide where candidates reside after the Clergy Session. She reminded everyone that in nine months, the denomination will convene in a special session of General Conference and the law of the church may change.

The bishop stated that there was a motion before the body to vote on the remaining candidates.

Hunt clarified that the question being voted upon was on page 9, Question 28, and that they needed to work through page 12. The motion carried to continue the report from the Board of Ordained Ministry. Hunt directed the body to return to page 9 and asked the Rev. Scott Shumaker, registrar for provisional members, to come forward.

Megan B. Blanchard was approved as a Provisional Deacon (Question 28.a). The following were approved as Provisional Elders (Question 28.b.): Sherwyn Benjamin, Scott Bostic, Patrick Hurder Buhman, Mi Ja Cho, Christopher Dembeck, Sarah Elliott, James Gosnell, Lynne Humphries-Russ, David Jacobson, Kathryn Mackereth, Robert Ruggieri, Anna Schwartz, Emily Smiley, and Matthew Tate. Shumaker offered a prayer for the 2018 class of Provisional Members.

The Rev. Bonnie McCubbin, of Good Shepherd UMC, asked for prayer for the Provisional Deacon, Megan B. Blanchard, who was invited back into the room. Shumaker prayed for her.

Question 29.a. Persons continued as Provisional Members were approved. Question 29.b. and c had no one listed. The Rev. Ronald Fleming-Triplett was approved as a Provisional Member transferred from another conference or denomination (Question 29.d).

The Rev. Al Hammer, the registrar for full members, came forward for Question 32, parts a. and b., which listed those elected as members in full connection. The following were elected by vote of more than three-fourths of the body: as Deacon, Leo Yates, Jr.; as Elder: Giovanni Arroyo, Nicholas Bufano, Beth Hutton, Elizabeth LeMaster, Brenda Lewis, James McSavaney, Laura Novell, Katharine Saari, Dawn Steward, Heath Wilson, and, for recognition of orders, Reginald Tarpley. All but Tarpley were listed under Questions 33 and 34 which ask who are ordained as Deacons and Elders. They were approved by a three-fourths vote. When they returned to the stage to the applause of the body, the bishop then asked them the Historic Questions.

The Rev. Linda Glassbrook, retired, observed that anyone listed in Question 32 had to be listed elsewhere and she did not see Reginald Tarpley listed any place else. She asked if his name belonged in another section. Hunt responded that Tarpley was being received on transfer and will be placed in Question 30.

Hunt moved for approval of the report as amended. The Rev. Sarah Schieckert raised concern that during the Historic Questions there was laughter when the question regarding debt was asked. She reminded the body that her brother, who was a Provisional Elder, committed suicide. At his death, he was $100,000 in debt, including debt to the IRS and his seminary. She urged the body to take seriously this question and its reaction next year.

The Rev. Dean Snyder, retired, requested an appeal of the bishop’s most recent ruling of law because it was based on Judicial Council ruling 1341 which was unconstitutional, he said, because “it was an intrusion by the Judicial Council into the constitutional authority of the General Conference by redefining and adding to the definition made by the General Conference of self-avowed practicing homosexual.”

Bishop Easterling clarified that he was not saying that the Judicial Council is saying that the Judicial Council ruling is unconstitutional. Snyder said he was asking that her rule of law be reviewed by the Judicial Council because 1341 was unconstitutional. Easterling added that her ruling was also based on the Book of Discipline but said his challenge still stood.

Gorman suggested that the way the appeal was phrased may be out of order because Snyder is appealing the Judicial Council and the Annual Conference does not have that standing. He suggested the appeal be to the bishop's ruling and not include the Judicial Council.

Snyder said that his concern was that a rationale for the appeal be included in communication with the Judicial Council and if there was a better way to do that, he welcomed the suggestion. He was unsure that the appeal without the rationale would be helpful. Bishop Easterling asked Snyder to restate the appeal. Snyder felt his appeal would offer an opportunity for the Judicial Council to reconsider its decision.

Gorman stated that a mechanism exists for such reconsideration, but it is the General Conference and the Council of Bishops and perhaps the Jurisdictional Conference and that he would have to check in the Book of Discipline.

After several exchanges between Gorman and Snyder, the body allowed the Conference Chancellor, Thomas Starnes, to address the appeal under discussion. Starnes explained that no rationale needed to be provided in the appeal. He instructed that the actions he could take was to make a motion to appeal, let the body vote on it and provide whatever rationale he wanted when the time came. Snyder offered the appeal without the rationale.

The Rev. Alisa Lasater, Capitol Hill, asked for clarification on what a "yes" vote and a "no" vote meant. Bishop Easterling explained that a yes vote would mean support of the appeal of her ruling of law. A no vote would affirm her ruling. The appeal was approved.

The Board of Ordained Ministry report was approved as amended. Bishop Easterling expressed concerns for the treatment of those not moved forward and asked if the Board would review the Book of Discipline and tell the candidates with "specificity" their status moving forward. Hunt will review what has been done and move forward on what was heard from the body.

In response to a request by the Rev. Roberta Scoville, retired, to communicate to clergy and the conference what the Board does and how it cares for those excluded from moving forward based on a "category," Bishop Easterling asked the Board of Ordained Ministry to provide information regarding its policy but not individual candidates or their names. By sharing the Board's policy, in the current case and moving forward what happens to any candidate that does not pass clergy session will be understood.

Hunt explained that the Executive Committee considered these matters as it did when it published its policy in March. They worked with Communications to message ways they think are helpful including FAQs and articles. They are guided in their work by ¶635 of the Discipline.

The Rev. Loretta Johnson, Jones Memorial, asked if the BOOM policy regarding asking questions on human sexuality at the DCOM level and BOOM level, rendered their memo void based on actions taken at the clergy session. She asked if BOOM will issue a new policy and rescind the current policy. Hunt responded that BOOM will continue to review its policies and will review the aforementioned policy in light of the information they now have. He said that it is a fluid time and much can change. They will be working on policy during the summer.

Lasater asked for a pastoral word on what to say about the outcome of the session to the people of their congregations, many of whom will be "broken-hearted."

Bishop Easterling said, "I would say that we are imperfect people dealing with an imperfect Book of Discipline guiding us through uncertain times. That we've done the best work we can do with integrity and fidelity to the Book of Discipline and the rule of law of the Church as it stands right now. It doesn't mean that everybody who voted agrees with the Book of Discipline and yet we are bound to uphold the Book of Discipline." The bishop asked that everyone remain in prayer for the work that will be undertaken in February 2019 in St. Louis, Missouri. She spoke on the value of prayer as a means by which we "call upon almighty God to guide us and lead us into all truth."

She reminded the session that we don't have to always agree but that we can disagree with love and respect for each other as "beloved children of God." The bishop asked that all stand and sing "Bless Be the Ties that Bind." The session closed with the delivery of a prayer by the bishop.

Opening Worship

Wednesday, May 30, 2018 | 7 pm

The Rev. Andre Briscoe wished to rehearse a special chorus – "We Are One Beneath the Cross." The Conference Choir and a soloist led the singing of the chorus several times.

Pastor Kyle Durbin asked the congregation to stand for the Processional Hymn – "And Are We Yet Alive." Durbin led the Greeting and then the Call to Celebration. The Conference Choir led in singing "We Are One Beneath the Cross."

As the refrain was sung, people and artifacts representing the diversity of the BWC — such as miners' tools, backpacks, a wheelchair, hammer, protest sign, law books, and musical instruments — were placed on columns around the altar table by laity and clergy who then gathered beneath the cross and lifted linked arms as the song concluded. Durbin led the Opening Prayer that lifted up the people of the community of Ellicott City, which had recently experienced devastating flood damage.

Delores Martin, Conference Lay Leader, read Psalm 133 followed by the refrain. Four conference youth and Durbin did a dynamic reading of Ephesians 4:1-6 with movements.

Young mimes from St. Matthews UMC in Turner Station, performing to "Better," showed there are challenges in life and that Jesus promises a better life.

District Superintendent, the Rev. Evan Young, sang "Beneath the Cross of Jesus" and Bishop LaTrelle Easterling joined in the last stanza. Those assembled responded with cheers and applause.

Bishop Easterling began her sermon with the impassioned words, "Beneath the cross of Jesus is where Christ drew his last breath and made his deepest offering of obedience and love... the place where distinction between all flesh was erased and the forms of humanity dissipated into nothingness."

Easterling, marveled at how "the world lost its collective mind" when Bishop Michael Curry preached on the theme of love at the recent royal wedding.

"It was a great sermon. And, it was not new," she said. "We are still wrestling with the notion of love — of what it means to be in love with God, in love with Christ and with each other. With approximately 2.2 billion Christians in the world, we ought to be swimming in love," she said.

"...Beloved, to be Christ-followers, we have to be willing to immerse ourselves in love and "embrace those on the opposite political, economic and theological side – those who don't think, act, preach, pray, dance, speak or believe like us," the bishop said.

"The road God called us to travel began at the foot of the cross." But the question is "Are we capable of traveling it together? How can we do that in our present state? We travel it with humility. We travel it understanding ourselves as nothing but sinners saved by grace. ... We travel it by allowing the Holy Spirit to transform us. We travel it by embracing the meaning and message of the cross."

The bishop then declared, “We better get it together Baltimore-Washington Conference, and act like and live like and love like and preach like and pray like and dance like we are one beneath the cross. Because it’s true anyhow!” The congregation erupted with applause and shouts of amen and hallelujah.

The Conference Choir sang, “I Will Give Thanks Unto Thee, O Lord” with Detra Battle-Washington, soloist.

To “Wading in the Water,” Conference Lay Leader, Delores Martin, delivered the greeting and presented Abraham James McCubbin-Dominguez, the son of the Revs. Bonnie McCubbin and Leon Dominguez, for baptism. Bishop Easterling conducted the baptism and said, “They say those who don’t cry when they get baptized are going to be preachers.”

Chris Schliekert, Director of Retreat and Camping Ministries, introduced the ministry that would be supported by the offering. He shared what he called the “big number:” 200,000 hours, the amount of time young people will spend at the three conference camp and retreat centers between May and August. A week of camp, he explained, is out of reach for many children in spite of the generosity of individual donors, local churches and grant opportunities that allows them to provide over $50,000 in camperships each year.

The choir sang, “The Lord is My Light and My Salvation” during the collection. The Offertory Response was “Give Thanks.”

Bishop Easterling offered The Great Thanksgiving and Delores Martin read the thanksgiving. After the response, the bishop invited all to join in saying “The Lord’s Prayer” in the language or tongue in which they were most comfortable.

While designated people came forward to serve the elements, the Choir sang the Communion hymns, “Come to the Table” and “Let Us Break Bread Together.”

Bishop Easterling led the congregation in the Prayer of Thanksgiving and announced the closing song, “Every Praise” and Bishop Easterling gave the benediction. “All Praise the Power of Jesus’ Name” was sung as the bishop and Cabinet and other worship participants processed out.

First Plenary Session

Thursday, May 31, 2018 | 8:30 a.m.

The Rev. Alisa Lasater led the congregation in the “Call to Praise, Prayer and Study.” The choir led the congregation in singing, “We Are One Beneath the Cross.” The Rev. Tony Love, assistant to the bishop, offered greetings and introduced the Bible Study leader, the Rev. Dr. Shively Smith, a professor at Wesley Theological Seminary.

The topic and Scripture for the two days of Bible study were based on the conference theme, “We are One: Connected Beneath the Cross” and the conference Scripture, Ephesians 4:1-16. Smith encouraged the attendees to “explore what we envision or what we imagine connection and oneness look like.” She invited those present to “play interpretively with the text.”

Smith said the apostle Paul wrote letters that “focused on a vision of locally based churches, wrestling with locally based problems, needing locally informed strategies for how to navigate in a way that keeps the community three prong: together, safe and flourishing.” But Ephesians is different, she said. It offers a broader, pervasive and persuasive force. In it, Paul redefines the local. He uses metaphor to describe the church, calling upon images of church as different kinds of family, as the body of Christ, household of God, and temple of God.

Word pictures and visuals allow us to explore God in new ways, she said, ways that should unsettle us. The church cannot be defined by one image.

Smith left the audience with the question: “How are two groups totally opposed to each other in culture, in identity and in lifestyle and standing both connected in Christ?” The conundrum of connection that Ephesians is lifting up and engaging ... is fundamentally a question — “How do we see ourselves connected to each other in space and time when our spaces, historical timelines, our history are diametrically opposed?” She concluded that Ephesians “invites us into the experience of playing with what’s possible.”

Love invited those in attendance to view a video from Bishop Easterling.

In the video, Easterling welcomed all to the 234th Session of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference and explained that she would be attending her son’s high school graduation. In a video clip, Bishop Easterling introduced Bishop Sudarshana Devadhar, resident bishop of the New England Annual Conference, who would preside over the session in her absence.

At 9:35 a.m. Bishop Devadhar called to order the 234th session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference and asked the congregation to join in singing “Spirit of the Living God,” followed by the Rev. John Nupp offering the opening prayer. Cynthia Taylor, Conference Secretary, read the Organizational Motion.

The Rev. Mary Kay Totty offered a motion: “In light of the special called General Conference in February 2019, I move to amend our rules to make the deadline for Annual Conference resolutions March 25, 2019.” Taylor asked for a moment to consult with Communications because of the journal production schedule.

The Rev. Mark Gorman, Chair of the Conference Rules Committee, said that the committee would not be opposed to extending the deadline.

Jan Ihlo pointed out that the rules state that such motions should go to the Rules Committee for consideration and that since all members were present that could be done fairly quickly and a clear recommendation made. They would consult with the Conference Lay Leader regarding when the Connectional Table meets and with Communications regarding posting to ensure that the date is sufficient for other considerations.

Bishop Devadhar checked with the maker of the motion to ensure she was in agreement with the Rules Committee meeting and coming back with a recommendation. Totty explained the she wanted the deliberations to include the need for flexibility regarding when the Connectional Table will meet and printing deadlines. She had given one month after General Conference to get resolutions written and endorsed by local congregations so they can be submitted to Annual Conference.

The bishop agreed that the committee would report back to the session following their meeting.

Rev. Lynn Glassbrook, retired Elder, asked a “question of logistics” as to how it was possible with the electronic devices to know if voters were within the bar and how we address this. Taylor stated it was a matter of integrity since it was not possible to monitor.

The Organizational Motion passed with agreement that the Rules Committee would return after meeting on the proposed rule change. Bishop Devadhar called Gorman to present the Rules Committee Report and review of the Rules of the Session that he provided using the General Rules of the Church as a framework. The bishop called for a vote on the Rules of the Session. They were approved.

The Conference Lay Leader, Delores Martin, offered greetings and thanks to all of the laity of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. The three district lay leaders would give this year’s Laity Report. Ophelia Brown Carter, from the Baltimore Metropolitan District; Kim Carr, and Annapolis District lay leader; Rosalind Pinkney, Washington East District lay leader.

Linda Flanagan, director of Lay Servant Ministries, gave the Certified Lay Ministers (CLM)

Report. She noted that there are 115 CLMs in the Baltimore-Washington Conference with 24 pending recommendations by District Committees on Ordained Ministry or votes by the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministry. Flanagan introduced 19 individuals being honored for completing two years of course work for which each would receive a Certificate of Course Completion. She recognized and thanked the three pastors who taught and mentored the CLMs: the Revs. Loretta Johnson, Kendrick Weaver and William Warehime, Jr.

Bishop Devadhar requested all clergy to stand and applaud the laity.

Bishop Devadhar then gave a presentation on the Commission on the Way Forward. He explained that it has been two years since the formation of the Commission of the Way Forward in 2016. The task force was created by the Council of Bishops (COB) at the request of the General Conference to work on sections in the Book of Discipline dealing with homosexuality. COB President Bruce R. Ough, said that the request (approved by a vote of 428 to 364) was the “first time a General Conference has ever made such a request of the Council of Bishops” and that they accepted the request “with humility.”

The commission recently completed its work, Bishop Devadhar said, and the COB said in May that the Council is recommending the One Church Plan to the 2019 Special Session of General Conference. The COB is presenting only one plan; other plans will be presented for information only.

Devadhar said that the bishops are committed to lead the effort to remain a unified church and asked the General Conference to “affirm” their own “commitment to maintaining and strengthening the unity” of The United Methodist Church. The bishops have called for a time of prayer by all.

The recommendation adopted by the COB reflects the wide “diversity of theological perspectives and the global nature of the UMC as the best way forward of our future as a denomination.”

The full report, translated in 11 languages, is expected to be released by July 8, the submission deadline for petitions to the special session of General Conference.

Bishop Devadhar recommended a book by Bishop C. Andrew Doyle of the Episcopal Church, Texas Diocese. Facing a similar split in the church a few years ago on the subject of homosexuality, Bishop Doyle’s book, “Unity in Mission,” was read throughout his diocese. Not a single church left the denomination.

“Friends, we lived until 1972 without restrictive language in our Book of Discipline,” Bishop Devadhar said, making it clear he was speaking for himself. “There are problems in our world — immigration and drug issues, and others. The church should be on the street to fight and be a witness.” The bishop concluded his remarks calling for unity with justice “so that every child of God can claim The United Methodist Church as his or her home.”

Bishop Devadhar welcomed Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey, bishop of the Louisiana Annual Conference, as the preacher for Ordination. She encouraged the body to focus on mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Members also celebrated the faithful support of Africa University (AU). James Salley, AU Associate Vice-Chancellor for Institutional Advancement, reported that 600 people would graduate from AU next week, bringing the total to more than 7,000 people. On stage with Salley was the Rev. Lloyd Rollins, AU Development Office in Fulton, staff Karen Conway, and Charlie Moore, who serves on the AU Board of Directors and the AU Advisory Development Committee and on the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry Investment Committee. Salley presented a banner for 100 percent giving to the Baltimore-Washington Conference for giving $56,700 to AU.

General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) officer, Sabrina Rodgers, said that representatives work around the world in over 125 countries. Ten thousand volunteers work with United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). GBGM is on the frontline in global health ministries. In 2017, $40 million was provided for disasters with most going to California, Florida, Texas and Puerto Rico. UMCOR provided a $22 million grant to the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico to continue to lead recovery and rebuilding efforts on the island. There are currently 350 missionaries in 60 countries including more than 100 young adult global mission fellows. In addition to subsidizing more than 300 nationals in mission who work in their home country, there are thousands of UM Volunteers in Mission. Ministries in Global Health cover malaria, HIV/AIDS, child nutrition and updating of church-related hospitals and clinics especially in Africa. The Abundant Health Initiative pledges the UMC will provide life-saving interventions to one million children by 2020. The Advance has been the main source of funds for 70 years providing $1.6 billion for United Methodist mission giving, 100 percent of which goes to donor-designated work. Since 2009, 963 new worshipping communities have started through these initiatives in 13 locations. GBGM presented the Baltimore-Washington Conference with three stewardship awards for being among the top 10 supporters of health initiatives, missionaries, and U.S. Disaster Response.

Bishop Devadhar asked that the congregation stand and sing the Doxology in recognition of its giving.

Next was a video from the Baltimore-Washington Conference United Methodist Women (UMW) explaining the purpose and mission of the UMW and acknowledging the 150th Anniversary. The video presented the four UMW focus areas: Maternal and Child Health, Climate Justice, Mass Incarceration: The School to Prison Pipeline, and the Charter for Racial Justice. UMW districts held 400 sessions on mass incarceration in the church and local communities. Church and Society and the BWC UMW held its annual Legislative Advocacy Day; and Mission U and youth school will be held in July.

The Rev. HiRho Park, Executive Director of Clergy Lifelong Learning and UMC Cyber Campus, introduced the General Board of Higher Education Ministry (GBHEM) video featuring greetings from Rev. Dr. Kim Cape, GBHEM General Secretary. In the video, Cape said the organization was proud of their programs of recruiting and developing new clergy leaders.

Park shared the mission and vision of GBHEM. The Connect Anew campaign is designed to meet the evolving leadership needs of the church to provide higher education to those around the world at a lower cost. She gave an overview of UMC Cyber Campus, which is creating connections, sharing resources and providing opportunities for theological and higher education. She said that today two-thirds of 273 theological schools offer courses and degrees online. GBHEM has developed multi-lingual, mobile accessible online learning platforms, UMC Cyber Campus, a gateway to theological and higher education at 13 United Methodist approved Schools of Theology.

Following the Wesley Theological Seminary video, 2017 Master of Divinity graduate Rev. Monica Raines, talked about her experiences as a student. She is pastor at Christ UMC in Southwest D.C. There is now a five-year part-time Master of Divinity Program.

Rules Chair, Rev. Mark Gorman, after meeting with the Rules Committee, moved to amend Rule 5410.G.1.a to read that resolutions “be submitted to the Conference Secretary by April 1.” The motion passed.

Jen Ihlo, Discipleship Council Chair, made a motion: “Beginning immediately that the Sessions Committee publish a schedule of anticipated matters to be considered in each plenary session so that the body will know what is coming. And, going forward, the Sessions Committee shall publish, at least 24 hours in advance, the matters to be considered in each plenary session.” The motion passed.

The Rev. Stacy Nickerson, Board of Child Care (BCC), introduced the President and CEO, Laurie Anne Spagnola, who she said has brought transformational leadership to the organization. Spagnola serves on the Board of Directors of the United Methodist Association that brings together organizations that serve in health and welfare and outreach ministries who all share a common heritage of the United Methodist Church. In Extension Ministry, Nickerson's role is to extend "the grace of The United Methodist Church to the BCC, to children, youth, young adults, and their families." Nickerson thanked the Conference for support of BCC. She then offered the grace for lunch.

Second Plenary Session

Thursday, May 31, 2018 | 2:00 pm

Bishop Devadhar welcomed Bishop Eugene Sutton, the bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland, who brought greetings from the 110 parishes in Maryland. On May 10, the diocese of Maryland welcomed Bishop Easterling to preach at their gathering, he said. He spoke about the fraternal relationship between the denominations and the importance of ecumenical relationships that speak to the body of Christ. He reminded the assembled that John Wesley died an Anglican priest and that "he died a happy man." The Episcopal Church and the Methodist Church have been in formal dialogue for over 50 years. A proposal was issued last fall entitled, "A Gift to the World – Co-Laborers for the Healing of Brokenness." It calls for a full communion between the two churches, not a merger, but a loose relationship where the churches are interdependent but remain autonomous, allowing for mutual celebration of the sacraments and the inter-changeability of ordained ministers. The proposal goes before their General Convention in Austin, Texas in July. He concluded saying that the Episcopal Church wants to walk with the Methodist Church as brothers and sisters while acknowledging differences in regards to human sexuality.

Next, Tony White brought greetings on behalf of Mayor Catherine Pugh, who was unable to attend because of a change in her schedule. He welcomed the conference back to Baltimore. White presented a Proclamation on the occasion of the 234th Baltimore Washington Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Baltimore Metropolitan District Superintendent, the Rev. Wanda Duckett presented a gift of a Resurrection Plant for Mayor Pugh and offered a prayer for the Mayor and the city.

Rev. Stacey Cole-Wilson, Executive Minister of Justice and Service, and member of the Call to Action on Racial Justice Steering Committee and CCORR members Moorosi Mokuena, Darryl Taylor and Jennifer Fenner presented an update on the NEJ Call to Action on Racial Justice. Cole-Wilson gave background of the Call to Action, a resolution unanimously passed by delegates to the 2016 Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference that called for the church "to do more to fight discrimination, to confront racism and to affirm all lives matter in God's eyes."

Mokuena said that the Call to Action initiative is on the Baltimore-Conference website. During the 2017 Annual Conference people were implored to complete covenant cards to commit to take one or more actions related to the NEJ Call to Action goals. Five hundred and fifty-nine people completed and returned their cards. To date, 376 churches have joined to covenant. The Call to Action Progress Report is included in the Discipleship Ministries report.

A video was shown of ways the conference was involved in working to end racism. Bishop Easterling spoke against racism in front of the Methodist Building and in April the Global UM Church partnered with the National Council of Churches in the Unite to End Racism Rally in Washington, DC. April 2-7, 30 conference participants attended the "Sojourn to Memphis" honoring Dr. King's legacy and his call for economic and racial justice 50 years after his assassination. Next year, Tony Hunt will lead a pilgrimage to Selma, Alabama, best known for the 1960s voting rights movement and the Selma to Montgomery march that led to congress passing the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Building upon the success of the 2017 Recall Summit on Racial Justice and Multicultural Living led by Dr. Deborah Mumford, a Recall Summit 2018 will be held October 26-27 with Jim Wallis and Dr. Marvin McMickle to offer training opportunities and time for “deep listening, sharing, relationship building and intentional community.”

Darryl Taylor told the gathering that to offer laity and clergy expert training, grounding and language for this “sacred work,” they partnered with “Spaces” in creation of the beloved community, “Hub Pilot,” in Baltimore, an intentional community of 25 people of which he is a part. They covenanted to meet monthly from February 2018 to August 2018 to address their own personal implicit bias and the power to enact racial healing, reconciliation, individuation, and perspective taking.

Jennifer Fenner invited those present to sign up for the racial justice team, the rapid response team to address local instances of racial injustice, complete a covenant card and commit to make progress, and visit the BWC website on how to best resource congregations in the work. She encouraged all to invite their congregations to join what must “be a grassroots’ effort to dismantle racial injustice.”

Bishop Devadhar thanked everyone for support as he filled in for Bishop Easterling. He invited the congregation to sing, “To God Be the Glory” and welcome back Bishop LaTrelle Easterling.

Bishop Easterling greeted the gathering. She expressed her thanks to Bishop Devadhar and she expressed how grateful she and her family was to the conference for allowing her to be a mom. She also acknowledged, welcomed and thanked Bishop Harvey for her participation and for preaching at Ordination that evening.

Bishop Easterling announced that in response to a request for a detailed agenda, it could be found on the BWC website and was being updated on the app. Friday’s agenda was also in the UMConnection Daily.

Christie Latona, Director of Connectional Ministries, introduced her presentation with a video, “Connecting the Dots.” The video outlined the primary ministries of the Baltimore-Washington Conference and how they connect us with one another, our communities, God, and God’s world. “If we are not connected to Jesus, none of it works,” she said.

Over the past year, the Conference worked to develop a new way or organizing that will allow for a more efficient and more faithful connectional system, reported Latona, who began as the DCM in July 2017. During the year, she held several listening sessions and led efforts to create a structure that empowers the work of the Conference’s skilled servant workers to “make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.”

From this listening, five “major networks” or areas of work emerged: Leadership Development, New Faith Expressions, Young People’s Ministry, Advocacy and Action, and Abundant Health.

The full report of Connectional Ministries is in the Journal Reports.

During the Connectional Ministries report, several awards were presented.

The Harry Denman Evangelism Award that “honors United Methodists in each conference whose exceptional ministry of evangelism brings people into a life-transforming relationship with Jesus Christ.” The youth winner, Alexander Spencer, the clergy winner, Rev. Timothy Warner. Martin, and the laity winner, Jacob Beal, were announced.

The “Youth Worker of the Year Award” winner, Sharon Milton of Emory UMC in Washington, D.C. and the “Young Adult Leader of the Year Award” to Hannah Callihan and Zachary Armacost, both of Grace UMC in Hampstead.

The Advocacy and Action Award of $1,000 to Emory UMC in Washington, D.C. for its work in advocating to transform systems that disenfranchise, marginalize and oppress. The nominator said: “In addition to building affordable housing, worshipping with those who are marginalized, providing JFON clinics for immigrants and campaigning and working to change systems which oppress ...everywhere there is injustice, Emory has been present and spoken out against it. It is a trusted voice for those who are not heard, and standing in unity for those experiencing injustice.” Rev. Joe Daniels and two congregants, LaMar Wilson and Chris Schwartz, accepted the award.

The Abundant Health Award that is “given to a faith community that exemplifies the fostering of spiritual, physical and mental health for all and promotes an understanding of the interconnectedness of all aspects of health.” There was a tie. The recipients of the award that includes $1,000 to reinvest in ministry were: St. John’s UMC’s nonprofit primary care and behavioral health center, Adullum Community Healthcare Center, located with in the church in an underserved part of Baltimore; Grace UMC in Port Washington is engaged in domestic violence/intimate partner abuse prevention, nutrition and wellness, mission trips for aid and relief, community services and engagement including an Alzheimer’s Support Group, worship services and Bible studies in a local nursing home and assisted living facility, and a newly formed mental health ministry including an annual mental health fair.

Latona concluded, saying that “God is calling the people of the Baltimore-Washington Conference to be change-makers, doing skilled servant work.” Bishop Easterling thanked the Connectional Ministries area for all the work they are doing, for all the new initiatives and for celebrating ministries that the conference wants to see strengthened and emulated.

Bishop Easterling then welcomed Rev. Jim Miller who gave the Episcopacy report. He shared the hope he receives in their conversations with the bishop and shared that with grace she has “listened, dialogued, and interacted with many throughout the annual conference.” He reminded those assembled of the countless times following traumatic events in our world, the bishop has issued statements of comfort and also challenge. “She calls us to prayer and action” and to be a voice and presence that offers hope and guidance to the community. He concluded his presentation by inviting Rev. Marion Easterling and the bishop to join them for the presentation of a gift to the bishop’s spouse. The bishop expressed her thanks for the committee, for their prayers and for helping to make “this our home.”

David Schoeller, BWC CFA Business Data Analyst, gave detailed instructions on using the voting units, the voting cards and voting privileges. He assured the members that the conference has used the vendor for a number of years and has never had concerns regarding the accuracy and quality of the equipment nor regarding their procedures. The majority of concerns have been traced back to user error or the feedback shown on the screen. He thanked the vendor for its service.

Bishop Easterling then moved to the Constitutional Amendment that was voted on at last year’s annual conference and that needed to be voted upon again because of an error in the text. The conference secretary read the corrected amendment.

Rev. Mark Schaefer, Chaplain, American University rose to raise a point of information clarifying the text being voted upon. Bishop Easterling clarified the meaning of a yes vote would be in support of the amendment and a no vote would mean not being in support of the amendment.

Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, serving at the Council of Bishops, spoke in support of the amendment explaining that the amendment adds inclusiveness for gender.

Rev. Shannon Sullivan, associate at Calvary in Frederick, in support of the amendment shared that after the amendment failed to pass last year a group of United Methodist young clergywomen wrote a letter expressing their hurt; over a 1,000 United Methodist women throughout the world, including every conference in the United States, signed it. She wanted to let the annual conference know how important the amendment is to women and urge support of it.

Matthew Tate, local pastor from Emmanuel Charge (Huntingtown), rose with a question regarding delaying the vote until after ordination so those being made Full Elders and Deacons could vote because every vote counts in the global church.

Bishop Easterling responded that the vote could be delayed. It was stated that the question had been called. Jen Ihlo rose with a point of order because there were not two speeches for and against, so the question could not be called. She made a motion to postpone the vote on the constitutional amendment until after ordination. The motion to delay the vote passed.

The bishop announced the recognition of the retirees who came to the stage to applause and cheers from those in attendance. She recounted the innumerable ways the retirees had dedicated their lives to being in ministry and acknowledged that only God knows the extent of their ministries and the people they touched.

Hunt, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, gave the Board of Ordained Ministry Report. He offered appreciation to the bishop, Debbie Albrecht, John Nupp, and the 54 members of the Board.

Provisional member registrar, Rev. Scott Schumaker, introduced the person being recommended for commissioning as Deacon and the 14 candidates being commissioned as Elder. Rev. Al Hammer, registrar for full membership and ordination, presented the 12 people to be ordained in full connection — one as Deacon and 11 as Elders.

Bishop Easterling asked the historic questions of the candidates for full membership.

Beth Hutton, Middletown UMC, requested a moment of personal privilege. Joined at the microphone by eight others, she read a statement on behalf of the group that said while they were “honored and privileged” to be elected as Deacons and Elders in full connection or commissioned, they were deeply grieved that their LGBTQ colleagues, who also have calls on their lives, will be excluded. She pledged the commitment of those surrounding her to stand with those who had been rejected with their “presence and vote.” Urged by the Holy Spirit, she said, they stood for inclusion and “for the end of exclusion,” awaiting the time when The United Methodist Church “embraces the fullness of every person’s gifts.”

Bishop Easterling requested Rev. John Nupp to pray for this difficult and unfortunate moment in the life of the conference and the life of the church.

Bishop Easterling welcomed BWC covenant partners, Bishop Seung Ho Choi of the South Conference of the Korean Methodist Church, and a visiting delegation, who brought greetings from South Korea. District Superintendent, the J.W. Park served as translator. Bishop Choi said that whenever he comes to the BWC his “heart is on fire.” The Korean Methodist church has 1.5 million members. He introduced his wife Rev. Lee and his youngest son. Gifts were exchanged. Bishop Choi offered grace for lunch.

Service of Commissioning, Reception and Commissioning and Ordination

Thursday, May 31, 2018 | 7 p.m.

At 7 pm, the worship leader proclaimed the greeting: “We are one, beneath the cross. As one body of believers, let us lift high the cross of Jesus.” The assembled joined the choir in singing, “Lift High the Cross,” as the worship participants, the Cabinet, clergy, ordinands and their sponsors, and those to be commissioned processed in. Bishops Sudarshana Devadhar, Cynthia Fierro Harvey, and LaTrelle Easterling processed in and took their seats on the stage.

Elder candidate, Mi Ja Cho, led the Call to Worship. Rev. Hunt read a short piece on ordination and then led the opening prayer. Bishop Easterling led the “Recognition of Common Ministry and Reaffirmation of Baptism.” The congregation responded by singing, “O Master Let Me Walk with Thee.” Bishop Easterling conducted the “Commissioning to the Office of Deaconess,” Irene DeMaris, who was presented by Elizabeth Stemley, UMW President.

Conference Lay Leader, Delores Martin and Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, Rev.

Tony Hunt, presented those to be commissioned for the work of a Deacon or Elder, ordained as a Deacon or an Elder, or recognized. The Rev. Scott Shumaker, registrar for the Provisional Members, read the name of each candidate to be commissioned: (Deacon) Megan Biggers Blanchard; (Elders) Sherwyn A. H. Benjamin, Scott Howard Bostic, Patrick Hurder Buhman, Mi Ja Cho, Christopher John Dembeck, Sarah Marie Elliott, Kathryn Page Mackereth Fulton, James N. Gosnell, Lynne Humphries-Russ, David Michael Jacobson, Robert C. Ruggieri II, Anna Schwartz, Emily Anne Smiley, and Matthew P. Tate.

Rev. Al Hammer, Registrar for Full Members, read the names of those to be ordained: (Deacon) Leo Yates, Jr.; (Elders) Giovanni Arroyo, Nicholas Michael Bufano, Beth Hutton, Elizabeth Ann LeMaster, Brenda Lee Lewis, James David McSavaney, Laura Manny Norvell, Katharine Ann Saari, Dawn Stewart, Heath Eric Wilson, and to recognize orders for Reginald Tarpley.

Kim Carr, District Lay Leader, read the Scripture, Ephesians 4:1-6.

Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey of the Louisiana Area preached. She used images of maps, map-making, the North Star, and the Lewis and Clark expedition. There may be apps for maps, but sometime you just need one that you can hold in your hand and “see where you are relative to where you are going,” she said.

Early navigators used the North Star for guidance. It was simple and constant. “The North Star stays fixed in the sky,” she said. In our lives of faith, Bishop Harvey said, we need to remember what our center is: “our mission,” she said. “What is our North Star?”

She said the clergy and laity are called by our baptism to be transformers. “We are resurrection people”, she said, “God can do so much more than any of us could ever ask or imagine.”

She reminded all to keep their eyes on the mission. “Don’t take your eyes off it for even a millisecond,” she said. “You might be the next Lewis and Clark; you might be the next map maker. Start telling a different kind of story, so that a different kind of future might unfold.”

Bishop Easterling led the Examination and Commissioning of the Provisional Candidates. Family members and friends stood in affirmation as the bishop and the conference lay leader laid hands on each candidate.

For the offering, Seeds of Security, an initiative that offers support to victims of domestic violence, was the recipient.

Bishop Easterling examined the candidate for ordination as a Deacon, Leo Yates, Jr., then ordained him as Bishops Devadhar and Harvey, and his sponsors, laid hands on him.

The bishop then led the Examination of the Full Member Elder Candidates as a group. Reginald Tarpley had his orders recognized as a Full Elder in The United Methodist Church.

Each candidate for ordination was ordained as an Elder as Bishop Easterling, Bishop Harvey, Bishop Devadhar, and their sponsors laid hands upon each of them. Each was also draped with a stole. After the last candidate was ordained, the congregation affirmed and celebrated the new Elders.

Bishop Easterling issued an “Invitation to Hear God’s Call to Ordained Ministry” and asked those who wanted to explore that call to come forward. Pastors were waiting to pray with them and provide guidance. She invited those who had responded to God’s call and taking steps to also come forward.

Bishop Easterling prayed a “Prayer for Discernment.” The service ended with the Recessional Hymn, “Precious Name.”

Bible Study

Friday, June 1, 2018 | 8 a.m.

The community gathered for the second morning Bible study.

The Rev. Tony Love re-introduced Rev. Shively T. Smith, leading the study, “Re-Imaging Our Oneness,” using Ephesians 4:1-16.

To survive and thrive, in today’s culture, she said, we must listen to Ephesians and go bigger than our here and now. “Ephesians transcends a single contextual space and a single contextual moment in time. The expansive vision of Ephesians is not just there for comfort. It is there to challenge.”

“No single interpretive landscape is sufficient unto itself to illustrate God’s relationship between God and God’s people, and God’s people with one another,” she said.

Ephesians offers a clarion call of what it means to adopt multiple metaphors and “be bigger.”

Third Plenary Session

Friday, June 1, 2018 | 9:00 am

Commission on a Way Forward

The Rev. Tom Berlin, lead pastor of Floris UMC in Herndon, Va., made an hour-long presentation on the just-completed work of the Commission on a Way Forward, of which he is a member.

The issues before the body were stated as: 1) Disagreement about paragraph 161.g of the Book of Discipline; 2) Same sex marriage; and 3) Ordination of self-avowed practicing homosexual persons. Other important issues were: 1) Our ability to reach LGBTQ persons and include them and their allies in the life of the church; 2) Disagreement on the interpretation of scripture related to same-sex relationships; and 3) People leaving our churches – both progressive people and traditional people.

He explained that the purpose of the Commission was that to get to a different place and a place of peace, “we need to use a different procedure and process.” The Commission has 32 people from 9 nations, 15 states including all jurisdictions, men and women, straight and gay, lay, Elders, Deacons and bishops. It included a full span of generations and across the ideological spectrum.

The report the Commission issued, he said, was a different kind of report.

“It is really a product of Christian conversation. People were sometimes angry and upset, but rarely left the table or stopped contributing.” He said the 32 people “showed up unflinchingly prepared.”

The Commission met nine times over 17 months. The work and relationships were a product of conversation, study, prayer, listening, transparency and trust, he said. They looked at and studied the Bible together, prayed at every session, celebrated the sacrament of Holy Communion, and worshipped together. Berlin said it was one of the “most spiritual experiences” he has ever had in The United Methodist Church.

The work of the Commission was “what are we going to do for all of us?” - all 12 million of us around the world.

Commission members talked to other denominations that had already done the work, including the Anglican Union.

“It would be a lot easier if we were only doing this in the United States,” he said, “or in the Baltimore-Washington Conference. But we are a connectional church; we are a global church.”

The choice for the 2019 Special Session, Berlin said, is which mission the church wants to pursue: the public mission (to transform the world) or the private mission (to care for our members). Most UMC clergy in the United States have not told their church that there is a Commission because “they don’t want to talk about it; they are pursuing a vision to make their members comfortable.”

The Council of Bishops recommend the One Church Plan. The plan removed the “incompatibility” language in the Book of Discipline and maintains the current structure of The United Methodist Church. Berlin also gave an overview of the other plans and the distinctions between the plans.

The question before the UMC is “Who will we be? In what form of faith community? With what unity? Seeking to do ministry with whom?” Delegates will be deciding this.

A Q&A time followed.

Bishop Easterling thanked Berlin for what she described as a brilliant exposition of an extremely complicated matter in a short period of time. She said that the work is going to take maturity on everyone’s part.

Service of the Saints

As the Clergy Women’s Choir gently sang, “Illumine Me,” the procession entered the ballroom with family members and friends of the departed being directed to their seats.

Deaconess Gertrude Dailey led the reading of Psalm 23. Debbie Camper, Young Adult At-Large member, read the Epistle, Hebrews 12:1-2. Those gathered sang, “Stand By Me.”

The Rev. Craig McLaughlin, pastor of Mt. Zion in Bel Air, offered words of comfort. He used Hebrews 12:1-2, “We have a great cloud of witnesses around us.” McLaughlin shared his belief that Jesus was present at the service and that Jesus “walks the roads of life with us.” He told of his own experiences of grief at the death of his father and how eventually that grief passed. Then, on March 24, 2014, his 19-year old daughter Hannah died of a drug overdose. He grieved and entered what he called the “dark night of the soul.” He said he learned that “whatever road of grief you travel, the Lord will be there. His love will sustain you.”

“Our loved ones who have gone before us have put a calling on our lives,” he said. McLaughlin said that each of the loved ones being remembered had put “faith in Jesus and served Jesus in The United Methodist Church.”

As the Clergy Women’s Choir sang, “Gather the Cloud of Witnesses,” five clergywomen lead by Baltimore Suburban district superintendent, the Rev. Ann Laprade, performed a liturgical dance. The choir then sang “Let Me Go Home.”

Cynthia Taylor, the Conference Secretary, came forward and read the names of the bishops and bishops’ spouses who died during the previous year. The following were remembered with praise and thanksgiving: Bishop John Wesley Hardt, Bishop Bevel L. Jones III, and Bishop Rüdiger Minor. Bishops’ Spouses: Jewell Blackburn, Dorothy Lee, Angelina Nacpil, Thelma H. Newman, Jean Stockton, and Lucile Elizabeth Wheatley.

After each bishop’s name was read, the designated family member or designated candle attendant lit a candle in memory of the departed as the Cokesbury UMC representative rang a bell. The same was done after the name of each spouse was read.

At the conclusion of the reading, the congregation sang the first verse of “For All the Saints”.

Taylor invited the congregation to remember with praise and thanksgiving the clergy, clergy spouses and laity who died during the last year. A family member or designated candle attendant lit a candle in memory of the departed as the bell rang.

Clergy: Leander H. Anske, Marion J. G. Bowman, Calvin P. Crosson, James W. Diggs, Dennis E. Dorsch, Roby Harold Eastridge, Emmanuel Gitlin, Clifford L. Harrison, Kenneth S. Jones, Paul Southwell Jones, Leon C. Kess, Jr., Harry A. Ledgard, Douglas M. Logan, Lloyd Charles

Spouses: LaVerne Archibald, Myrtle H. Brooks, Elaine Crowe, Charlotte Dixon, Nell B. Easteridge, Ben Griffith, Mary Marcus, Patricia Mason, Katherine Jean Rodeffer, Lucille May Olson Gunn Soper, Betty Jean Sparks, Matilda Tavener, and Margaret D. Williams.

Laity: Sharon Leatherman, Julie Elizabeth Flinchum, Luci Campos, Florence Maryellen Custis Jefferson, Clare Elizabeth Mack, Evalyn Hurley Nicodemus, Pamela Randall, Mildred Snyder, and David R. Watkins.

The final verse of “For All the Saints” was sung and then Taylor invited all who had experienced the death of a loved one within this conference year to stand and be remembered with praise and thanksgiving for lives lived well and service well rendered. After a candle was lit and the bell rung once, Bishop Easterling came forward to offer the prayer and shared that “today retired Elder, the Rev. Lloyd Marcus, had joined the church triumphant.” The Clergy Women’s Choir sang “Let Me Go Home.”

The service concluded with Words of Hope and Blessing from Bishop Easterling. The worship leaders recessed to the singing of “When We All Get to Heaven.”

Third Plenary Session

Friday, June 1, 2018 | 2 p.m.

Bishop Easterling expressed appreciation for the music ministry as she opened the plenary session.

Hampton Conway, the president of the United Methodist Men, told the story of the work and accomplishments of the United Methodist Men. Of the 641 churches in the conference, 129 have United Methodist Men Charters. Conway explained that getting involved in the ministry would be “a blessing to your church and its community.”

Rev. Mary Jo Sims, Arden UMC, made a motion that beginning with the 235th session of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference that the Stewardship Report and all of the business of annual conference that requires voting be conducted on the first day of the annual conference. She explained that it was 2 p.m. on the final day of annual conference with much business to be conducted that required voting and that needed to be completed by the scheduled 4:30 p.m. Service of Appointments. Rev. Mark Gorman, Rules Chair, asked a question of Sims based on her years as Conference Secretary, if she was suggesting a change in conference rules and she replied that it was more of a change in practices over previous times. Bishop Easterling said that she would guarantee that once voted upon the agenda would be prioritized as requested. The motion passed.

Jen Ihlo, Dumbarton, reminded the bishop to take a hand and voice vote so that the hearing impaired and visually impaired can understand the vote.

The bishop then announced the voting for the Constitutional Amendment. After discussion, the amendment passed.

During this time, the bishop introduced her guests who had travelled from Indianapolis for the high school graduation of the bishop’s son, Miles. She introduced her brother, Everett Lewis, and his grandson, Adrian Lewis, Jr.

The results were given to the conference secretary for the bishop’s signature and forwarding to the Council of Bishops Executive Secretary.

Stewardship Report

Paul Eichelberger, Treasurer, introduced the presentation of the four Stewardship Reports.

Rev. Jack Day, chair of the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, was ill and Rev. Cary James, Jr. filled in. James presented the good news that there will be no rate changes for health insurance costs for participants or the local church in 2019. James also emphasized that The United Methodist Church does not favor opting out of Social Security because it would mean also opting out of the Clergy Retiree Medical Benefits and the disability program, Comprehensive Protection Plan. Retiree medical benefits are now fully funded.

The bishop proposed that going forward that debates for and against be limited to two minutes. A motion to do so was made and seconded and approved by the body.

The Board of Pension report was approved.

Phil Potter, lay member from National UMC and chair of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) presented the 2019 Budget and the CFA recommendations. He presented a balanced 2019 budget with virtually no increase in apportionment Income and a reduction in the benevolence factor making this the seventh budget in a row with apportionment income kept level at between $14.1 and $14.3 million dollars.

Potter said the collection rate for mission shares in 2017 (apportionment) was 92.45 percent, a record high, beating the budget estimate of 92 percent for the second year in a row and continuous improvement for five straight years.

The 2019 budget will follow the alignment with the five new Discipleship Ministry Areas and supports the request of more than $180,000 in external funding for those ministries. The 2019 budget also includes a Risk Management Plan to address “future risks to the budget due to unknown impact on our connection from the New Tax Bill and the 2019 Special Session on the Way Forward.

Potter moved for acceptance of the 2019 budget and the CFA Recommendations.

Potter said that Bill Brown, Trustee Chair, may want to address what could happen with church property. He did not anticipate any additional expenses beyond their planning but acknowledged there may be some. The Risk Management Plan would allow for a reduction to the budget of $7 million a year for four years, a roughly 50% reduction from a $14 million apportionment level. CFA felt that would allow them to manage whatever expenses might occur. He added that the reserve of $2.4 million at a 15% level would take care of most of the initial problems but there would be other cuts and expenses that could be reduced beyond that. The body overwhelmingly approved the CFA recommendations.

Rev. Jim Johnson, Chair of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, recommended the minimum salary for 2019 be increased by 2% or $863 to $44,012 and that the housing allowance be increased by 2% or $397 to $20,263.

In response to a question, Eichelberger explained that 1099 is not the way clergy get paid; they get paid with W-2. He can help those operating under 1099 to change to W-2, both clergy and their financial staff at church.

The body approved the Equitable Compensation report and recommendations.

Trustee Report

Bill Brown, Chair of the Board of Trustees, announced that the conference received an undesignated bequest of $546,000 from the Glassman Estate and was asking the annual conference to designate the bequest for three areas: new faith expressions, clergy taking sabbaticals and leaves for self-care and holistic well-being, and facility upgrades to the conference archives located at Lovely Lane Museum.

Bishop Easterling learned that the conference is above average in all the good indicators and also above average in what appears in some instances to be clergy stress. The conference is looking for ways for clergy to take “rest and sabbatical to care for their mental and physical health as well.”

Brown explained that the trustees will work with Paul Eichelberger and the Cabinet to put a plan together. Trustees will also be working with the Commission on Archives and History and the new staff person for Fresh Expressions in outlining this. The recommendation carried.

Brittany Enright from the General Commission on Finance and Administration presented a plaque to Bishop LaTrelle Easterling, Phil Potter and Paul Eichelberger for the BWC paying 100 percent apportionments in 2017. This is the conference's 20th year of doing so.

Taylor, conference secretary, reported that she received a properly submitted petition to remove the Connectional Ministries Report from the Consent Calendar. A vote would be required by the body to do so. The body approved the Consent Calendar.

The Bishop then directed the discussion to the removed Connectional Ministries Report. Gorman offered an amendment to the report that: "The Rules Committee shall be consulted on all proposed changes to the structure of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference during Conference year 2018-2019 and prior to submission of any such changes for consideration by the Annual Conference."

At last Fall's Connectional Table, Christie Latona gave a presentation on the realignment that was being considered and being taken on by her office. The Rules Committee voted per rule 5410.1.J.33 that it should be given input into the proposed realignment. A week before the Annual Conference Session, the Rules Committee voted non-concurrence with the proposed realignment.

Ann Brown Birkell, Foundry, feels that she is lacking details but the concepts are exciting. She stated that the five areas required time and greater engagement to implement effectively. Her intent was to move to table the report for a year.

Gorman accepted Birkell's suggestion to add the Discipleship Council and Connectional Table to his motion.

In a speech against, the Rev. Frankie Revell, La Vale UMC, said his involvement with Latona, Cole-Wilson and the rest of the group, saw the conference more active and engaged than ever before. The local church was engaged and the process represents a more grassroots approach instead of a top-down approach to get things done.

Carol Travis, Asbury, DC, spoke against the amendment, citing extensive grassroots approval and saying that the conference needed to move forward with the plan.

Rev. Eliezer Valentin-Castanon, Trinity, Frederick, questioned the authority of the Rules Committee, which he thought was for the operation of the Annual Conference Session. He said that he did not understand how Rules could insert itself into something that was ministry-based.

Jen Ihlo, Dumbarton, noted that the Rules Committee had participated in structure decisions in the past, including presenting resolutions on the Connectional Table membership in 2014 and the membership of the Discipleship Council in 2013.

After more discussion Latona, Director of Connectional Ministries, explained that this is a proposal and is in testing mode — testing and exploring ideas and theories. It is being brought to the relevant bodies along the way. They will be doing focus groups across the regions so that people will have clarity and input into what the new structure might look like.

Rev. John Nupp stressed that the Connectional Ministries proposal was already brought to the Connectional Table and other bodies during the months leading up to Annual Conference.

Bishop Easterling asked why Rules would be giving concurrence or non-concurrence in a proposal regarding structure.

Jen Ihlo asked a question relating to the Nominating Committee Report. Since none of the committees populating the Connectional Table have been maintained, while this is a test, it appears to effectively eliminate the Connectional Table by not populating the very committees that make up the Connectional Table.

Latona said a lot of the committees are still in existence and can be populated out of the table that is formed from the five new areas of ministry. These five new areas of the proposed structure care for the same ministries and more than those named in the Connectional Table.

After conversation on this issue, Mark Gorman read the amendment.

The bishop said that consultation does not mean approval and that the bodies in the amendment would have an opportunity to vote concurrence or non-concurrence going forward. The Annual Conference has the opportunity to approve or not approve what comes before it.

The amendment was voted on and passed.

The DCM then reviewed the Connectional Ministries report. (The report is in the Reports section of the 2018 Journal.)

In 2019, the structure changes will come before the Annual Conference Session.

Dierdra Atkins, Christ United, asked where to find the report. Latona said it was on the app and in the pre-con material.

Rev. Sarah Schlieckert clarified voting on the Discipleship Report. Gorman spoke in favor of the report. Ann Brown Birkell spoke against the report. She believes there has not been sufficient time to “digest it.” She suggested taking the year to bring the broad concepts into the committees, to work to rejuvenate leadership at the conference level, and energize the committees. She is concerned with just dismantling groups and following rules such as seven members per committee and concerns regarding diversity. She suggested study time to perfect this would be wise.

Rev. Bonnie Scott, Trinity UMC, has been a conversation partner throughout the process and she serves on the Discipleship Council. She spoke in favor of moving forward. Sometimes in the life of the church there is a need to try something new and see if it works, she said.

The Connectional Ministries report was voted on and passed.

The body agreed to reduce the time to speak to two minutes with two speeches for and against.

Nominations Report

Sarah Ford, Chairperson, gave the Nominations Committee Report. This year an on-line interest form was developed to gather information from those who desire to serve on conference committees and to date over 150 forms have been received. A transition plan for incoming and outgoing chairpersons was developed to ensure a smooth transition. An orientation will be held this year. (See the Nominations Report in the 2018 Journal.)

Ford then presented the Leadership Report explaining that some positions were left open to allow more time to find the best person for the position and requested a suspension of the rule limiting agencies to seven members for a period of one year to involve more persons to become involved.

Rev. Bill Brown, Wesley Freedom UMC and Trustee Chair, informed Ford that Trustee Board members Heidi Agostini and David Robinson had tendered their resignations.

Ann Brown Birkell stated she was unclear on how to move forward in the next year with so many openings and committees unpopulated. Ford responded that all of the committees will be populated but in a different way through the boards and that no organization was eliminated.

Birkell asked that she speak specifically to Church and Society and COSROW. Ford responded that those areas would be cared for under the Advocacy and Action Board.

A question was asked about where the work of evangelism was being done. Latona responded that New Faith Expressions takes on that work. Each committee will assign one person for that work.

A vote passed to suspend the rules to allow more than seven members on a committee. The Nominations Report as amended was approved.

Black College Fund Ambassador, Usha N. Satish, who addressed the annual conference in 2013 as a recent Bennett College graduate, brought greetings on behalf of Dr. Cynthia Bond Hopson, Assistant General Secretary, Black College Fund and Ethnic Concerns, and Dr. Phyllis Worthy Dawkins, President of Bennett College as well as the 11 historically Black United Methodist Institutions.

District Superintendent, the Rev. Conrad Link, read the resolution to close Centre Street UMC in Cumberland. Bishop Easterling asked for prayers before the vote for all the persons touched by the church. After a moment of silence, Link prayed. The resolution passed.

Seven resolutions were the next order of business. The Revs. Deb Scott and Sarah Schlieckert presented Death of a Clergy Person.

Two years ago the resolution was presented. It was referred to the Conference Chancellor who reviewed it and made inputs. The policy was to protect and guide local churches, clergy families and conference leadership in the event of a death of an active clergy person.

John Jacob, Faith, offered an amendment at paragraph 4 line 64 to add the words “at the current level.” The authors accepted this change. The resolution passed with concurrence by CFA.

Rev. Bonnie Scott and Jen Ihlo presented a resolution for a conference mission statement. The resolution was approved.

Doug Schmidt presented the Resolution on Africa University questioning the relationship between the United Methodist Church and Mugabe, dictator of Zimbabwe. Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, clergy serving with the Council of Bishops, moved that the resolution be tabled until General Conference tells us otherwise. The rationale is outdated since Mugabe is no longer in power. Africa University is an apportioned fund of General Conference. The resolution was tabled.

Rev. Ken Hawes presented the Moving Policy Resolution and it passed.

Rev. Deb Scott presented the Love Without Qualification Resolution. Matt Sichle offered an amendment to lines 179-189, to strike “for who God created us to be” and replace with “as Christ has loved us (John 13:34).” after the word “another.” TC Marrow, Foundry, spoke in favor of the amendment saying that she had experienced great grace in her life and would like to have her brethren in Christ be able to support the resolution.

Scott agreed to incorporate the language of the amendment and it passed.

Scott presented the Way Forward Accountability Covenant Resolution, a way to create a platform for conversations on the Way Forward in the local church. Rev. Phil Wogaman, retired, spoke in favor of the spirit of the motion but wanted to submit a substitution that may be more timely given what has happen in the Council of Bishops. The substitute was: “Whereas there are lesbian and gay members within and beyond our churches, who manifest the gifts, graces and moral character of faithful Christians, therefore the Baltimore-Washington Conference urges the Special Session of the General Conference to delete all provisions of the Book of Discipline that prohibit clergy from conducting same-gender weddings and furthermore to delete the exclusion of qualified gay and lesbian persons of good character from ordination and appointment. And therefore we welcome leadership of the Council of Bishops in proposing the One Church Plan to the 2019 Special Session of the General Conference.”

It was determined that the resolutions were renumbered and that the amendment was for the next resolution, “Call for Full Inclusion.”

There was considerable discussion about amendment, with two speeches for and two against. The substitution did not pass.

The original resolution that was aspirational, not policy, and called for conversations to begin now, passed.

Scott presented the final resolution, “Call for Full Inclusion.” She spoke of those who continue to be marginalized and that the resolution was an attempt to “draw the circle wider.”

Wogaman, briefly recapped what he had said before. He felt it was important going forward to register the conference’s support for the bishops and the One Church Plan. He re-read his substitution (see above).

Thomas Starnes, member at large and Conference Chancellor, said it was vitally important for the conference to be clearly in support of the One Church model even if it is not the preference.

Rev. Loretta Johnson, Jones Memorial, DC, spoke against the amendment because she is very concerned that taking a stand would be better after some of the conversations among churches.

Guy Cecil, Foundry, spoke in support of Dr. Wogaman’s proposal. He shared his struggles with being a gay Baptist minister and the salvation he found at Foundry UMC. He wanted the conference to express that “we are loved, we are accepted and we are welcomed.”

Patricia Bittner, Flintstone, spoke against the substitute because she is afraid. She is from a conservative place; her church is very conservative. She has had conversations with her congregations and she knows her churches want out. She does not see how to keep that from happening. She is against the substitute language.

Ken Ow, lay delegate to General Conference, asked if Scott was amenable to the substitute. She agreed and offered to read it again. The motion carried.

Time was not sufficient to have the Service of Appointments so Bishop Easterling asked all persons newly appointed this year to stand along with their District Superintendents. The bishop declared that all appointments as they were published were fixed for the 2018/2019 conference year and then offered a prayer.

The conference secretary read the closing motion.

Requesting a personal moment of privilege, Rev. Giovanni Arroyo, made the following statement: “I stand before this Annual Conference as the Chair of Hispanic –Latino Ministries and as a member of United Methodist Inter-Agency Immigration Taskforce, where our episcopal leader is also a member. The United Methodist Church has a clear statement on our theological understanding of welcoming the immigrants and the importance of family unification. The reality being lived out by immigrant brothers and sisters demands that we lift our voice to cry out against the policies that direct contradiction to our theological understanding as United Methodist and how we should live in community with strangers among us. I would invite our bishop to host a town hall meeting on immigration with the support of the Conference Committee of Latino Ministries and other related committees as well as to write a letter to congress, the Department of Homeland Security and the White House stating our concern with the current practices toward immigrants and our clear stand as a denomination to welcoming the stranger in our midst.” Bishop Easterling stated that she received the statement and agreed to hold such a town hall.

The bishop concluded the conference with the words, “I just give God the thanks for the privilege of serving as your episcopal servant. To God be the glory!”

Board of Ordained Ministry Report to the Executive Session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference

PART II PERTAINING TO ORDAINED AND LICENSED CLERGY

(Note: A (v) notation following a question in this section signifies that the action or election requires a majority vote of the clergy session of the Annual Conference. If an action requires more than a simple majority, the notation (v 2/3) or (v 3/4) signifies that a two-thirds or three-fourths majority vote is required. Indicate credential of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.)

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (¶¶604.4, 605.7)?

Response from the Dean and the Cabinet.

Conrad O. Link

The question before us as an Executive session is: "are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?"

Every year, for 38 years, I have heard this question read and answered by the Dean of the Cabinet who offered the official response. When I would hear this question, early in my pastoral ministry, I was hoping and praying that I could live up to the ideals it reflected. I was glad I would never have to answer this question in front of all the clergy and my colleagues. What would I say?

When I got into my middle career, when things were rolling along for me in ministry, I usually just sat quietly, maybe joked with a few colleagues about some of the behaviors and rumors we all heard about various colleagues.

But now, I am Dean of the Baltimore-Washington Conference Cabinet. This is a tremendous honor, but with it comes this question and I am compelled to answer.

The best way to answer this question is with a simple: "No." All clergy are not blameless in their life and, all clergy are not effective or sufficient in their official administration."

Each clergy person -- ordained, commissioned, licensed, and credentialed -- in this Annual Conference is called to the highest ideals of servant leadership as they proclaim the Gospel. We are called to live a life worthy of the Gospel, modeling to those within the faith community and those in the world a life dedicated to the highest standard of morality, integrity, service, obedience, and faith that allows others to see Christ in us. As an old Sunday school teacher said: "You might be the only Bible someone might read" (William Toms).

It is quite possible that some of our clergy/pastors have forgotten their call, not just to preach but to live a life that becomes the Gospel. Increased issues of immorality, lack of integrity, disobedience to authority, and financial mismanagement are becoming all too common. Some of our colleagues have elevated their personal agendas over the agenda of Christ and the Church. Clergy immaturity seems to be on the rise as self-centeredness and self-aggrandizement becomes a mode of operation that works contrary to building the Kingdom of God.

Colleagues: the majority of our clergy are doing well. Perhaps over-stressed, worn out and tired, but faithful to the call. Perhaps some colleagues get side tracked from time to time but, through prayer and proclamation, they return and continue their faith journey. Perhaps some of us, you and I, get tired of the pettiness and silliness that happens in the church. Then, we remember that "there, but for the grace of God go I." We remember we are all children of God. We reclaim grace.

Colleagues: Let it be known that the clergy and pastors of the Baltimore-Washington Conference are not perfect, but they are seeking to be better in the pursuit of faithfulness in word, order, sacrament, service, and witness. Let it be known that these same clergy seek to honor their call by supporting the church, with all their prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness. Let it be known that the clergy and pastors of this historic conference are not perfect, but are forgiven, and that with humility we offer the same forgiveness that we have received to others we meet along the way.

As we focus on the idea of servant leadership, know that your Cabinet stands ready to help and eager to hear the issues and work with you to overcome troubles and anxieties. Together, let us embrace the covenant that has held us throughout the generations, "I am no longer my own, but God's. ... May we ...freely and fully surrender all things to God's glory and service."

And now, O wonderful and holy God, Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, you are ours and we are yours. May it be so. Amen.

57. What is the number of clergy members of the Annual Conference: 1039

a) By appointment category and conference relationship?

(NOTES:

(1) Where applicable, the question numbers on this report form corresponding to each category have been placed in parenthesis following the category title. Where these question numbers appear, the number reported in that category should agree with the number of names listed in the corresponding questions.

(2) For the three categories of Appointments to Extension Ministries, report as follows:

¶344.1a,c): the number of clergy members appointed within United Methodist connectional structures, including district superintendents, or to an ecumenical agency.

¶344.1b): the number of clergy members appointed to extension ministries, under endorsement by the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

¶344.1d): the number of clergy members appointed to other valid ministries, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

Note: Report those in extension ministry in one category only.

See the Discipline paragraphs indicated for more detailed description of these appointment categories.

(Note: Those approved to serve as a local pastor, but not currently under appointment, are not counted as clergy members of the conference.)

VI. REPORTS

Discipleship Ministries

Greetings in the name of the One who makes us one. In the midst of bad news and uncertain times, there is no better place to be than beneath the cross. It is here that healing and common ground is found. It is here where our hope rises to meet God's promises. It is here that we experience Oneness in the midst of our differences.

Our United Methodist heritage includes a particular understanding of discipleship beneath the cross formed by the both-and nature of our theology of grace: Loving God and Neighbor through Communal and Individual practices. As United Methodists, we understand that in order to deepen in discipleship, one must practice the means of grace which forms us to a particular definition of discipleship: To witness to Jesus Christ in the world, and to follow his teachings through acts of compassion, justice, worship, and devotion under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Loving God (Works of Piety)

Individual Practices (Acts of Devotion): reading, meditating and studying the scriptures, prayer, fasting, regularly attending worship, healthy living, and sharing our faith with others.

Communal Practices (Acts of Worship): regularly share in the sacraments, Christian conferencing (accountability to one another), and Bible study.

Loving Neighbor (Works of Mercy)

Individual Practices (Acts of Compassion): doing good works, visiting the sick, visiting those in prison, feeding the hungry, and giving generously to the needs of others.

Communal Practices (Acts of Justice): seeking justice, ending oppression and discrimination, and addressing the needs of the poor.

This holistic work of forming disciples in the Wesleyan spirit happens in local faith communities. This isn't a check list of activities but rather should be a shared understanding of what it looks like to mature as a disciple of Jesus along these dimensions and how the church supports that maturation process.

Staffing Changes

On July 1, 2017, Rodney Smothers became the new Director of Leadership and Congregational Development and Christie Latona became the new Director of Connectional Ministries.

On July 1, 2018, we will be joined by a Director of New Faith Expressions. Together we collaborate to deepen discipleship, develop vibrant communities of faith and dare persons to co-create with God for the flourishing of all.

Connectional Ministries staff portfolios have been refocused on helping us make collective progress on abundant health, advocacy and action, young people's ministries and a variety of projects that deepen discipleship, develop leaders, promote missional innovation, and build relationships and partnerships so that more people, more diverse people and more younger people love as Jesus loves. Each staff person is responsible for inspiring and equipping servant leaders and local faith communities to better develop disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Missional Innovation

Tools

Connectional Ministries staff and servant leaders are available to facilitate the use of these tools for districts and/or clusters of churches.

- Mission Possible is a game with a purpose: to teach design thinking for social change. Design thinking is an iterative process of building, measuring, testing and improving that is helpful in situations where solutions need to be developed for things that aren't already known to work. After playing a round, there are templates available for leaders/congregations to develop their own plan using the same proven thought process.
- Good Brunches is a series of conversations that create community across lines of difference using kingdom principles while eating out.

Current Projects

- The Change Maker's Project supports young adults in hearing God's call to innovative ministry through mentoring, missional immersions, entrepreneurial community engagement, and vocational conversations. Learn more at: <https://www.thechangemakersproject.com/>.
- Hatch-A-Thon is a 48-hour retreat where teams come to incubate their seed of an idea into a fully hatched, pitchable plan. There is a huge distance between a good idea and a fully formed, fundable plan. This is a proven process for covering that divide in a short amount of time. We will be holding the first of these Nov. 8-10, 2018.

Evaluation of Existing Discipleship Agencies

In addition to improving the Nominations process, the DCM was tasked with evaluating the state of our existing discipleship committees and to discern opportunities for streamlining and improving our mission-critical tasks. As the DCM began interviewing chair persons, there were some agencies that may simply need re-focusing and others that were ready for re-imagining. A vast majority of persons interviewed:

- Stated that the current approach isn't working for a variety of reasons;
- Wanted to have impact and were open to trying new ways of being in ministry together; saw value in ongoing collaboration;
- Named the large chasm between the agencies, districts and local churches and that a lack of organizing at the district level was a significant obstacle to achieving greater impact.

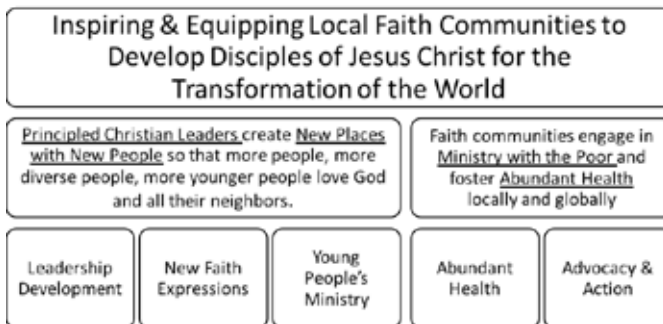

As of July 2018, only two of the 17 were fully functional (making progress toward fulfilling their purpose), half only met to write the report for AC and the remainder were meeting but not fully functional (e.g., meeting but little action/impact, not full participation, etc.) Some major committees hadn't been functional for years. This was due to several factors which are best addressed within a context of a simplified, purpose-driven structure.

Refocusing and Realignment Work

Following the interviews with Discipleship Agency chairs, the following steps were taken:

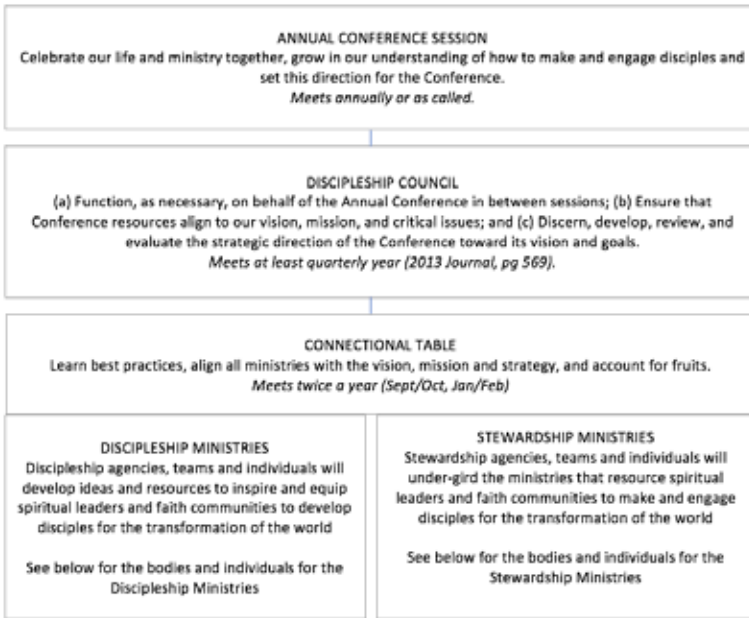

1. Consulted the Book of Discipline and verified that it gives an annual conference permission to reconfigure its agencies as long as certain agencies are maintained (§ 610).
2. Talked with other Annual Conferences who were in the process of streamlining their agencies or who had done so recently. (We are not alone in seeking better ways of doing ministry together.)
3. Refocused on our denominational mission and foci. Since 2006, the Council of Bishops, the Connectional Table and the general program agencies have been affirming and strengthening United Methodist missional priorities in the Four Areas of Focus (underlined below). These broad areas have emerged from thriving ministries across the church to represent the key connectional ministries that lead to thriving faith communities, as well as thriving conference-wide and general church ministries. In 2016, The UMC embraced specific goals in each of the four areas, and are working together to accomplish great things for God.

4. Brought the findings and ideas for consolidating the non-required agencies down to five networks to the Nominations Committee, Discipleship Council and Connectional Table to explore further. Connectional Table leaders helped check initial thinking about which agencies work might best fit in which area by checking the functions from the Book of Discipline against the purpose of the network. The Discipleship Council assigned four listening partners to accompany the DCM in her work of listening and discerning: Ms. Carol Travis, Rev. Bonnie Scott, Mr. Moorosi Mukuenda and Rev. Steve Larsen.
5. Convened stakeholders to dream and input on three of the networks most impacted by the change: Young People's Ministry, Advocacy & Action, and Abundant Health. Changes to the area name, purpose statement, the make-up of the new agency and initial approaches to reorganizing have been made as a result of those conversations. More details may be found in their reports.
6. Submitted the 2019 budget to CFA with these five areas as the framework and with a vision of pooling money that was formally assigned to particular line items into purpose-driven grants that ministries and leaders may apply for through a new granting process. This process will enable more collaborative leadership, visibility, flexibility, accountability and sharing of best practices. Additionally, we will supplement mission shares giving with grant funding as a strategy for ministry growth (see CFA's report for details).
7. Continued conversations with Annual Conference leadership – including the Rules Committee – about the intention to test before making changes to the structure. Waiting until 2019 to bring any needed resolutions will also allow us to take into account any decisions made at the Special Called Session of General Conference.

As a reminder, here's a functional chart of our structure. This first appeared in the 2006 Journal, page 480. (Subsequent modifications have been noted.)

In the 2006 Journal there was a specific configuration of agencies underneath the Discipleship Ministries area that were aligned with the Discipleship Adventure and that were never fully implemented. As of July 2017, there was no grouping of agency work. Additionally, Communications and Archives and History had shifted from Stewardship to Discipleship.

What follows is the realignment of Discipleship Ministries we are testing this year before bringing finalized recommendations to the 2019 Annual Conference session for a vote. During this testing period, the current way in which the Connectional Table is populated will be maintained to minimize disruption. The entities with an asterisk are populated through our Nominations Committee. The functions of the entities in parentheses will be cared for by the networked area. The items listed without parentheses are there to show where synergy exists. Groups may be considered as working groups or other entities that help translate the work done by the network (e.g., strategy, priorities, goals) to their constituency group. Individuals listed would be a part of the Network.

Leadership Development Network: develops disciples by maturing Jesus followers who know their purpose and use their gifts to build up the body of Christ for the transformation of the world.

- ¶ 629. Board of Discipleship*
- ¶ 603.9. Conference Lay Leader
- ¶ 631. Conference Board of Laity

New Faith Expressions Network: develops disciples by encouraging evangelism and the creation of diverse, multicultural third places with and for people who aren't currently connected to any faith community.

- Unified Funding Task Force
- Missional Innovation

Young Peoples Ministry Network: develops disciples by inviting, inspiring and strengthening youth and young adult servant leaders in local churches, campuses, camps, projects and mission fields of the annual conference.

- ¶ 634. Board of Higher Education and Ministries*

- ¶ 649. Conference Council on Youth Ministry
- ¶ 650. Young Adult Council
- Retreat and Camping Ministries
- ROCK

Abundant Health Network: develops disciples by fostering spiritual, physical and mental health for all and promoting an understanding of the interconnectedness of all aspects of health both locally and globally.

- (¶ 633. Conference Board of Global Ministries*)
- Volunteers in Mission and Emergency Response Teams
- Quality of Life Retreats (HIV/AIDS Ministry)

Advocacy & Action Network: develops disciples by partnering with communities so that we join in advocating to transform systems which disenfranchise, marginalize, and oppress and to create a BWC presence on urgent policy matters at local, state and national levels.

- (¶ 629. Board of Church and Society*)
- (¶ 642. Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships*)
- Racial Justice Team
- ¶ 643. Commission on Religion and Race*
- NEJ Call to Action for Racial Justice
- Immigration Rights Team
- Justice for Our Neighbors
- Gender Equity Team
- (¶ 644. Commission on the Status and Role of Women*)
- Wealth Equity Team
- Creation Care Team

The following entities function across multiple areas—including New Faith Expressions—but are budgetarily housed in Advocacy and Action:

- (¶ 632. Conference Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns*)
- (¶ 645. Conference Commission on the Small Membership Church*)
- ¶ 653. Committee on Disability Concerns*
- (¶ 654. Committee on Native American Ministry*)
- ¶ 655. Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministries

Other:

- ¶ 641. Commission on Archives and History* used to be listed under Stewardship
- ¶ 646. Commission on Communication* used to be listed under Stewardship
- ¶ 647. United Methodist Women
- ¶ 648. United Methodist Men

The benefits we seek include:

- Improved focus, collaboration and impact.
- Greater shared leadership for strategy and resource alignment by people who are actually engaged in the work.
- Easier to get messages and engagement to and from districts, local churches and leaders.
- More time spent on getting the work done.
- More people engaged and supported in ministry that happens on the ground.
- More aligned with connectional goals and funding.

The reports in the pages that follow have been organized in the order of these five focus areas.

Discipleship Ministries Agencies & Groups

Leader Development

Purpose: to develop mature Jesus followers who know their purpose and use their gifts to build up the body of Christ for the transformation of the world.

Leadership development is rooted in Discipleship development. It is our expectation that every leader across the Annual Conference is maturing in their discipleship and as such has spiritual fruit to show for it. An interim board of Leader Development is being formed to help define and synchronize expectations of what it means and takes to develop leaders – lay and clergy – across a continuum of leadership impact from novice to mastery that helps inspire and equip local faith expressions to do the same.

This interim board is comprised of:

- Chair of BOOM
- Conference Lay Leader
- Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries
- Up to 6 people with specific skills and demonstrated fruitfulness in discipleship and leadership development (3 lay, 3 clergy)
- Director of Leadership and Congregational Development

Conference Board of Laity

The purpose of the Baltimore-Washington Conference Board of Laity is to initiate strategies and policies to strengthen the presence and voice of laity in the BWC, and to enable a mutual ministry among lay people and clergy alike as set out in the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church. In the BWC, we strive to share information concerning the lay ministry of The United Methodist Church and to take any and all action deemed desirable by the Conference to promote and support lay ministry.

Goals: We envision empowering the laity to partner with the clergy to provide a mutual voice and strengthen the presence for all. We want to equip our laity for spiritual leadership to “Make disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World.” Plans are to develop a training session that is more in-depth than a one-day Leadership Day, to give members an opportunity to discuss agreements and/or disagreements on chosen subjects.

Impact: At the 2017 Annual Conference, Jodi Cataldo from the Board of Discipleship was the speaker for the Laity Session. Feedback from attendees was very positive. During the year, many of the District Lay Leaders conducted training sessions for the Laity.

The Conference Lay Leader and three District Lay Leaders attended the Northeastern Jurisdiction Annual Lay Leaders Conference in Charlestown, W.Va. We engaged in a wonderful missions project that included preparing food baskets with a local outreach project.

This Year: Plans are to provide all conference laity an opportunity to share experiences, ideas for ministry, and offer educational opportunities for all. We believe the ministry of the laity is the work and mission to which each believer is called. As Christians, we are all called to this lay ministry much like those called to be clergy. Each of us has a responsibility to proclaim the Good News and reach out to others in love.

Office of Leadership Development

The Office of Leadership and Congregational Development’s role is to provide strategic focus in the areas of learning and leader development.

This past year, this goal has been met in a variety of ways. New ministry expansion through audio-visual and cyber ministries, and implementation of local Ministry Action Plans, is bringing strategic alignment to our mission and vision as an Annual Conference. Our emphasis on providing training, resourcing, coaching and mentoring is providing our lay and clergy members with the tools that they need to positively impact their members and community.

Among these tools are:

- Networking provided to Next Level Leaders in monthly training sessions in the areas of skills development and leadership strategies;
- Coaching provided to congregations and pastors to increase leadership and effectiveness strategies;
- Scholarships provided for laity and pastors to attend National and Regional Exponential Training Events, School of Congregational Development, and Launch Pad training events. We also provided funding for scholarships for congregational teams to attend the two-year Financial Leadership Academy;
- Training has been provided in the use of MissionInsite (demographics) and ZOOM (video conferencing) tools;
- We offered workshops in the areas of “Creative Worship,” “Lead Like a Women,” and “The Future of the 21st Century Church” which were led by national leaders. Local church leadership events were held in the areas of program development and congregational vitality. We have also provided training support for our District Leadership Days;

Our leadership development plans for 2018:

- We continue to strengthen our congregational development strategies by promoting BWC Training and national and regional events that provide resources for new and revitalized congregations;
- Our collaboration with Connectional Ministries will create Mentoring Cohorts and Coaching Networks for both our laity and clergy.

New Faith Expressions

Purpose: to encourage evangelism and the creation of diverse, multicultural “third places” with and for people who aren’t currently connected to any faith community. Home and work are first and second spaces, “third spaces” are the gathering places in between. In a post-Christendom society, the church building isn’t viewed as the natural third space it once was. Instead, coffee shops, gyms and studios have emerged and persons being the church need to be intentional about showing up in those. New faith expressions are not tied to a physical building (or even to keeping a church alive) but to a building of community for a purpose: to engage people in a life-giving relationship with Jesus.

This interim board is comprised of:

- At least one person per district with experience in launching new faith expressions, in start-up enterprises, or with other capacities deemed valuable to the task of supporting new faith expressions (no more than 12 persons in all)
- Director of New Faith Expressions

Office of Congregational Development

The Office of Congregational Development supports the development and deployment of skilled servant leaders to create and develop vital places of ministries where people will encounter Christ and become Christ’s disciples for the transformation of their communities and the world. Our emphasis on providing training, resourcing, coaching and mentoring is providing our lay and clergy members with the tools that they need to positively impact their members and community. Among these tools are:

- DISCernment and Lifeway Assessments have been provided for persons seeking to discern their skill sets in the areas of leading a new church or new faith community;

- Grants have been provided for New Faith Ministries (9), New Church Starts (7), and Hispanic Ministries in several stages of development;

We celebrated creative new faith communities that are currently underway in Washington, D.C. “The Bridge” a contemporary worship service sponsored by Asbury UMC, and “The Well,” a Seeker-Sensitive contemporary gathering, currently meeting at the Douglas UMC. In addition, we are pioneering a “Planting Residency,” a new faith community model in Baltimore.

Our new faith expression plans for 2018:

- Our emerging plans for congregational development include discernment retreats for potential church planters, and multi-site training for congregations that currently have healthy and growing church cultures; and
- A multi-level Leadership Academy is being developed to provide on-site, digital and collaborative training experiences in new Faith Communities and the reprioritization of existing congregational assets.
- Our collaboration with Connectional Ministries has yielded multiple pathways for persons to engage in Missional Innovation, which, when implemented fully, would yield a new faith expression.

With great anticipation, we look forward to welcoming a Director of New Faith Expressions in July 2018 who will expand our capacity in this essential area.

Young People’s Ministry

Purpose: Grows disciples by inspiring and strengthening youth and young adult servant leaders in local churches, campuses, camps, projects and mission fields of the annual conference.

Our conference has continued its faithful commitment to young people through Campus Ministry, Conference Council on Youth Ministry (CCYM), Retreat & Camping Ministry, ROCK, and Young Adult Council (YAC). In January 2018 about 45 persons from across these ministries gathered to explore hopes and concerns for the totality of young people’s ministry and to provide input on the model of having a consolidated board with working groups. CCYM and the YAC provided input on the process of identifying the interim Young People’s Ministry Board and the composition of this board. (NOTE: CCYM and YAC are both populated by districts, not the work of the Nominations Committee.) These names will be brought before the Nominations Committee and added to the leadership report voted on at Annual Conference. This interim board will also care for the functions of the Conference Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

- 4 youth (not a current senior)
 - CCYM nominates 4 and 2 are seated
 - ROCK nominates 4 and 2 are seated
- 6 young adults (35 or under)
 - YAC nominates 4 and 2 are seated
 - RCM nominates 4 and 2 are seated
- Campus Ministry nominates 4 and 2 are seated
- 2 people that can be over 35
 - one with fruitful youth ministry
 - one with fruitful young adult ministry
- Staff Representative: Matthew Surber

We will be testing this configuration and will be bringing any needed resolutions to the 2019 Annual Conference Session as a result of our learning and the comprehensive assessment and strategic plan for Young Peoples Ministry that will be completed by March 2019. The key outcomes of the plan include:

- Strategy that clarifies the Conference's most effective role in supporting, connecting and vitalizing Young People's Ministry in the annual conference;
- Clearly defined, updated, and integrated structure for the conference's efforts related to Young Peoples Ministries;
- Well-Equipped, spiritually grounded leaders for Young Peoples Ministry, including local faith community, district and conference-level leadership. Leadership – both staff and servant leaders – that is recruited and trained to excel in the roles within that structure;
- Communication that effectively engages young people and ties together the strategy, structure and leadership for Young People's Ministries across all levels of the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

In the meantime we are working toward a) unifying our youth ministry, b) increasing the number and quality of well trained, Christ-centered leaders; c) developing cultural competency for youth and young adults and those who work with them; d) helping people find their place to serve in their area of giftedness and greatest impact; e) improving two-way communication between the Annual Conference and local church; and f) transforming the prevalent view of young people as a commodity in our local churches to the view of young people as fully capable change makers for Jesus.

Conference Council on Youth Ministry (CCYM)

Purpose: To support, educate, advocate, represent, and resource, on behalf of the Conference and District Youth Ministries, the local church youth ministries, and the youth – both church and unchurched – of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. All this we do to help make disciples of youth for the transformation of our conference and world.

Goals:

- Have a CCYM member attend and be actively engaged with the Discipleship Council;
- Attend and be engaged with the Northeast Jurisdictional Council on Youth Ministry;
- Continue to develop materials for Stress Less Project in concert with Abundant Health taskforce on mental health and ROCK Cares;
- Have at least one youth attend the Mission of Peace; and
- Develop a presence at Annual Conference to help local church leaders understand the importance of youth ministry.

In 2017, CCYM focused on getting the message of being disciples in training, not disciples in waiting, and shared this throughout the annual conference. This message was received well and has led to youth being given more opportunities to participate and serve both at the local and conference level. Four youth were able to attend the Mission of Peace in Cuba where their faith was greatly impacted. They, in turn, have come back to their local settings and shared their experience and how it changed their lives.

CCYM is excited to be helping shape the development of a new strategic plan for Young Peoples Ministry across the conference. We will continue our work on the Stress Less Project so that we have lesson plans designed that can be shared with local churches. We intend to start a new youth initiative where we host TED-Talk style conversations on youth topics.

Young Adult Council

Purpose: To be a movement of young adults growing in Christ and community

Goals:

- Provide training for local congregations on the full spectrum of Young Adult Ministry;
- Be a resource to local churches and provide resource and recommendations to local churches for use in young adult ministry;

- Advocate for young adult participation and leadership at the conference level;
- Connect young adults and local young adult ministries throughout the conference through clear and consistent communication; and
- Host or sponsor young adult events activities.

The Council continues to offer trainings to local churches and purchases resources to share. As a way of advocating for young adults to participate in leadership roles, multiple young adults were sponsored to attend the reCall Summit in October where they engaged in conversation around race and multiculturalism. More than a dozen young adult ministry groups sought funding from the Council, all of which were supported. In addition to supporting other groups, the Council helped to organize and plan several events to include a young adult worship night at St. Luke's in Reisterstown and a gathering of young adults at Annual Conference.

Impact: The Council continues to partner with our brothers and sisters in Campus Ministry as well as Retreat and Camping Ministry, so that young adults across the region have many touchpoints to the conference. We were able to help sponsor several Howard University students to attend a Christian leadership conference in Atlanta, as well as students from the University of Maryland to attend Taste & See. The Council also hosted a gathering with RCM staff and are in the process of planning a retreat for young adults in the Fall of 2018.

Overlapping our ministries helps to build deeper roots while also casting a wider net so that more young adults are impacted. We are excited about the future of our partnership with Project Transformation, where young adults will have the opportunity to both grow in faith and gain leadership skills. The Council supported two new, young adult focused ministry startups — The Well in D.C., and The Real in Laurel — which have flourished and given young adults space to grow in their faith and become fruitful leaders and disciples.

In 2018, we plan to continue to support local church ministries with training, resources, and funding through addition to hosting a fall retreat for young adults.

Retreat and Camping Ministries

The mission of Retreat and Camping Ministries (RCM) is to grow disciples of Jesus Christ through immersion in Christian community and by building relationships in the midst of God's creation. We provide unmatched opportunities to individuals and local churches for spiritual transformation through retreat and camp experiences.

2017 was a year of transition for RCM, as Andy Thornton retired after 30 years of faithful ministry. Chris Schlieckert succeeded Andy as Director of RCM, and Kirstin Shrom-Rhoads was hired as the new Director of Manidokan Camp and Retreat Center.

Retreat usage held steady while summer camp participation increased by 8.4 percent, allowing RCM to fulfill its financial mandate for operating income to cover operating expenses. We are proud to have met this goal for the fifth consecutive year.

RCM continued to nurture partnerships with: Baltimore County Social Services, Calvert County Public Schools, River and Trail Outfitters, Georgetown Day School, Maryland Department of Natural Resources, University of Maryland Gemstones, City Year (Americorps), and others.

In 2017, RCM served 14,091 people as part of 311 retreat groups and 72 summer camp programs. More than 20,000 nights were spent at our sites and our food service staff served more than 50,000 meals. While at our facilities, people engage in intentional community building, spiritual formation, and personal growth through the unique setting and activities we provide. Industry research shows that 86 percent of summer campers agreed their camp experience had a significant impact on their life, and 93 percent agreed their faith had been strengthened while at camp.

In 2018 RCM will:

- Implement a new marketing strategy to increase growth;
- Undergo a master planning process in the fall of 2018;
- Revamp the Baltimore City camp initiative;
- Improve cultural competency training for staff and volunteers;
- Add new high ropes course to Manidokan; and
- Upgrade 600 feet of West River shore as an environmentally friendly Living Shoreline.

We are grateful for the support of local churches, pastors, laity, and conference staff which enable us to provide this vital ministry to our region on behalf of the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

Abundant Health (formerly the Conference Board of Global Ministries)

Mission: Abundant Health grows disciples by inspiring and equipping faith communities to foster spiritual, physical and mental health for all and promote an understanding of the interconnectedness of all aspects of health both locally and globally.

Our 2017-2018 year was a season of transition and repositioning for greater alignment with our vision and mission. To best understand how all of the agencies of Global Ministries can better function as One, we participated in two summits which included representation from the following entities: Conference Committee on Disabilities, Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries (CJAMM), Quality of Life Retreats (QLR), United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM), Seeds of Security, and Wesley Theological Seminary Heal the Sick Program. [It is important to note that some agencies are listed in the Advocacy and Action network as well due to the intersectionality of our work.] In those meetings a plan began to emerge.

2018 Year-End Goals

- Implement an intentional way of listening, inviting and preparing persons to become a part of this vital work through at least two cluster/district/regional gatherings by November 2018.
- Complete onboarding, strategic planning and organization of the Abundant Health Board that includes new grant-making process.
- Vet and select at least three assessment tools that can be used by individuals and/or congregations to assess all aspects of health.
- Recruit at least 50 trainers and professionals who can provide needed support and expertise for our Abundant Health work in faith communities, clergy care, and with our youth.

Missional impact

VIM/ERT REORGANIZATION (Pam Bowen, Joan Carter-Rimbach, Fred Sipes, Stacey Cole Wilson):

- Welcomed a new ERT leader, Fred Sipes, got the ERT trailer registered, repaired and prepared to be put in use.
- Recruited and trained new District UMVIM Coordinators.
- Supported Mission Central and UMCOR relief efforts in Texas, Puerto Rico, Florida, South Carolina, and other parts of the Caribbean devastated by Hurricanes Harvey, Irma, Maria and Jose – noting that BWC sent $100,000 in relief funds in addition to our Advance. Our BWC advance raised over $1,000.
- Invested in Cass UMC's efforts to Power Puerto Rico via Solar Generators.
- Organization and support of Exploratory and Relief Trips to Puerto Rico.
- Provided ERT support during the Silver Spring Apartment Explosion
- Revised and updated our Local Church Disaster Preparedness Manual and its section entitled Guns in Churches, Addressing Church Security Needs located on our bwcumc.org website.

- Participated in the creation and redesign of our Mission Trip/Disaster Relief Portal so that Mission Leaders and persons looking to join and/or respond to a mission can engage and be aware of teams/missions happening across our connection.

TRAINING:

- Collaboration with the Maryland Council on Problem Gambling to offer three trainings and certificates in Problem Gambling Prevention from a Faith-based Perspective.
- Collaboration with the Governor's Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT) office to offer regional trainings in Creating a Culture of Compassion and Action in Response to the Opioid Crisis. SBIRT is an evidence-based practice used to identify, reduce, and prevent problematic use, abuse, and dependence on alcohol and illicit drugs.
- Held five Volunteer in Mission (VIM) Trainings.

Connectional work:

- Sent two BWC Representatives for General Board of Global Ministries' United Methodist Day of Health in Dunwoody, GA to learn best practices as related to all aspects of health.
- Strengthened our partnership with Wesley Theological Seminary's Heal the Sick Program, offering grants and conversation around district parish nursing support.
- Implementation of new Seeds of Security Domestic Violence and Intimate Partner Abuse Prevention Committee Board with lay, clergy, and community professionals.

Missionaries Report

The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries interprets the programs, emphases, plans, and policies of the General Board of Global Ministries to the annual conference; works with Missionary Services to promote Covenant Relationships and itineration of missionaries to share the story of God's mission and increase support for missionaries; and cooperates with Global Ministries in its mission program in the United States and around the globe.

Our goal is to coordinate the itineration of missionaries visiting supporting churches. I make special efforts to have missionaries visit churches that are not currently supporting missionaries:

- Promote new Covenant Relationships;
- Maintain the list of missionaries supported throughout the annual conference;
- Mission U, a joint venture of GBGM and UMW, is the major training event for mission education within the BWC. Members of CGBGM serve on the planning committee for the annual school for adult and youth. As secretary, I represent GBGM and serve as Business Manager and member of Nomination Committee.

Missionaries are provided an opportunity every three years to visit the United States. They usually itinerate to conferences where they have four or more covenant relationships.

Exceptions are made if missionaries are visiting nearby areas and stop in for a couple of days.

We usually have several missionaries itinerating in BWC yearly. In 2017, because of severe weather conditions, many of them postponed visitation to the US because churches were providing financial support to flood and storm areas.

Mary Gladstone-Highland, from the Detroit area, visited in April and I want to thank Susanna Wesley House in Baltimore for their generosity by providing housing for her husband and young child during their time in our conference.

John Barnes, former GBGM member, graciously accepted an invitation to give an overview of conference ministries at the Mission u event in July 2017.

In 2018, I'm looking forward to working with Conference GBGM chair Heath Wilson as we establish goals on how to support each other in our assigned work areas.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the United Methodist Women and Conference staff for their support throughout the year.

Advocacy and Action

Combined report for Conference Board of Church and Society (CBCS), Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (CUIC), Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCS), Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM), Commission on Small Membership Church, and the Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW).

Purpose: Advocacy & Action partners with communities so that we join in advocating to transform systems which disenfranchise, marginalize, and oppress and to create a BWC presence on urgent policy matters at local, state and national levels.

2017 was a year of missional realignment based on the realities of our collective committees. Many committees reported low attendance or an inability to call meetings due to lack of response. To that end, we participated in two summits (with the entities named above along with Conference Commission on Religion and Race (CCORR), Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministries, Committee on Disability Concerns, Criminal Justice Mercy and Ministries (CJAMM), Deaf Ministries, NEJ Call to Action*, Strengthening the Black Church (SBC21)) to reimagine what might be possible together. [*Ministries have an additional report.]

By the end of 2018 we seek to:

1. Host at least one listening session per district so that we are better able to:
 - a. Determine persons, resources/assets, needs, and systems needed to affect transformational change.
 - b. Identify, strengthen and or develop deeper relationships/collaborations with persons in and beyond our local churches (in community) who are doing this work well.
2. Conduct at least two trainings in community organizing so that churches are better resourced to engage and partner with their communities to lead change.
3. Provide at least two legislative opportunities for persons to “stand with” and address systems which disenfranchise, marginalize, and oppress, in accordance to our Social Principles and Wesleyan Heritage.
4. Establish a multi-voiced blog for each of our primary areas of focus: Racial Justice, Immigration Rights, Gender Equality, Wealth Equity, and Creation Care.

Missional Impact

Climate Justice (Mike Koob)

- Successful advocacy to ban fracking in Maryland.
- Consistent advocacy for Clean Energy Jobs.

Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM)

- Co-sponsored an event with Dr. Casey Church, a nationally known leader in Native American Ministries, with Covenant United Methodist Church.

Conference Board of Church and Society (Julie Wilson, Chair)

- Advocacy Day 2017 in conjunction with the United Methodist Women and continued advocacy beyond this date. As a result, we saw all of the bills we supported pass the legislature (though some were later vetoed until 2018 when originally passed).
- Strong Advocacy Day 2018 faith presence and legislative actions re: The Death Penalty and Prescription Drug Affordability.
- Two trainings in the Social Principles took place, including one train-the-trainer event

- Ongoing Actions and Legislative Presence to Address: Immigration Reform/Clean Dream Act, Racism, Gun-Violence, and Criminal Justice.

Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries (Sonia King, Brian Jackson and Pat Marks)

- Greater cross functional team collaboration with Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries (CJAMM) and other groups involved in Advocacy and Action. We have added an advocacy person to the team, Deaconess Patricia Marks.
- Continued support offered to those in our congregations that are incarcerated and their families by prayers, visits, court appearances, and through letters.
- Continued resources provided to churches with returning citizens.
- In collaboration with the UMW and UMC's in Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia provided over 1800 books to the children of women incarcerated at MCIW – Jessup for their Holiday celebration.

Peace with Justice Grant Awardees

- The Community Anti-Violence Program at Hughes Memorial UMC provides after school tutoring and mentoring for children and youth who are vulnerable to the trauma of poverty and violence in their community. The Peace with Justice grant was used to partially offset the cost of stipends to Howard University students who serve as mentors/tutors.
- The Imago Dei (I.D.) Ministry at Foundry UMC serves homeless Washington residents who need to be able to identify themselves with legally recognized and accepted forms of identification in order to access social and public services. The primary use of the BWC funds will be to assist those clients who lack funds for the cost of transportation to sites where I.D. cards can be obtained.
- Van Buren UMC is converting the unused parsonage into a place of support for homeless mothers with children who are victims of domestic violence.

Small Membership Church

- The Committee on Nominations and Leadership Development is insuring that at least one member from a small membership church is represented in each conference agency as openings are available.
- The Office of Leadership and Congregational Development equips churches of all sizes for vitality—including strategies for small membership churches.

We are excited about our ongoing efforts to what God calls us to be – One – and look forward to greater presence in the world through advocacy and action.

Commission on Disability Concerns

Mission: Promoting disability awareness, accessibility, inclusion, empowerment, and ongoing advocacy continues to be a priority for the Commission on Disability Concerns.

Disability Commission Plan and Goals: (Based on The BOD ¶ 653: Committee on Disability Concerns)

Resourcing. Continue researching and posting online and community resources.

- Two or more new resources a year [Completed and ongoing]
- Sharing the BWC Disability Ministry Manual [Completed and ongoing]
- Reach out to BOOM to see if there are any candidates with disabilities and offer our support. [Completed and ongoing]

Promoting Awareness. Disability awareness is an important part of the work.

- Write two or more articles a year. [Completed and ongoing]

- Promote Disability Awareness Sunday in each district, include the use of the Disability Awareness Sunday Church Kit. [ongoing]
- Host a meet and greet and give a brief presentation at Wesley Seminary on Oct 12, 2017. [Completed]
- Present Addiction Recovery Ministry. [Completed and ongoing]

Visibility. Help the disability commission to be more visible in the conference.

- Exhibit table at AC. [Complete and ongoing]
- Exhibit tables at Leadership Day events. [ongoing]
- Connectional Table meetings. [ongoing]
- Collaborate with other ministries. [ongoing]

Accessibility. Promoting disability accessibility across the annual conference.

- The completion of accessibility audit forms at charge conference. [Completed]
- Remind the dean of the cabinet about keeping this form in the charge conference packet. [Completed and ongoing]
- Meet with three or more UMW units in the fall and three or more in the spring. Have UMW units be partners with us to advocate accessibility. [ongoing]

Networking

- Continue to network with the Global Ministries Disability Ministries Committee (national committee). [Completed and ongoing]
- Continue to network with Discipleship Ministries Older Adult Ministries (national committee). This keeps us abreast of older adult ministries as most people with disabilities are from this population. [ongoing]
- Continue to work with UMW and UMM. [ongoing]

The Disability Commission continued to raise awareness that leads to additional knowledge and more sensitivity. While the Disability Commission keeps to its scope of work in the Book of Discipline, it also connects to the four foci of The United Methodist Church, which includes: engaging with the poor, improving global health, developing Christian leaders, and creating new/renewed congregations.

This year, we plan to build partnerships with United Methodist Men and Lay Servant Trainings to raise disability awareness and inclusion. The United Methodist Men initiative is to seek assistance with the installation of ramps for churches that have financial hardships. The Lay Servant training is build partnerships and disability awareness with local churches across the annual conference.

Conference Committee on Religion and Race

Members of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race (CCORR) have been active primarily in two areas this year: 1) Vital conversations about race and 2) Intercultural competency training.

Our first goal has been to resource, and promote vital conversations about racial justice in congregations and gatherings across the Annual Conference. Members of CCORR actively engaged with each registered clergy member at Annual Conference 2017 to provide Study Guidebooks and a DVD set of Vital Conversations On Race, Culture, and Justice. Published by the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR), we emphasized Series #1: Racism and U.S. Church. Clergy members were encouraged to partner with congregational leaders to engage local church members in this study series, which includes presentations by theologians, sociologists, and thought leaders in race, culture, and justice. We encourage you to visit GCORR's website, www.gcorr.org for more information and resources.

At the 2017 Annual Conference, lay and clergy members were given the opportunity to enter into a covenant to actively participate in dismantling racism. The invitation to covenant together has continued on the BWC website; to date over 500 individuals have signed on to do this work throughout our conference. At this time, CCORR is in the process of following up with the individuals and churches who signed and submitted a covenant card or have indicated their desire to engage in this critical work.

CCORR is aware that some congregations have stepped up to begin engaging in dialogues about racial justice. These conversations are taking a variety of forms. Churches are working with the resources provided as well as other resources to creatively and courageously begin these conversations in their local contexts. We applaud those clergy and laity who are finding ways to make them happen and encourage others to provide opportunities for members of their congregations and communities to engage in dialogues toward building new partnerships and to take actions in their locations. To support this work, CCORR is developing educational opportunities specifically to train leaders in the use of the Vital Conversations resource and to support this timely and vital work as it is emerging in local churches.

CCORR has also focused on the ongoing work of building intercultural competency across the Conference. In September, an intercultural competency workshop was held with the Board of Ordained Ministry as a part of their training and preparation for their work this year. A second workshop is planned for fall, 2018. A workshop on Intercultural Competency was also held for pastors who are participating in the Residency in Ministry program through BOOM. CCORR continues to see the need for intercultural competency training to take place throughout the Conference.

Over the last twenty months, there has been a developing core of racial justice work and resourcing in the Baltimore-Washington Conference. CCORR will be contributing as a part of the overall conference strategy to further this work. We look forward to doing what we can to promote and further dialogue and action in local churches and communities toward ending racism and growing in intercultural competency in the coming year.

DC-Maryland Justice for Our Neighbors

Purpose: We provide immigration legal services to low-income immigrants.

Goals: To provide high-quality legal services to low income immigrants, while providing faith-based hospitality, welcoming the stranger, and educating the community. By working on over 300 cases for clients from over 35 countries on over 25 different types of cases, we have served a lot of the population in need. We aim to serve the most vulnerable community members, and have developed case acceptance criteria that reflects this. We conducted Know Your Rights presentations in immigrant communities, and rely on volunteers to run our clinics, thus educating the public through various means. We strove to respond to specific needs due to harsher immigration rhetoric and policies from the new Administration. We held community presentations regarding enforcement, held DACA-specific clinics, and our attorney participated as part of a local emergency legal response team at Dulles International Airport after the executive orders banning refugees and Muslims. Additionally, we sought to increase the visibility of the organization, especially within the conference. Introductory meetings were held with Bishop Easterling and Conference staff; an educational and fundraising event, "Welcoming the Stranger," was held at the Conference Mission Center; several articles were published in the UMConnection; and, our social media presence was increased.

Impact: We held 27 immigration legal clinics at UMC's in Baltimore, Gaithersburg, Hyattsville, and Washington, DC. At the clinics, potential clients meet with our experienced attorney for in-depth legal consultations, and volunteers provide hospitality, refreshments, childcare, interpretation, and assistance with intakes. Our sole attorney opened 245 cases in 2017 (in addition to the 100+ cases still open and active from the prior year). The immigration process is incredibly slow, but we received positive results for many community members, including green cards, naturalizations, asylum grants, DACA grants, grants of motions to reopen, advanced parole, FOIA results, a grant of protection under the Violence Against Women, a T (trafficking) visa, a refugee travel document, approved family petitions, and many work permits.

2018: We aim to provide the same level of high quality immigration legal services and hospitality, while increasing our capacity by increasing our staff and our office space to accommodate more staff and volunteers.

Commission on Archives and History/ United Methodist Historical Society and the Strawbridge Shrine Association (CC)

Our Conference encompasses the foundation stones of both the United Brethren and Methodist Churches, which joined to create The United Methodist Church 50 years ago. Our goal in the coming year is to preserve and lift up our history, a story of divisions, reunions, faith and progress toward becoming “One Beneath the Cross.” Toward that end, a Pilgrimage Taskforce will be meeting throughout this year.

United Methodist Historical Society

The conference historical society, founded in 1855, began to exhibit the fruits of a century of collecting in the Museum at Lovely Lane Church in 1955. Fifty years ago, the UMC set up in each conference a “Commission on Archives and History, to preserve the records of the Conference, to maintain a firesafe archival and historical depository and to see that all current items [with] value for future history are preserved therein” (1972 Discipline ¶1277)

Inasmuch as the Discipline allowed that “the officers of the Commission shall be the officers of the Annual Conference Historical Society,” Commission and Society have operated as one for the past 50 years. The Conference installed an archival vault alongside the museum in 1975 and since then has provided funds for its maintenance and employed an archivist and associate.

That the state of this facility is not all that it should be became obvious last summer when an air conditioning leak led to a mold outbreak. Further analysis, by an industrial hygienist engaged by the Conference and a conservator engaged by the Society, revealed the need for a central air system and non-permeable flooring among other issues.

We appreciate the work of the Archives staff, which was relocated to the Conference Mission Center for the latter half of 2017, and of the Conference Finance and Facilities staff in working toward a remedy for these issues.

Strawbridge Shrine Association

Fifty years ago, the Strawbridge Shrine was among 17 Methodist Shrines adopted by The United Methodist Church, the first of the original four designated in 1940 by The Methodist Church after its reunification, as “worthy objects for the care of the general Church.” (1940 Discipline ¶1741)

Here Robert and Elizabeth Strawbridge settled (ca. 1760), and realized the first American Methodist preaching, classes and conversion (John Evans). This sacred site has developed as a historical park, including the log John Evans House, acquired by the Conference Historical Society and moved here in 1978, and a replica of the Strawbridge’s meetinghouse, built of period logs in 1982.

Last year, the Association re-examined the condition of these structures and found significant cause for concern which it laid before the Conference Trustees. We are grateful for their grant of $50,000 to make immediate repairs. We are determined as an association, however, to raise funds for the continuing care of this site.

Toward that end, we have established both a Preservation Fund and a National Council to lift up to the general church this sacred and historic site and the “worthy objects” which stand here as surviving witnesses to this first Methodist ministry in America.

Deaf Ministries

Our Mission is to bring the love and salvation of Jesus Christ to people in the Deaf community and their families.

Deaf Ministries of the Baltimore-Washington Conference is about bringing the love and salvation of Christ to the Deaf/DeafBlind in Deaf Space “where people feel safe to be and find themselves,” a community “where the view of Deaf people is valued, and their ownership of sign language is recognized,” and most of all, “Deaf people visiting the church see people like themselves up front, in a public role and can feel confident that someone will understand their problems and someone will listen to their point of view.” We respond to the “call to provide a foretaste of the Kingdom of God, a place where all may encounter the reality of GOD’S-RULE.” (Lewis, Hannah, et al. Deaf Liberation Theology. Taylor and Francis, 2016.)

Goals

- Magothy Deaf UMC (MDUMC): Continue discipleship and outreach through leadership team development, community education, and Bible study.
- Christ Deaf Church (CDC): Establish trainings for discipleship and church leadership.
- Deaf Ministries (DM): Initiate Youth Group for Deaf teens to develop relationships and cultivate disciples.
- Gallaudet University (GU): Develop impactful and relational events at Gallaudet University.
- Deaf Shalom Zone (DSZ): Support those desiring to become citizens on the citizenship questions for the exam. Assist clients with literacy issues to gain access to agencies and medical professionals.

Impact

- MDUMC has focused their giving and ministry and has trained new leaders. Deaf seniors are getting education and socialization.
- CDC has three members who have completed CLM class one.
- DM: Four teens went to ROCK and made commitments to Christ.
- GU: students connected gratitude and faith by participating in a “thank you” note event.
- DSZ: three clients are working on citizenship, one becoming a citizen, one waiting for testing and one working with JFON. Others are exploring healthier living situations or taking an active role in their own healthcare. Many more are improving relationships with family and friends, and with the Lord.

By the end of 2018, we seek to:

- Continue to disciple Magothy members, add outreach to other churches and communities.
- Christ Deaf Church will host continued CLM classes as well as Bible studies to deepen and stretch members’ faith and understanding of relationship with our Lord.
- Strengthen youth group through attending student sport games and shows.
- Host monthly themed events for Gallaudet students.
- Deaf Shalom Zone will continue serve the Deaf and DeafBlind Community with Case Management, Advocacy, Referrals and Education.
- Raise $12,000 to continue the work of the Shalom Zone.

Global PartnershipsEurasia Partnership: In Mission Together Eurasia Committee (IMTEC)

Purpose: To promote joint ministry with United Methodists in Eurasia, in particular the covenant partnership between the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the South Russia Annual Conference.

Impact:

- Relationship building: Our teams and contacts this past year worked toward this end, including establishing a relationship with the new Superintendent of the Central Black Soil District.
- Project support: Two teams went to Russia in 2017, focusing work at Camp Kristall near Voronezh, in partnership with participants from Virginia, Ohio, and New York. Both were present for support of Eurasian programs at the camp: one with “Camp Trinity,” ministering with persons having ability challenges; the other with the Youth (i.e., Young Adult) Mission Conference for facilities refurbishment and spiritual formation. Significant facilities improvements were made at the camp: partial roof replacement, accessibility work, and refits to the dining hall kitchen. Camp Kristall is a key strategic facility for the Russian UMC. “Camp Trinity” provides loving spiritual nurture to families facing enormous challenges; the Youth Mission Conference develops disciples and leaders and improves the camp’s physical venue.
- We also provided direct support for needed capital improvements at the church in Kerch’ (South District) and program assistance for a church in Voronezh (Central Black Soil District). We further provided emergency assistance for a congregation in the Moscow region whose building was destroyed by fire.
- Leadership Development: We continued to support and encourage the educational work of a key Russian church leader, and prepared to resume support for leadership training in Russia in 2018.
- Coordinated with other conference IMTEC groups: In addition to the foregoing, we have worked to help reinforce connections between Virginia IMTEC and the South District.

Goals for 2018:

1. Continue support of key projects, including Camp Kristall, Roma Ministry (South District), Youth Mission Conference, and Women’s Conference. This is to be accomplished through direct support, mission teams, and relationship building.
2. We are seeking to increase youth/young adult participation with IMTEC in our conference.
3. We anticipate helping one leader to complete advanced training (D.Min.) in 2018-2019 through Wesley Seminary, and will be working with our Eurasian counterparts to continue encouraging leadership development.

Puerto Rico Partnership

Our goals for the year 2017-2018 were to: 1) identify specific areas of ministry and mission for mutual benefit in both conferences; and 2) to discuss the possibility of partnering in a ministry and/or mission together in a third location in Latin America/Caribbean area.

Impact: Relationships among a number of local churches from both the Baltimore-Washington Conference and The Methodist Church in Puerto Rico continue to be strengthened. Local churches partnerships have been formed.

In August 2017, a group of young adults from Puerto Rico assisted with their gifts in music and worship in our Latino family retreat at West River Camp. We were blessed by their presence. Due to the devastating impact of Hurricane Maria in the island, most of our efforts had been focused in supporting the Puerto Rico Methodist Church through financial support and assistance in the rebuilding process. As a conference, the BWC responded with generosity to assist in the initial weeks after the aftermath of Maria. In addition, I wish to express our gratitude to congregations such as Fallston UMC, Calvary UMC, Toms Creek UMC and many anonymous others that shared their interest and in fact have supported the people of Puerto Rico through their provision via UMCOR.

For 2018, it is our goal to continue supporting the rebuilding efforts and, as things continue to improve, target goal #1 by expanding and identifying ministry and mission opportunities both in the BWC area as well as in Puerto Rico.

Zimbabwe Partnership

Purpose: to advance the extensive mission partnership between the BWC and the Zimbabwe Episcopal Area (ZEA).

Our goals in 2017 were to further the BWC partnership with Zimbabwe through the Pastor's School, as well as local church and community development opportunities in several of the rural areas in Zimbabwe. We fulfilled yet another successful Pastor's School at Africa University in Old Mutare, the 11th such school held between the two groups since the founding of the partnership.

Furthermore, through the work of Volunteers in Mission, there will be two dedications this year — that of water and power projects in Dindi, and school block construction in Hanwa. Led by Charlie Moore and several others, VIM continues to do outstanding work.

In addition, during the Pastor's School trip, two communities experienced revitalization through the installation of boreholes, one in Gwese, a rural town in which the partnership helped rebuild a church several years ago, and another community in the Mutare South District of the ZEA. These efforts were led by the Rev. Tim Warner and the congregational support of the Emory Grove and Mill Creek Parish churches. In addition, continued support was provided to the Ishe Anesu school through Emory Church in Washington, D.C. Through the collective work of the partnership, many lives are being saved and enhanced holistically, communities are seeing economic and spiritual growth, churches and congregations are growing, and hope is being restored in areas that have undergone great struggle.

By the end of 2018, we hope to hear of the launching of a major project to revitalize the Munyarari Clinic near Old Mutare. This effort is being led by Dave Talbot and the Bel Air Church. And, we look forward to the starting of other Zimbabwe VIM work through Community Church in Crofton and other congregations.

Conference Committee on Hispanic-Latino Ministries

The purpose of this committee is to “support the development, implementation, and evaluation of a Hispanic-Latino comprehensive plan of action and the strategies for working with Hispanic-Latino persons of all generations in the community. (Book of Discipline ¶655)”
Impact:

- Hispanic-Latino congregations participated in strategic sessions to develop a new conference strategy on Hispanic-Latino Ministries, created a visioning plan to be aligned with the new conference strategy on Hispanic-Latino Ministries and identified a diverse group of leaders to guide the work in the following three areas:
 - Connectional Commitment — increase visibility, attention, and conference resources to fully integrate our communities into the life of the conference
 - Faithful Discipleship — to develop leadership for local congregations and identify language appropriate resources.
 - Education & Advocacy — to create a conference resource team to address two areas of focus: Public Policy and Cultural Competence.

- At the Annual Hispanic-Latino Family Camp, we served 150 people. The theme of the retreat was “Finding Peace in Times of Stress,” based on Mark 6:31b. The space allowed for participants to share their concerns and stress about the political climate.
- We celebrated Hispanic Heritage Month with a Worship Service on Oct. 7, 2017, at Millian Memorial UMC. The guest preacher was the Rev. Tony Love, Assistant to the Bishop. An offering was collected to support the Methodist Church in Puerto Rico in their Hurricane Maria efforts.
- Lanham UMC launched a multi-contextual congregation with a Hispanic-Latino Ministry. After a couple of years of ground work, the congregation understands the importance of staying relevant to rapidly changing Lanham community and its greater area.

Goals For 2018:

- Faithful Discipleship: In partnership with the Office of Leadership Development and National Plan on Hispanic-Latino Ministry, a Lay Leadership School will be opened to train Hispanic-Latino laity for ministry. This program will begin in the fall.
- Education and Advocacy: Offer a border immersion trip to the conference where folks will be able to learn about immigration and Latinos in the USA as part of the Hispanic Heritage Month.
- Connectional Commitment: Increase conference participation in Hispanic Youth Leadership Academy (HYLA) and MARCHA the Hispanic-Latino Caucus of the UMC.

United Methodist Men

“Be ye doers of the word and not just hearers only.” Matthew 25:37-40 (NRSV)

The year 2017 marked a new journey for the United Methodist Men of the Baltimore-Washington Conference (BWCUMM). We have an opportunity and an obligation to make a major impact on the thousands of men in our Conference. The mission of the BWCUMM is to assist men to know Jesus, to serve Him, to grow spiritually, and to seek daily to do His will. We do this by leading all our churches in the BWC to Charter and support EMS, “Every Man Shares through Evangelism,” Mission and Spiritual Life ministry.

Impact:

- We started the year with a ministry to feed the hungry and needy families in our Conference. In the Greater Washington District, Randall Memorial UMC distributed 43,000 pounds of potatoes to its community. The United Methodist Men from the Districts of Central Maryland, Frederick, Baltimore Metropolitan and Annapolis Districts distributed 25,000 pounds each of potatoes in their respected communities.
- At the annual National Association of Conference UMM Presidents in Nashville, Tenn., BWCUMM’s Washington East District, Queen’s Chapel UMC in Beltsville was selected the “Best in Ministry.” Sixty-six members makes Queen’s Chapel UMM the largest unit of members in UMM in the United States.
- One-hundred fifty-two men attended our Annual Prayer Breakfast, hosted by Queen’s Chapel UMC. We were blessed to have Bishop LaTrelle Miller Easterling as our speaker.
- Our partnership ministry with the United Methodist Women continued this year with workshops at the Conference Center and a luncheon at our Annual Conference.
- At the 12th National Gathering of United Methodist Men in Indianapolis, Ind. BWCUMM President Hampton Conway, Jr., and Queen’s Chapel local President Perry Collins, did a two-session presentation on “The Winner Is? How Did They Do It,” based on the power point presentation entered for the “Best Unit in Ministry.”

The 2018-2020 Nomination of BWC UMM officers were presented and voted on. Officers are: President, Hampton E. Conway, Jr.; Vice President, Ceferino Epps; Secretary, Minister Riccardo Jefferson, Sr.; Treasurer, Garnett Henley; and Prayer Advocate, Bryon Gould.

Our challenge for 2018 is to get officers to serve in the Cumberland-Hagerstown and the Frederick Districts. We also plan to increase the number of chartered churches from 120 by 30 percent and to expand our support of the Evangelism, Mission and Spiritual Life from 307 members by 30 percent or a number that truly honors God by “Helping men grow in Christ so others will know Christ.”

United Methodist Women

Purpose: United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

The goal for 2017 was to inform and educate United Methodist Women and the community about long-term effects of imprisonment on the lives of families. The outcome yielded 450 discussions and events led by resource experts knowledgeable in the fields of Criminal Justice and Mass Incarceration. As women called by God to transform the world and its broken systems on behalf of women, children and youth, our vision — Turning Faith, Hope and Love into Action — energizes our commitments and generates new opportunities to serve the needs of others.

The mission impact was awareness of the social burdens experienced by those in prison, the re-entry process and the need to transform opinions and judgements about citizens returning to the church community. A coalition will be established by United Methodist Women to fight against the problems created by Mass Incarceration.

In 2018, the Baltimore-Washington Conference United Methodist Women are seeking more vital efforts, compassionated listening, and stronger relationships with districts, local units, key leaders and community organizations, to support the implementation of four initiatives: Climate Justice; Charter for Racial Justice; Maternal Health; and School-to-Prison Pipeline. This will lead to promoting and encouraging more creative action on our path for mission as women of faith.

Stewardship

Council on Finance and Administration

The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) report this year celebrates the faithfulness and dedication of the local churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. There is good news to be shared, not only in the telling, but also in the way CFA has applied the success in 2017 to the 2019 budget to the direct benefit of our local churches.

It is good news that the local churches in our conference continue to set record high apportionment giving in 2017. The collection rate of 92.45% beat the budget estimate of 92% for the second year in a row. The 2019 budget continues this projection at 92%. This has been a realistic expectation set at the same rate since 2015.

Total local church income for the churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference grew significantly in 2017. This continues a trend measured since 2012. Our apportionment base also grew by almost 1% in 2017. While it seems inevitable that costs will increase each year for both local churches and the conference, CFA undertook to mitigate a portion of that effect for the local churches by reducing the benevolence factor from 17.725% to 17.600% for the 2019 budget. This follows a reduction also in 2018. This reduced apportionment income by $100,000 from what it would have been under the 2018 rate. The effect is to maintain the level of apportionment income or ministry shares between $14.2 million and $14.3 million. This is the seventh year in a row CFA has set apportionment income at a consistent and stable level. This is intended to provide predictability and stability for the local churches in their connectional giving.

The 2019 budget also continues strategic initiatives to accelerate the payments on the mortgage for the conference center and new camping facilities. This has the potential to save us $1 million in interest if we are able to pay off this debt early in 2022. Retiree medical expenses will continue to be paid wholly from reserves and with no contribution from apportionments. CFA has also increased its target for reserves from 10% to 15% of apportionment income to be completed in 2019. With the positive fund balance from 2017, we are currently at 13.8%. A highlight, both financially and otherwise, is the outstanding income and program performance of Retreat and Camping Ministries.

In addition, the 2019 budget reflects the new structure of the Discipleship Ministries and will provide transparency and accountability as we engage in this new structure. It provides increased funding for these ministries. It also includes almost $80,000 in new outside grant income. It reduces stewardship expenses and is a balanced budget.

CFA has considered potential risks to both local church income and connectional giving that can take effect in 2018 and 2019. Effective in 2018, changes in the Federal Tax laws may affect charitable contributions, and in February 2019 the “Way Forward” process will be voted on at the Special Session of the General Conference. Either or both of these events may have negative effects on local churches and a ripple effect on ministries of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. CFA stresses that adverse effects are only potential risks and not a certainty. While the effects are currently unknown, they will evolve over the next two years. CFA is boosting its reserves and, together with other affected agencies, will follow events closely, remain flexible, and develop strategies to address their effects.

2017 Financial Results (Pre-Audit):

Income

The apportionment/mission share income in 2017 was $14,288,609 with an overall collection rate of 92.45%. For the fourth straight year, the Conference has set a record high for the collection rate. The collection rate budget was set at 92.0% and the positive performance was better than budget by $69,686 (0.5%). The apportionment giving was actually $54,699 (0.4%) lower than the prior year which is simply a factor of a lower apportionment budget in 2017.

The collection rates recorded in recent years are as follows:

|--------------|--------------|
| 2017: 92.45% | 2012: 89.10% |
| 2016: 92.08% | 2011: 90.46% |
| 2015: 91.66% | 2010: 90.51% |
| 2014: 90.77% | 2009: 89.24% |
| 2013: 89.84% | 2008: 87.00% |

The number of churches contributing 100% towards their mission shares remained high with 82% of our local churches meeting that standard. The number of churches giving 100% of their mission shares was 84% in 2016, 83% in 2015, and 82% in 2014.

The non-apportionment income in 2017 was $4.4 million which was $41,000 (0.9%) less than budget. On actually a good note, the non-apportionment income was $298,000 less than expected due to the lower funding that was required from the Board of Pensions Reserves to pay for Retiree medical benefit expenses that were 16% less than budget. That negative performance was offset by more than budget performance in Retreat and Camping Ministry revenues that exceeded their budget by $87,000. Earnings on investments were also stronger than expected with net gains of $73,000 greater than budget. Overall, the non-apportionment income was $1.4 million more than the prior year as a result of the change in the 2017 budget that funded all of the Retiree medical benefits from the Board of Pensions Reserve instead of apportionment funding.

Expenses

The total expenses in 2017 were $18.2 million which was $434,300 (2.3%) less than budget. The most significant financial pressures were the Zimbabwe Partnership expenses that exceeded budget by $57,000 and annual conference expenses that exceeded total income by $30,000. These were offset by under budget performance in Retiree Medical expenses at $298,000, as mentioned previously under the non-apportionment income. Other expenses under budget included moving costs - $49,000, legal - $47,000, and insurance - $35,000.

Overall, the resulting net income prior to audit was a positive $462,494 which is 2.5% of budget. There are many factors that contributed to this strong financial performance in 2017. We especially give thanks to our local churches who remain so strong in their connectional giving.

BWC Apportionment Base:

The expenses of a local church as they are reported in the annual collection of statistical data, minus dollars that are spent on mission, outreach, debt service and capital projects comprise what is known as the apportionment base for a church. The apportionment for a local church is derived by multiplying the apportionment base by the Benevolence Factor that is established by the Annual Conference when the budget is approved. Using this method, our current Benevolence Factor of 17.725% yields an apportionment that is most commonly in the range of 9-12% of total local church expenses or income.

The apportionment base for the Conference is an accumulated total of the apportionment base that is calculated for each local church. The reported base increased by 1.0% in 2017. The apportionment base trends with the year-over-year changes are as follows:

|-------|--|
| 2017: | $ 88,283,704 (+1.0%) |
| 2016: | $ 87,449,322 (+0.4%) |
| 2015: | $ 87,072,403 (-0.8%) |
| 2014: | $ 87,780,638 (+1.1%) |
| 2013: | $ 86,835,908 (+0.8%) |
| 2012: | $ 86,169,509 (-1.3%) |
| 2011: | $ 87,341,343 (-2.1%) |
| 2010: | $ 89,250,232 (+6.1% vs. 2008) |
| 2009: | Not Applicable – Kept the prior year's base and budget |
| 2008: | $ 84,095,541 (+3.0%) |
| 2007: | $ 81,646,157 |

2019 Budget:

The proposed budget for 2019 builds on the strategic initiatives that were first introduced in the 2017 budget. These initiatives include:

1. Increase Level of CFA Reserves from 10% to 15%

With the positive fund balance from 2017, the CFA Reserves now stand at 13.8% of the apportionment budget. The 2019 budget includes $100,000 towards the increased level of CFA reserves to reach the 15% goal.

2. Accelerate Payment of Conference Debt

The consolidated loan for the West River Dining Hall and the Mission Center will be reduced to a balance of $2.1 million with the proposed 2019 budget that includes $600,000 towards accelerated debt payments. The loan balance stood at $5.2 million at the end of 2016 prior to starting the accelerated payments. The 2019 budget keeps the Conference on pace to pay off the loan in 2022 which will be 6 years ahead of schedule with $1.0 million total savings in interest payments.

3. Fund Retiree Medical Benefits from Reserves

Retiree medical benefits will continue to be funded from the Board of Pension reserves without any additional funding coming from apportionments. The retiree medical funding in 2019 is set at $1,635,000 which is based on the current expense trends for this benefit.

The 2019 budget also includes a reduction of the Benevolence Factor from 17.725% down to 17.60%. This builds on the reduction from 17.75% that was included in the 2018 budget. The reduction in the Benevolence Factor is consistent with the CFA's multi-year plan to keep making progress towards the goal that the average church's apportionments be no more than 10% of their overall income. That level is currently calculated at 10.6% based on the 2017 statistics. This is down from 12.3% in 2011.

Overall, the budget proposal consists of an apportionment income of $14,294,897 which is an increase of $34,536 or 0.2% from the prior year. The budget assumes a 92.0% collection rate for the apportionments which is consistent with the actual results for 2016 and 2017. The non-apportionment income is increased by $231,592 to $4,435,367 which is driven by increases in external grants and the recognition of $200,000 from the sale of discontinued churches that will now be recorded in the budget as revenue to fund grants for new church starts.

The expense budget shows an increase in Discipleship Ministry programs of 3.7% from $11.1 to $11.5 million. The stewardship and administrative programs will be reduced by 1.9% from $6.9 to $6.8 million. The budget incorporates a 2.5% increase in salary, completes the phaseout of Regional Resource Coordinators, and funds the hiring of a new full-time position to lead New Faith Expressions.

Other line items of significance include:

- The General Conference apportionments will be reduced to $3,481,744 which is a decrease of $89,866 (-2.5%).
- Retreat and Camping Ministries revenues are projected to grow an additional 4.5% in 2019 which continues to be a very good news story.

Summary

The future continues to unfold and we will continue to rise to meet our financial challenges, strengthened by a willingness to operate in ways both traditional and innovative. We will continue to strengthen communications about our connectional ministries and how apportionments are used throughout the connection. We are blessed as a conference by financial stability and by the resources we have in terms of partnerships, both realized and envisioned.

The Baltimore-Washington Conference continues to develop its stewardship so that vital and vibrant communities can be born and prosper, so that our connections at both local and global levels can be strengthened and increased, and so that all local churches can experience the benefits of the connectional system of which we are all a part. We recognize God's presence at work through it all and thank God as well as appreciate the uniqueness of each local church.

CFA continues to do its work in a spirit that we pray is cooperative and well-focused. As we continue to stand together as a connectional church, we will find both causes to celebrate and the ability to face our challenges together. We will work together for the greater good of which we are all a part, keeping in mind that all that we have and all that we are is from God.

Narrative Summary of the 2019 Conference Budget

BUDGET ASSUMPTIONS

Benevolence Factor – Proposed 2019: 17.600%

The benevolence factor is the percentage churches are apportioned based on their operating expenditures less exclusions. The percentage for 2019 is .125% less than the percentage used in 2018 (17.725%).

Apportionment Collection Rate - Proposed 2019: 92.0%

The projected collection of the amount apportioned to churches in the 2019 Budget is 92.0%. There is no change from the 2018 budget.

REVENUE

Apportionments: $14,294,897

A church's share of the local and global mission work and operating expenses of the Annual Conference as determined by the apportionment formula.

Grants: $180,850

This represents grants given directly to the conference for ministry and mission. For example, General Church grants to operate the Episcopal Office and residence.

Event Registration: $2,145,359

This includes Annual Conference registration, workshop registrations, Retreat and Camping Ministries registrations (majority of line item) and other conference events.

Publications: $4,100

This includes sales or rentals of publications, DVDs, paid UMConnection subscriptions, and other materials.

Individual Gifts:

Gifts coming from individuals for specific programs. These are for the conference, specifically, rather than for ministries outside of the conference. No such gifts are anticipated in 2019.

Reimbursements: $103,600

The conference receives reimbursements from denominational agencies for specific operating programs. The Mission Center tenant leases are also captured in this revenue category.

Other Income/Sources of Funds: $1,971,458

Miscellaneous income or sources of funds, such as the funding from agency reserve funds. For example, Retiree Medical expenses (majority of line item) are 100% paid from the Board of Pension Reserves. The funds from the sale of discontinued churches are used to fund a portion of the New Faith Expressions.

Interest: $30,000

An estimate of the interest the conference will earn on operating funds in investment vehicles.

TOTAL OPERATING REVENUE: $ 18,730,264

EXPENSES

I. DISCIPLESHIP EXPENSES

Regional Ministry Teams: $2,244,496

Funds to operate the ministries and administrative support of the Regions. The Regional Teams include:

- a. Southern Region (Annapolis and Washington East Districts)
- b. Baltimore Region (Baltimore Metro and Baltimore Suburban Districts)

- c. Washington Region (Greater Washington and Central Maryland Districts)

Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

The Board of Pensions and Health Benefits continues to pursue its goal of enabling clergy and lay staff to accomplish their ministries without concern for their long-term financial or medical protection. We continue to position ourselves to face the challenges that lie ahead and to assist clergy and staff in their mission.

Pensions:

- Pre-82 Service Funding: The 2018 Past Service Rate (PSR) is confirmed at $692. We recommend that the PSR for 2018 be set at $720. ¶1506.7 (2016 Discipline) confers authority upon the Annual Conference to review the annuity rate for Pre-82 service and to adjust the PSR rate as appropriate taking into consideration the changes in the economy. Such annuity rate may remain the same or be increased without restriction. Wespeth Benefits and Investments actuarial valuation for Pre-82 Annuities as of January 1, 2017, showed a more than fully funded plan, requiring no monies to be paid by BWC. The pre-82 plan surplus results from increases in valuation of the securities in the account. Wespeth has authorized a mechanism by which we have been able to employ some of the excess Pre-82 funds to indirectly fund our Retiree Medical Plan reserve. Pre-82 is the pension plan in place prior to 1982.
- Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) Funding: Wespeth Benefits and Investments' actuarial valuation for MPP Annuities as of January 1, 2017, showed that it is also a fully funded plan, requiring no monies to be paid by BWC. Monies previously contributed to MPP continue to be held in individual participant accounts. MPP is the pension plan in place from 1982 through 2006
- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Funding: The Baltimore-Washington Conference funds the program as follows:
- CRSP Defined Contribution (DC) — BWC continues to collect 3% of participant's plan compensation (salary plus housing) to fund the Defined Contribution (DC). Two percent goes directly to the participant's DC account. The participant is now required to enroll in the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) with a contribution of at least 1% of plan compensation in order to receive a match of up to 1%.
- CRSP Defined Benefit (DB) — BWC continues to collect 12% of the participant's plan compensation, limited by the DAC (Denominational Average Compensation) to fund the Defined Benefit portion of CRSP.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP):

- BWC continues to collect 3% of a clergy participant's plan compensation (salary plus housing) for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The CPP provides death and disability benefits for all eligible participants. As of the last General Conference, Wespeth Benefits and Investments revised their policies to treat clergy mental illness in the same fashion as any other illness for CPP purposes. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits has voted to provide the necessary funds to eliminate anti-mental illness discrimination for lay employees as well.

UMLifeOptions:

- Eligibility changes were approved at the 2016 General Conference to eliminate the special arrangement coverage for ordained clergy appointed to ½ or ¼ time as of 12/31/2016. Conferences were given options to purchase life and disability insurance for these clergy through UMLifeOptions.
- Effective 1/1/2017, active ordained clergy appointed to ½ or ¼ time are now enrolled in UMLifeOptions, BWC will collect 3% of clergy participant's plan compensation (salary plus housing) to cover the premiums.

Health:

- HealthFlex: Effective January 1, 2017, all eligible participants have been enrolled in the Wespeth HealthFlex Exchange Plans. The HealthFlex Exchange brings more plan options and more flexibility for enrollees to select the HealthFlex plan that best fits each individual need. The HealthFlex Exchange is not a public exchange and is not associated with government agencies. It is a multiple-option group health plan designed for United Methodist Church clergy, lay employees and their families.

- Retirees: Retirees who are over age 65 will continue to work with OneExchange to choose policies better suited to their individual needs. Retirees are offered a stipend based on years of service. Retirees who are under age 65 or any future participants who retire before age 65 will remain on the HealthFlex Exchange plan until the month they turn 65.

Social Security: Your Board strongly recommends that all clergy of the Conference participate in Social Security, and not exercise any conscience clauses to opt out of Social Security. Eligibility for Medical benefits through OneExchange in retirement and Disability benefits through the CPP program, are both dependent on participation in Social Security and Medicare. Thus, one's irrevocable decision to opt out of Social Security is a decision to be excluded from these Conference programs as well.

Arrearage: In order to assure that nothing interferes with clergy continued medical and pension coverage, BWC first makes the necessary payments to Wespeth when due and then collects the premiums from individual churches. There is a continuing problem with a small number of churches which fall behind in this pastoral compensation commitment. The Bishop's Task Force on Arrearages, comprised of two District Superintendents, the Chair of the Board of Pensions, and Conference staff, has developed approaches to more intensive management of churches which are in arrears, for medical and pension arrearages often are symptomatic of other challenges to ministry and finances the church is facing. A Church in arrears may be offered a forbearance program where collection of the arrearage is forborne for three years while the church focuses its efforts on greater effectiveness in ministry. Churches successfully completing this program may have the arrearage converted to a contingent liability, effective only in the event that the church property is sold.

During 2017, the initial forbearance churches completed their three years. Seven churches satisfied the forbearance agreement and received a contingent liability status, and five had their forbearance period extended for an additional 12 months. Four new church forbearances are pending.

The objective is to make every effort to help churches return to health both in their ministry and their finances. The total arrearage at the end of 2017 for non-participating churches was $356,511. Arrearages for forbearance churches totaled $275,096, not including the forbearance amount of $328,220.

2019 General Conference: In response to concerns regarding proposals which may or may not be made in connection with the 2019 General Conference, the CBOPHB has reviewed its areas of responsibility to identify any possibilities that might affect the pensions and medical insurance of those for whom the CBOPHB is responsible, and is confident these obligations can be met regardless of events in 2019.

Final Comments: The CBOPHB thanks Frances Tagoe, Director, Human Resources and Benefits for her enthusiastic and professional work on behalf of our participants and the Board. She effectively communicates and administers the benefits based on Plan rules and regulations, the Book of Discipline, the Conference's policies and procedures, and all applicable state and federal laws so that there is an understanding of the benefits for our clergy and lay employees. It is her goal and the Board's goal to continue to provide the best possible benefits package for our plan participants, while maintaining the utmost care for and fiduciary responsibility to you, the Plan participants, and those in the Baltimore-Washington Conference for whom we owe the same. We wish to also give thanks to Karen Conroy, HR and Benefits Associate; Pier McPayten, Controller; and the District Superintendents who all support the work we do.

Board of Trustees

This is my final report as the Chair of the Baltimore Washington Conference Board of Trustees. I would like to give my heartfelt thanks to the members of the Board, Paul Eichelberger, Moe Battley, Pier McPayten, and the entire Finance Department of the Conference. Your guidance, help and support has made my role easier and, as an Annual Conference, we are blessed by your service.

It has been a busy and productive year for the Annual Conference Board of Trustees. Our primary role is to safeguard and protect the interests and rights of the Annual Conference. While it would be difficult to summarize all the Trustee Board's work, I would like to note some of the Board's accomplishments:

In partnership with Retreat and Camping Ministries, upgrades and improvements have been made at both Manidokan and West River Camp sites. We've worked with the Conference Archivist to make needed upgrades to the museum at Lovely Lane UMC, where Annual Conference historical records are kept. We also assisted the Strawbridge Shrine with needed repairs to several buildings at the Shrine.

Through our loans and grants, we were able to aid several churches, located throughout the Annual Conference, with emergency loans, as well as support new initiatives to aid churches to upgrade their properties to reach new people.

The Board of Trustees continued this year to provide training at the Regional Leadership Days on the role and responsibilities of local church Trustees, and to support local churches by being available to answer questions and provide guidance on local church trustee matters.

Again, I am grateful to all of the Trustees who faithfully serve, and to the conference office on Finance and Administration. Their cooperation and assistance has been invaluable.

The Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation, Inc.

The MAUMF provides Stewardship Education and Investment Services

2017 Accomplishments:

Stewardship Education — Conference pastors continued to participate in the comprehensive Financial Leadership Academy's two-year program. A new Academy for Church Finance was launched, providing an opportunity for clergy and laity to work together to improve stewardship within a congregation. Planned Giving Education resulted in new donors making legacy gifts to churches, agencies, and ministries of the Annual Conference.

Investments — The Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation became the first faith-based foundation to become a "Certified Fiduciary." This was awarded by the Center for Fiduciary Excellence, an independent global assessment and certification organization. The Foundation increased the number of client churches and agencies it serves to record levels.

Invested assets entrusted to the Foundation's care reached $100 million dollars.

2017 Impact — A record number of individuals participated in stewardship education programs to increase financial resources in support of ministry programs. In 2017, the Foundation paid over $5.5 million dollars to local churches and agencies in ministry funding.

The Foundation is completing a new 3-year Strategic Plan establishing new goal for the future.

New opportunities for stewardship education are being designed to meet the increasing needs of the local church.

Expanded investment offerings and reporting processes will support the increasing requirements of comprehensive care for Church assets and investments.

Leadership

Discipleship Council

The Discipleship Council had a very productive year. Since July 1, 2017, we have met five times and held one conference call. We elected the Rev. Jenny Cannon as our secretary; Hazel Jackson as our representative to the Ministry Relationship Oversight Committee (a standing committee of the Discipleship Council); and the Rev. Michael Parker as our second representative to the Connectional Table (CT). The Chairperson of the Council is the other representative to the CT.

Due to some confusion about the role, responsibilities, and purpose of the Discipleship Council, we reviewed our current structure and discussed how the Discipleship Council fits into that structure. The Discipleship Council was created as part of the Baltimore Washington Conference (BWC) restructuring that took place in 2005 and 2006. In 2013, the Annual Conference passed a resolution to update the composition and purpose of the Discipleship Council, which “shall be to (a) discern, develop and recommend Conference vision and goals to the Annual Conference Session; (b) review and evaluate progress toward the Conference vision and goals; and (c) ensure that Conference resources align to our vision, mission, and goals. The Council shall coordinate and consult with the Conference Council on Finance and Administration regarding the annual budget.” The Discipleship Council is required to meet at least quarterly.

We began our meetings with time for prayer and/or a devotion and read Ephesians 4:1-6 and 11-16 (The Message). We read and discussed The Anatomy of Peace by the Aringer Institute, a book proposed for study to the Annual Conferences and General Conference delegations by The Commission on the Way Forward.

The Discipleship Council fulfilled our role, responsibilities and purpose in several ways. We reviewed the Annual Conference evaluations and provided that information to the Sessions Committee. We reviewed, discussed and offered feedback about the Annual Conference response to the NEJ Call to Action for Racial Reconciliation, including the covenant cards that are being used to evaluate AC membership response to the Call to Action; and the ReCall Summit held in October 2017. We discussed and provided feedback regarding a possible restructure of the BWC Discipleship ministry agencies.

We also developed a new BWC Mission Statement, which will be presented to the Annual Conference for action, via resolution, at the 2018 Annual Conference.

The Council also thoroughly reviewed and provided feedback regarding the 2019 budget. Discipleship Council member Carol Travis represented the Council at a budget “stakeholders” meeting. The entire Council met with BWC CF&A Chair Phil Potter and Treasurer Paul Eichelberger to review and provide feedback regarding the budget proposal.

In 2014, the Annual Conference established a Ministry Relationship Oversight Committee (MROC) as a standing committee of the Discipleship Council. This year the MROC reported one application for ministry relationship to the Council. This application is pending as the MROC obtains additional information requested by the Council.

Additionally, this application highlighted procedural challenges that the MROC and Council plan to evaluate over the next year. This evaluation will consider whether the procedure can be streamlined, different levels of ministry relationship are feasible, and there are other changes necessary to accomplish the goals of MROC as established by the Annual Conference.

In the coming year, the Council anticipates evaluating the BWC Vision Statement. In all our work, we seek to enable the Annual Conference to more efficiently and effectively inspire and equip the development of disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Board of Ordained Ministry

During the 2017-18 Conference year, the Baltimore-Washington Board of Ordained Ministry has served on behalf of all persons across the Conference called to representative ministry of the church as licensed, commissioned and ordained persons. The Board is comprised of 54 lay and clergy persons who serve on behalf of more than 1,100 persons under our care as either candidates for ministry, actively commissioned provisional members, Deacons and Elders in full connection, and retired members.

This year, the Board has sought to strengthen its work by engaging in several initiatives. These included working throughout the year to continue to clarify and affirm our values, engaging in Cultural Competency training for the entire Board, and holding our first “Living Your Call” recruitment and enlistment event. We have worked to strengthen relationships with the seminaries with which we relate, and we are currently working on developing a framework for resourcing clergy around sexual ethics and boundaries. Additionally, our Board’s Human Sexuality Task Force has worked to help clarify Board Policy and Practices as it regards the diversity among those we serve on behalf of the Church.

In accordance with paragraph 635 of the 2016 Book of Discipline, an important part of our work is serving as stewards of the process of supporting, evaluating and examining persons who have offered themselves as candidates for ordained ministry as Deacons and Elders. Our eight district committees on ordained ministry and the BoOM have worked tirelessly throughout the year to ensure that processes of evaluation and examination are accomplished with integrity, fairness and clarity for all candidates and provisional members under our care. We have continued to work to perfect several policies and procedures that inform our work for evaluating of candidates for ministry, with the goal of discerning ways that together we can continue to engage in ministry that is faithful and fruitful toward the end of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of our communities and the world.

The Board of Ordained Ministry takes the opportunity to thank Bishop LaTrelle Easterling for her ongoing prayers, support and guidance of our work; the Rev. John Nupp, the Director of the Center for Clergy Excellence, for his outstanding leadership in managing and facilitating the perfecting of our practices for supporting clergy and those preparing for ordained ministry; and Mrs. Debbie Albrecht for her stellar administrative support of the Board of Ordained Ministry’s work.

As we conclude this Conference year and move forward, we continue to solicit your prayers for our work on behalf of those who seek to serve Christ in the representative ministries of the church, for the Baltimore-Washington Conference, The United Methodist Church, and Christ’s Church universal.

Rules Committee

The Rules Committee worked on several projects in the last year. We crafted proposals for new deadlines for conference reports, resolutions to Annual Conference, and petitions to General Conference. Given both the number of other resolutions that were offered for the 2018 Annual Conference and the compact schedule for this year, we decided to defer our resolutions dealing with those proposals.

The committee also met with the Director of Connectional Ministries, Christie Latona. She discussed ideas for restructuring Annual Conference committees. The Rules Committee voted that such changes would require the cooperation and approval of the Rules Committee.

The most significant change for this committee was in its leadership. After years of serving as the chair, Jen Ihlo transitioned to her new role as chair of the Discipleship Council. The Rules Committee is grateful for her service and expertise, and we are glad that she will continue as an ex officio member. The Rev. Mark Gorman was elected the new chair.

Commission on Communications

The Communications Staff and the Commission seek to tell the story of God as lived out by the people of the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

In an award-winning newspaper, website, e-newsletter, and with video and through social media, a four-member Communications staff informs, equips and inspires the BWC's spiritual leaders. We are blessed by the steady witness provided by Melissa Lauber (Director), the Rev. Erik Alsgaard (Managing Editor) and Alison Burdett (Multimedia Producer), who collect and communicate the Good News from the diverse corners of our Annual Conference. This year, we welcomed Myca Jones, who serves as webmaster and has an expertise in video production. Myca has already significantly enriched the presence of BWC multiple media platforms. We also celebrate Linda Worthington, who tirelessly volunteers her time as an outstanding writer and editor. Thanks to this staff, quality materials are available for use around the Conference. Approximately 9,000 copies of the UMConnection newspaper are distributed each month; our Facebook and Twitter pages have seen an increase of approximately 10 percent in their followership; and our e-connection goes out weekly to over 4,000 members! Based on feedback from our younger membership, we have revitalized our Instagram platform. We look forward to increased followership in all media in the year ahead.

The Conference Commission works in partnership with the staff. This year, we moved toward a collaborative role rather than advisory. To that end, we identified BWC members who, in addition to representing a cross section of our annual conference demographically, also bring a diversity of expertise. Members of the Commission represent clergy and laity; all Regions of our Annual Conference; and bring strategic skills in writing, video production, local church resourcing, photography and education. Members have partnered with individuals on the staff to provide advice, feedback and ideas for content. Additionally, they act as liaisons between the staff and their constituent location or ministry areas. The Commission is leading efforts to create a significant inaugural photography retreat that focuses on the power and spirituality of image. It will be held in October 2018.

We look forward to the next year and our continuing role in spreading the Good News throughout the Baltimore-Washington Conference and beyond.

Commission on Nominations

The purpose of the Conference Commission on Nominations is to identify and nominate gifted spiritual leaders to serve on Commissions, Boards and Agencies of the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

This year, the Nominations Committee changed the nominations process to help reach new people, ensure diversity, and nominate people to positions that match their spiritual gifts and expertise. To support the work involved, a staff project manager worked closely with committee leadership. Goals for the Nominations Project were to:

1. Have a completed and verified nominations slate at least one month prior to Annual conference.
2. By July 1, 2018, stimulate participation in boards and agencies by lay and clergy responding to God's calling who have a passion and commitment to the ministry and to have balanced representation of lay, clergy, age, gender, district, demographic, race, ethnicity along with skills needed for Annual Conference agencies' work.

3. By July 1, 2020, committees exemplify effective, collaborative teaming and develop skilled servant leaders serving as the body of Christ.

The Director of Connectional Ministries gathered information from existing committees, which was used by the Commission on Nominations members to guide their work. Agency chairs provided information on their vacancies and the goals and work of their committees as well as the skills/gifts needed that was used to develop an interest form and shared with potential nominees. Nominations developed a "Survey of Interest Form" to "help match people to their best place of serving in the Body of Christ." The form was widely distributed and those desiring to serve on a conference committee were required to submit it.

Regional teams, led their District Lay Leaders, were given the task of reviewing their region's Interest Forms and matching persons with the vacant positions for their regions. Potential nominees were contacted and provided with a discernment process to guide their decision to serve or not to serve.

The majority of the Nominations decided not to populate inactive committees with new people but put those people on newly created "interim" boards under five focus areas: Leadership, Young Peoples Ministry, New Faith Expressions, Advocacy and Action, and Abundant Health. All chairs, new and returning, will receive training in July 2018.

Our hope is that by 2019, the Nominations Committee will have evaluated the new process, made needed changes and transitioned to a better way of fulfilling its purpose. Nominations wants to be good stewards of our gifts, time, talent and resources.

Africa University

Africa University enjoyed a banner year in 2017, thanks to the local congregations, leadership, and individual members of The United Methodist Church. United Methodists in the Baltimore-Washington Conference and throughout the connection spearheaded special celebration events marking Africa University's 25th anniversary. These efforts brought Africa University's progress and ministry contributions to the fore, allowing congregations to reaffirm their commitment to the institution's mission of nurturing global leaders who transform communities.

The university community — students, faculty, administrators and support staff, trustees, alumni, partners and friends — is deeply thankful to the Baltimore-Washington Conference for investing in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment at 100 percent in 2017. Thank you, Baltimore-Washington United Methodists, for your continuing generosity and faithfulness to this ministry.

Institutional Update:

- Africa University hosts a stable, focused and vibrant campus community of 1,800 students as well as faculty, and staff from 31 African nations. Amidst a transition in the governance of Zimbabwe, lectures, research, and outreach activities continue uninterrupted.
- A new academic structure is encouraging innovation and enhancing Africa University's relevance to The United Methodist Church and to sub-Saharan Africa. This includes the launch of the Institute of Theology and Religious Studies which brings together multidisciplinary training and leadership formation opportunities for both clergy and laity.

- Africa University's insectary and researchers are providing critical data on mosquitos and regional malaria control programs to aid Africa's efforts to eradicate malaria and other insect-borne diseases.
- The university is also making trailblazing, regional contributions in migrant and refugee protection, child rights, and harnessing intellectual property for development.
- The first 25 years of AU's ministry have produced more than 8,000 graduates to date.

Africa University ended 2017 affirmed, celebrated, and with its highest level of support from The United Methodist Church to date. United Methodist congregations in the United States invested 96.77 percent of their budget commitment to the AUF. Thirty-five of the 56 annual conferences achieved or exceeded their 100 percent investment in the AUF. Giving to the AUF increased in all five jurisdictions — with the Western Jurisdiction at 100 percent for the first time and the Northeastern Jurisdiction at 100 percent for the third consecutive year.

As Africa University embraces new opportunities for service and impact, gifts for scholarships, academic development, and infrastructure are vitally important. The four-year, $50 million Campaign for Africa University is ongoing, with 76.5 percent of the goal or $38.3 million in cash and pledges already committed. Thank you, Baltimore-Washington Conference, for providing a home for the Campaign Office in the BWC Mission Center and for giving more than $400,000 to the campaign, designated for the expansion of sports and recreation facilities at the main campus.

Thank you, Baltimore-Washington Conference, for your foundational role in the Africa University story. Thank you for being a part of this incredible year of blessings. Thank you for affirming the power of faithfully sowing, standing, and working together as you journey in ministry with Africa University.

Board of Child Care

Last year, we updated you about the early stages of our three-year strategic plan to transform Board of Child Care (BCC) from a care provider to an impact maker. We have had an incredible, transformative year as we focus on our purpose: Enriching communities, one family at a time.

We have focused heavily on organizational alignment — our first strategic goal. Our staff and Board of Directors worked to align policies, become more data driven, and challenged the “why” about our practices and procedures. We are committed to living out our purpose as a trauma-informed organization guided by our core values of safety, integrity, empathy and impact.

What a difference those conversations and efforts have made. BCC is becoming more flexible and nimble as we transform how we deliver services to some of the most vulnerable and underserved populations in the Mid-Atlantic.

Becoming a leader in our communities by bringing change makers together is also part of our strategic plan. We are very proud to report that these meetings have resulted in brand new programs in both West Virginia and in Maryland.

Another example from the past year is that BCC provided a specialized training called Mental Health First Aid in preparation for the annual Ocean City, Maryland, ROCK event. The course helped build participants' mental health literacy as well as help them identify, understand and respond to signs of mental illness or crisis.

We are also pleased to report that our accreditation renewal from the United Methodist Association's EAGLE (Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence) commission successfully took place in 2017. BCC pursues nationally recognized accreditations to ensure its programs and operations meet and exceed industry best practices.

In addition to accreditation from EAGLE, BCC received two nominations: one for best practice, and one for innovation. The first is for workforce and leadership development in assisting employees with career advancement resulting in employee promotion and retention. The second, given to acknowledge a creative and unique approach to ministries, recognizes the large effort to help staff, youth, and families with their Christmas shopping by allowing clients and families to shop for others. The "Christmas Store" gives dignity to children and their families to engage in the spirit of Christmas giving.

The support of congregations and individuals across the conference remains a cornerstone of BCC's ability to provide positive family experiences for our program participants such as the innovative Christmas Store. I am thankful to each one of our donors, volunteers and groups for the many ways they engage with us and make these smiles and memories possible.

Thanks to all of you, BCC is making a difference in the lives of countless children, youth and families. We invite and encourage you to engage with us. Get started at boardofchildcare.org.

Boston University School of Theology

Greetings from Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH) as we travel together in this journey of discipleship!

BREAKING NEWS:

- Students: Our entering students were the most diverse in our history, creating remarkable opportunities for in-depth exchange and fruitful collaboration.
- Faculty: We welcomed three amazing faculty this year: Rebecca Copeland in Theology (focus on environmental theology); Theodore Hickman-Maynard in Black Church Studies; and Cornell William Brooks as Visiting Professor of Social Ethics, Law, and Justice Movements. Thanks to loyal alums, we also endowed the Harrell Beck Professorship in Hebrew Scripture and installed Kathe Darr as the first Beck Professor.
- Congregations: The Lilly Endowment awarded the Center for Practical Theology $1.5 million to create an innovation hub, which will foster creative vocational reflection in congregations, and a sharing of the congregations' wisdom.
- Doctor of Ministry: The DMin in Transformational Leadership is soaring with lively student cohorts that are broadly ecumenical, culturally diverse, and global. The model includes intensives, online courses, and faculty mentoring.
- Scholarships: We continue our offer of free tuition to UMC registered candidates for ordained ministry, and we continue to build student scholarships and housing as a central campaign priority. New scholarships include the Dale Andrews Scholarship in Practical Theology and Race; Korean Student scholarship; and the Bishop John H. Adams and Dr. Dolly D. Adams Scholarship for candidates for ordained ministry in the AME, AMEZ, and CME churches.
- Arts Initiatives: Recent exhibits and events include "Symbols and Art of China, Korea, and Japan" and "Bridging Divided Communities through the Arts"

PARTNERING FOR MINISTRY AND TRANSFORMATION: Preparing students for ministry means meaningful partnerships with the local spiritual community.

- Congregational courses: Courses in congregations with church leaders and students learning together.
- Religion and Conflict Transformation Clinic: Internships and workshops that foster justice and reconciliation.
- Travel seminars: Courses engaging local communities on Arizona-Mexican border,

Israel and Palestine, India, spiritual life centers, and Serbia and Croatia (with focus on interreligious dialogue).

- Ecumenical partnerships: Continuing close work with UMC, AME and other Wesleyan denominations, while launching robust Communities of Learning with the Episcopal Church and United Church of Christ.
- Partnership with Hebrew College: Joint courses and public events, plus co-sponsoring The Journal of Interreligious Studies. The focus is on enriching theological education with interreligious learning and leadership opportunities.

TAKING ACTION GLOBALLY AND LOCALLY:

- Campus action: Work to improve accessibility and sustainability. BUSTH is the first certified Green School in BU, and is active in the Green Seminary Initiative. It has also been named as one of the “Seminaries that Change the World.”
- Internships in global service and peacemaking: Student-initiated internships for service with communities across the world, and for just peacemaking projects with international organizations.

COMMITMENT TO JUSTICE: Celebrating differences while joining in action.

- Faculty and students have led and participated in service for victims of hurricanes and fires, protests on behalf of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, protests of white supremacist movements, protests and services on behalf of immigrants and DACA young people, and ecumenical and interreligious witnesses for justice in the city of Boston.
- The community (often student-led) has had deep conversations on issues that divide (including theological issues). We seek to foster respectful listening that builds community life and communal action.

OTHER NOTABLE NEWS: Celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Anna Howard Shaw Center.

As BUSTH looks back on 2017, it celebrates transformational leaders who keep the word of Jesus Christ alive. Their living legacy and perceptive witness gives us hope and courage for the future.

Candler School of Theology

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous Christian leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler has been included on a list of “Seminaries that Change the World” for five years running, and was recently named a “Bright Spot in Theological Education” by Auburn Seminary.

Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a demonstrated commitment to service. Our location in Atlanta provides a hands-on learning environment rich with opportunity: The General Board of Global Ministries is headquartered here, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Simply put, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, or social work. One of our newest degrees is a Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. Our Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they're enrolled — they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist Elder.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 455, reflecting 49 percent women, 35 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 30. Students represent 39 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family. 82 percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2017-2018, we awarded $5.3 million in Candler scholarships, with 97 percent of MDiv students receiving aid and the average scholarship covering 75 percent of tuition. Plus, our comprehensive "Faith & Finance" program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them — and the churches they lead — well into the future.

Half of Candler's faculty are United Methodist and 58% come from traditions within the larger Methodist family. This year, we welcomed fellow United Methodist Helen Jin Kim to the faculty as Assistant Professor of American Religious History, and we sent best wishes along with our colleague Mary Lou Greenwood Boice as she retired after 25 years of remarkable service to Candler.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

Gammon Theological Seminary

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, Ga., is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of historically African-American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of The United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Christian Education, and the Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women of the United Methodist Church.

The support of this Annual Conference helps Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition.

They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for The United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

Wesley Theological Seminary

Wesley Theological Seminary, located in Washington, D.C., continues to equip the next generation of Christian leadership for the church and the world. As a United Methodist seminary, we form students to lead innovative ministries while remaining grounded in our biblical and theological traditions.

Whether you are clergy or laity, an alumnus or a prospective student, looking for master's or doctoral work or continuing education or simply deeper biblical knowledge, Wesley wants to support you in your current and future call to ministry. Here are a few ways Wesley can help you grow in faith, wisdom, and ability.

Expand your leadership skills

Wesley's internationally respected Lewis Center for Church Leadership is a key resource for cutting-edge church research and disciple-growing strategies for the local church. Under the directorship of the Rev. Dr. F. Douglas Powe, Jr., the Lewis Center's Leading Ideas e-newsletter, reaching almost 20,000 people in ministry each week, has launched its new podcast – Leading Ideas Talk. Sign up or listen at www.churchleadership.com/

The Institute for Community Engagement at Wesley continues its innovative online Health Minister Certificate Program from Heal the Sick to prepare congregations for public health work in their parishes. Some scholarships are available for this program. Contact Tom Pruski at tpruski@wesleyseminary.edu for more information or to register for future certificate classes.

Wesley also offers opportunities for individual study without pursuing a degree. The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse through graduate courses. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/fpli.

A Certificate in Wesleyan Studies is available online via the Wesley Theological Seminary Lay Academy. Topics include United Methodist identity, early church history, Christian ethics, interfaith relations, and the intersection of faith and science. The courses can also be taken for personal education and enrichment. More information can be found at www.beadisciple.com/wesley/.

Take your ministry to the next level

Wesley continues to be a leader in Doctor of Ministry programs, offering practical and spiritually renewing tracks in theological education. Wesley announces an exciting new 2019 Doctor of Ministry track, in partnership with Wesley House in Cambridge, UK: "Winds of the Spirit and Ministries for a Changing World." Other 2019 tracks will include Church Excellence, Spirituality and Story, a 13th Global Asian Church track and Public Engagement: Healing Communal Brokenness and Despair. Find out more or apply at www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/.

Discover exciting pathways to seminary studies

Wesley understands the struggle of responsibly accepting your call while being concerned about balancing life, family, ministry and student debt. We are here to help make responding to that call possible. Through our partnership with Shenandoah University and our new 3+3 Fast Track B.A./M. Div. program, students enter ministry with less debt after earning their degree in 6 years. Learn more at www.wesleyseminary.edu/3+3degrees.

Wesley's Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in 5 years. This format is designed to be more accessible to those with busy ministry, work, and/or family commitments throughout the region. Check out upcoming flexible course offerings for summer and fall 2018 at <http://www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3/>

The new African American Church Studies Master of Divinity specialization gives contextual preparation for the unique opportunities and challenges our future leaders may encounter in African American churches, while the Public Theology specialization allows master's degree students to gain skills for community leadership and advocacy. Wesley continues to offer our 36-hour Master of Arts and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies to equip those called to ordained deacon ministries or to other ministries beyond the pulpit.

Contact us at (202) 885-8659 or admissions@wesleyseminary.edu about how Wesley's degree programs can equip you for your next step in ministry.

Enrich your congregational outreach and explore new dimensions of ministry

Through the Wesley Innovation Hub, Wesley is working with 20 local congregations to design innovative ministries to enrich the religious lives of young adults. Follow the work and connect with resources at www.wesleyseminary.edu/wesley-innovation-hub/. The Wesley Innovation Hub is made possible by a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment.

In a time of polarization, the Center for Public Theology, under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology Mike McCurry, continues to equip pastors, seminarians, people of faith, and the media to create spaces for civil dialogue at the intersection of religion and politics. The Center also provides events, such as the Wesleyan Political Theology Project, to help faith leaders lead prophetic, open dialogue in their communities. For more information, visit <http://www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/>.

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion remains the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The Luce Center offers regular classes and workshops with visiting artists. For information on past and upcoming opportunities visit www.luceartsandreligion.org.

Stay connected

Ready to join in our mission? Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to our students, thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations and friends of the seminary. Find out more about how you can be part of the future of Wesley at www.wesleyseminary.edu/support/.

We invite you to stay in touch through the year and learn more of the latest developments at Wesley by signing up for our monthly electronic newsletter, eCalling, at www.wesleyseminary.edu/ecalling.

We look forward to continuing to serve you and your community as we seek to live into God's dream together. Blessings to you for a fruitful and faithful Annual Conference.

That the Annual Conference shall approve the following funding plans based on the receipt of a favorable opinion from Wespath Benefits and Investments in compliance with the Disciplinary requirement listed in ¶1506.6.

Funded status and contributions are based on actuarial valuations as of January 1, 2017,

Pre-82 Plan: By General Conference mandate, Pre-82 liabilities are to be fully funded by December 31, 2021. Baltimore-Washington Conference is already fully funded, with its assets with the Pre-82 Plan equal 140% of its liabilities.

Corridor Funding: Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) and Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities. The funded Ratio for this funding is the same for all Conferences

| Plan | Assets | Liabilities | Funded Ratio |
|---------------|---------------|--------------------|---------------------|
| CRSP-DB | $1.701 | $1.588 | 107.1% |
| MPP Annuities | $3.701 | $3.533 | 104.8% |

Post-Retirement Medical: Based on an interim actuarial report received in March 2017, the Post-Retirement Medical plan is reported to have a funding ratio of 92.2%. The ongoing view increases the funding ratio to 122.3%. (UPDATE AVAILABLE IN EARLY APRIL 2018)

The funding plan as of December 31, 2017 is summarized below.

That the following resolution, as required for IRS compliance, shall be approved:

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Baltimore-Washington Conference

The Baltimore-Washington Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the Discipline), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), during the years 2018-2019 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, retired or disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergy person to perform services related to the ministry of the Church or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergy person's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

Board of Trustees Resolution

Title: Unrestricted Bequest Received by Conference Board of Trustees

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: Receipt of unrestricted bequests by the Conference Board of Trustees require Annual Conference approval for the designation of any expenditures.

Submitted by: Conference Board of Trustees

RESOLUTION: Whereas, the Conference Board of Trustees received an unrestricted bequest from the Glassman Estate in the amount of $546,000;

Be it resolved, that through the administrative responsibilities of the Conference Board of Trustees, the Glassman Bequest be designated by the Baltimore-Washington Conference for the following support:

New faith expressions and resources to help identify, teach, and deploy those who can plant and lead them,

Clergy taking sabbaticals and leaves for self-care and holistic well-being, and Facility upgrades at the Conference Archives located at Lovely Lane United Methodist Church in Baltimore.

Policy to be Used Upon the Death of a Clergy person While Serving as the Appointed Pastor of a Local Church

This is the revised text of the resolution first submitted to the 2016 Annual Conference Session.

Submitted By: Rev. Deborah L. Scott, Calvary UMC, Mt. Airy, MD

Rev. Sarah A. Schliekert, Melville Chapel UMC, Elkridge, MD

Resolution: Whereas, the death of a pastor actively serving an appointment is a tragic and grievous event, and

Whereas, decisions made in times of shock and intense grief are difficult and sometimes made based on emotions; and

Whereas, specific written policies can provide much needed direction and guidance for members of the pastor's family, the local church, and the District Superintendent,

Be it, therefore, resolved that the BWC cabinet, in consultation with the Conference's Board of Trustees, the Conference Council on Finance & Administration (CF&A), the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Conference Chancellor, and the makers of this motion, shall create, on or before Aug. 30, 2017, a best practices checklist for use by local churches and the Conference upon the death of a pastor appointed to serve a local church; and

Be it further resolved that this Best Practices Checklist shall be posted on the BWC website; and

Be it further resolved that the BWC shall adopt the following policies to be followed upon the death of a pastor appointed to serve a local church:

1. As soon as possible after the death of pastor appointed to a local church, the District Superintendent shall be notified, and he or she shall then immediately notify the Bishop. Notification of the District Superintendent shall be the responsibility of (a) each other clergy person (if any) serving the same local church under appointment by the Bishop, or (b) if no other clergy person is under appointment to that local church, by the Chair of the Staff Parish Relations Committee ("SPRC") of the local church.
2. Also soon as possible after the death of pastor appointed to a local church, the Chairs of the SPRC and Board of Trustees for that local church shall secure the pastor's office in the local church (with possible office lock change), and shall further identify and secure any and all of the pastor's files, documents, and belongings of any description, including electronic devices (such as, without limitation, mobile phones, computers, iPads or other tablets, and thumb drives, disks or other electronic storage devices) that may be located elsewhere on the church premises, for subsequent review and delivery to the appropriate persons. The same persons will undertake to identify and retrieve any church records and other church property that the pastor may have kept in his or her home (whether a parsonage or otherwise), with care being exercised to involve and obtain any necessary consents from the pastor's surviving family members or other persons who may occupy the same premises.
3. As soon as practical, but not more than 10 days after notification of the pastor's death, the District Superintendent (or his or her designee, who must be an Elder in Full Connection), together with the Chair of the local church's Board of Trustees (or his or her designee, who must be a local church trustee or a member of the local church's SPRC or Finance Committee), shall review the contents of the Pastor's office, along with the files, documents, devices and belongings that have been gathered from other locations in the church building(s) pursuant to ¶ 2, above, and determine which files, documents, devices and belongings constitute records or other property of the local church, and which files, documents, devices and belongings constitute the property of the pastor. To preserve the confidentiality of any privileged communications, the contents of any files or devices that are reasonably likely to contain such communications (e.g., files relating to particular parishioners, pastoral counseling records) shall for purposes of this process be reviewed solely by the District Superintendent or his or her designated Elder in Full Connection, and then only to the extent necessary to determine whether the material constitutes the property of the local church or of the pastor. All files, documents, devices and belongings that the District Superintendent and the Chair of the local church's Board of Trustees (or their designees) agree are records or other property of the local church shall be retained for safekeeping by the Chair of the local church's Trustees (or his or her designee). All files, documents, devices and belongings that the District Superintendent and the Chair of the local church's Board of Trustees (or their designees) agree are not records or other property of the local church, but belonged to the pastor, shall be provided to the District Superintendent and retained by him or her for safekeeping, pending transmission, as appropriate, to the pastor's family, to the successor pastor appointed to serve that local church, to the files the Conference maintains on clergy members, or otherwise. All local church financial records, in whatever form, shall remain in the possession of the local church, but an inventory of all such records shall be made under the supervision of the District Superintendent and the Chair of the local church's Board of Trustees (or their designees), and copies of such records shall be provided to the District Superintendent upon request.

4. The Conference, through the personnel identified below, shall take the following steps:
 - a. The District Superintendent, in consultation with the Bishop, the Cabinet and the SPRC, shall arrange full pastoral coverage at existing level for the local church until an interim pastor is appointed.
 - b. The District Superintendent, in consultation with the Conference's Executive Minister of Call and Clergy Care and the Chair of the SPRC, shall provide or ensure support for grief and transition issues for the local church congregation, the pastor's family, and the newly appointed pastor.
 - c. In the process of providing near-term pastoral coverage and appointing a new pastor to the local church, the Cabinet will identify whether the deceased pastor's family is living in a church-owned parsonage and/or may need assistance with relocation, and otherwise take into account the needs of the deceased pastor's family but also the best interests of the congregation and newly appointed pastor.
 - d. Pay the moving expenses for the surviving spouse/family, on par with those allowed for pastors under existing conference moving policies, provided the surviving spouse/family is living in the church owned parsonage and the parsonage is needed for the use of the local church's new pastor;
 - e. The District Superintendent, with support from the Conference's Director of Human Resources & Benefits, shall inform the surviving spouse/family about all benefits to which they are entitled.
5. In connection with Item # 4(c), above, it is the sense of the annual conference that, whenever possible, all reasonable efforts and arrangements should be made to allow the surviving spouse/family to remain in the parsonage or continue to pay a housing allowance for up to 120 days after the pastor's death.

Proposed Baltimore-Washington Conference Mission Statement

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: This proposed Mission Statement will bring greater alignment between the mission statements of the global United Methodist Church, the Baltimore Washington Conference, and local United Methodist faith communities. It also emphasizes and clarifies the Conference's main purpose, which is to support and equip local faith communities. This simple, clear statement will guide and focus the work of the Conference, particularly in relation to local faith communities.

Submitted by: Bonnie Scott and Jen Ihlo, Chair, on behalf of BWC Discipleship Council

Resolution: Adopt the following as the BWC Mission Statement:

"To inspire and equip local faith communities to develop disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Effective Date: July 1, 2018

Resolution to Amend the Moving Policy

Budget Implications: $30-40,000 (estimated by Paul Eichelberger). Included in our current budget of $160,000, we already fund a tax liability allowance for pastors whose moves are less than 50 miles.

Rationale: The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act passed by Congress in December 2017 eliminates the exclusion for qualified moving expense reimbursements. Moving expenses covered by the conference are now considered taxable income. This resolution provides a tax liability allowance to all pastors who receive a move covered by this policy.

Submitted by: Rev. Jeffrey Paulson, Chair, Conference Moving Committee

Resolution: Be it resolved: That the Annual Conference approves the following change to the Moving Policy:

¶5500. Moving Committee.—

6. Due to the tax liability incurred by covered moving costs moves of less than 50 miles, active pastors whose expenses are covered under this policy who will move less than 50 miles shall be provided with a tax liability allowance equal to 30% of the Conference financial liability for the move.

Finding Our Way Forward

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: To develop a covenant for conversations as we work to anticipate and receive The Way Forward Report and Decision from the Council on Bishops and the Special Session of General Conference in February 2019

Submitted By: Rev. Debbie Scott and Rev. Angela Flanagan, Co-Chair Advocacy Committee
BWARMB

Resolution:

Whereas, the Council of Bishops has proposed the following Mission for the Commission on the Way Forward:

Mission

The Commission will bring together persons deeply committed to the future(s) of The United Methodist Church, with an openness to developing new relationships with each other and exploring the potential future(s) of our denomination in light of General Conference and subsequent annual, jurisdictional and central conference actions. We have a profound hope and confidence in the Triune God, and yet we acknowledge that we do this work in a climate of skepticism and distrust from a human point of view. We are a connection, and we admit that our communion is strained; yet much transformative mission across our world is the fruit of our collaboration. The matters of human sexuality and unity are the presenting issues for a deeper conversation that surfaces different ways of interpreting Scripture and theological tradition. The work is meant to inform deliberation across the whole church and to help the Council of Bishops in their service to the next General Conference in finding a way forward.

Whereas, the Council of Bishops has proposed the following Vision for the Commission on the Way Forward:

Vision

The Commission will design a way for being church that maximizes the presence of a United Methodist witness in as many places in the world as possible, that allows for as much contextual differentiation as possible, and that balances an approach to different theological understandings of human sexuality with a desire for as much unity as possible. This unity will not be grounded in our conceptions of human sexuality, but in our affirmation of the Triune God who calls us to be a grace-filled and holy people in the Wesleyan tradition.

Whereas, the Council of Bishops has proposed the following Scope of the work of the Commission on the Way Forward:

Scope

We should be open to new ways of embodying unity that move us beyond where we are in the present impasse and cycle of action and reaction around ministry and human sexuality. Therefore, we should consider new ways of being in relationship across cultures and jurisdictions, in understandings of episcopacy, in contextual definitions of autonomy for annual conferences, and in the design and purpose of the apportionment. In reflection on the two matters of unity and human sexuality, we will fulfill our directive by considering “new forms and structures” of relationship and through the “complete examination and possible revision” of relevant paragraphs in the Book of Discipline. We will give consideration to greater freedom and flexibility to a future United Methodist Church that will redefine our present connectionality, which is showing signs of brokenness. If we ignore this work, fracturing will occur in more haphazard and even self-interested ways across the church. If we do this work only to address our preferences and self-interest, we will fail to place our complete trust in God’s steadfast love and faithfulness. If we do this work with complete surrender to God’s unlimited imagination and kingdom purposes, we will be blessed beyond our limited human imagination. God remains God; God is with us; God will never let us go. To God be the glory!

Therefore, be it resolved that the Baltimore Washington Conference adopt the Accountability Covenant (slightly adapted) below, proposed for the Commission for the Way Forward for our own work together as the Conference and in our local churches as we work through the proposals of the Commission and any adopted proposal by the Special Session of the General Conference of Feb. 2019.

Accountability Covenant

We covenant to pray for one another, for the Commission, for the United Methodist Church, for the mission of Christ, and for a way forward together.

We covenant to attend all meetings concerning The Way Forward, unless unexpected urgencies prevent us, to prepare adequately for meetings by reading assigned books or papers, to stay engaged and focused, to participate actively in learning experiences and conversations, and to follow through with any assignments or projects that we agree to accept. We will offer our best and highest to the work of The United Methodist Church as servants of Christ and leaders of the church.

We covenant to treat one another with respect, to assume the best in others, to represent one another in the best possible light, to speak the truth with love, and to practice and expect trustworthiness. We will each do our part to offer grace, to create an atmosphere of hospitality, and to moderate our anxiety through mutual encouragement, good humor, and with genuine love for one another.

We covenant to listen actively to others, to seek first to understand rather than to be understood, to ask for clarity or help from others, to remain attentive to cultural, language, and contextual diversity, to be patient with one another, and to foster hopefulness and mutual encouragement.

We covenant to maintain strict confidentiality, and so we will avoid inappropriate sharing of personal information, stories, or perspectives of other members without their consent.

We covenant to avoid harmful speech toward or about others, during our meetings and outside our meetings. We will refrain from blaming others, misrepresenting others, making judgments about others, or using derogatory speech about others or the Commission.

We covenant to avoid the practices of interrupting others, ignoring others, discounting others, speaking for others, or exhibiting dominating or domineering behavior. We shall practice self-monitoring, gently holding one another accountable for divisive or hurtful behaviors.

We covenant to avoid dividing into factions, politicizing our processes, and retreating into camps and silos based on ideology or regional affinities. We will intentionally seek to cultivate deeper relationships with those we do not know rather than merely spend time with those we already know.

We covenant to restrain ourselves from distracting behaviors during our meeting sessions so that we may remain attentive to one another and to our work. We will refrain from checking emails, reading online news, and otherwise letting ourselves become distracted for outside obligations.

We covenant to abide by the agreed-upon protocols for sharing news, information, or photos on social media.

Be it further resolved, If conversations have not begun in local churches, they should begin now, this is part of our responsibility as pastors and lay leadership. Superintendents will receive summaries of those conversations at the Fall 2018 Charge Conferences. Addressing the final adopted proposal with our local congregations will also be required. We will report those conversations and work at our Charge Conferences in the Fall of 2019.

A Fully Inclusive UMC

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: Living in the hope of a fully inclusive United Methodist Church as we Find Our Way Forward

Submitted By: Rev. Debbie Scott and Rev. Angela Flanagan, Co-Chair Advocacy Committee BWARM

Resolution:

Whereas the Commission of the Way Forward shared sketches of three models, with the awareness that the Commission and the Council Of Bishops are not restricted to these sketches and are open to learning, listening and improvement. It is likely that additional models or sketches may emerge as this process continues. Here is the summary about the sketches of the models presented to the bishops:

One sketch of a model affirms the current Book of Discipline language and places a high value on accountability.

Another sketch of a model removes restrictive language and places a high value on contextualization. This sketch also specifically protects the rights of those whose conscience will not allow them to perform same gender weddings or ordain LGBTQ persons.

A third sketch of a model is grounded in a unified core that includes shared doctrine and services and one COB, while also creating different branches that have clearly defined values such as accountability, contextualization and justice.

Each sketch represents values that are within the COB and across the church.

Each sketch includes gracious way of exit for those who feel called to exit from the denomination.

Be it Resolved, that the Baltimore Annual Conference would welcome and encourage the adoption of a proposal by the Special Session of the General Conference in Feb. 2019 that would allow for the full inclusion of persons of all gender identities and sexual orientations when it comes to matters of, but not limited to, marriage, performing marriages and ordination.

Resolution to Close the Centre Street United Methodist Church, Cumberland, MD

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: Local Church voluntarily transfers title to Conference Trustees

Submitted By: Rev. Conrad O. Link, Cumberland-Hagerstown District Superintendent

Resolution:

Whereas, in the Cumberland-Hagerstown District, the congregation of Centre Street United Methodist Church on the Centre Street UMC Charge, located at 217 N. Centre St, Cumberland, MD 21502, has served God faithfully through the United Methodist Church for many years, and;

Whereas, in recent years the congregation has experienced a decline in membership and financial stewardship, and it is no longer feasible to keep it open and operational as a church, and

Whereas, during a Church Conference on April 22, 2018 and a Church Council Meeting on May 8, 2018, between sessions of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, the leaders of Centre Street United Methodist Church voted to voluntarily transfer title to all its real and personal, tangible and intangible property to the Conference Board of Trustees following procedures set forth in paragraphs 2540 and 2541 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2016);

Be it resolved, that the Baltimore-Washington Conference does hereby declare Centre Street United Methodist Church closed as of June 30, 2018, and

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Trustees are authorized to take possession of the real and personal, tangible and intangible property of Centre Street United Methodist Church and to make a determination of how the property may best be used for the Kingdom of God.

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP

“...The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.” Ephesians 4:2-8; 11-13 (NRSV)

In an effort to honor these gifts and our diversity, we seek to engage all in building up the body of Christ. The Conference Commission on Nominations seeks¹ to have regional, racial, gender, age and lay/clergy inclusiveness in all committees, commissions, boards and agencies (hereinafter “agencies”) and chairpersons. This includes working toward having 20-30% of all agencies comprised of persons under 40.

We recommend that agencies identify their meeting dates for the year no later than September 1 of the current year. Care should be given to scheduling meetings at times when most laity are available to increase lay participation. If a member of an agency is absent from two consecutive meetings without an acceptable reason, that person shall cease to be a member.

The terms of office for a particular agency are as follows per Book of Discipline (hereinafter “BOD”) and Baltimore-Washington Conference (hereinafter “BWC”) policies:

1. The quadrennial system is an established part of The United Methodist structure. All members of agencies shall be elected for a quadrennial unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Tenure Limitation is still to be observed.
 - a. All quadrennial terms shall commence on July 1 following the adjournment of the first Annual Conference (hereinafter “AC”) session following General Conference, except the Conference Treasurer, whose term shall begin on January 1 of the following year.
 - b. When persons are elected quadrennially, they serve a maximum of two terms, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry members which may serve a maximum of 3 terms (BOD, ¶635.a).
2. All other terms shall commence on July 1 following the AC Session in which persons are elected or announcement of election is made.

Each agency member’s name is followed by numbers in parentheses and letters:

1. Numbers indicate when a term is up and how many terms have been served on³ that particular agency.
 - a. Quadrennial terms have one number that represents how many quadrennium a person has served; e.g., (1)-elected quadrennially and in first quadrennium; (2)-elected quadrennially and in second quadrennium.
 - b. Other terms have two numbers: “when the term expires”-“how many terms served”; e.g., (18-1)³ means term expires in 2018³ and person is serving in the first term, (18-2)³ means term expires in 2018³ and the person serving is in their second term.
2. Letters indicate the region in which a member’s church is located:
 - a. BA-Baltimore, SO-Southern, WA-Washington, WS-Western
 - b. Agency members are urged to immediately contact the chairperson of the agency to which they have been elected, if they are appointed to or transfer membership to a church outside the region identified, in order to allow replacement by a regional representative.
3. Chair of each Committee is designated by an * before their name.

VII. MEMOIRS

CLERGY

LEANDER ANSKE | 1934-2016

Leander H. Anske was born Aug. 31, 1934, to Doryth Montgomery and Lt. Col. Leander H. Anske Sr. in Jacksonville, Fla. He lived in North Carolina, Texas and California before settling in Maryland.

He served Morgan Chapel Charge in Woodbine as senior pastor from 1999-2001; Flohrville UMC in Sykesville, 2000-2001; followed by two years at the Salem Charge in Hebbville. He retired in 2003.

At 17, he joined the US Coast Guard when his mother forbade him to follow his stepfather, Captain “Monty” Montgomery, into the US Marines. Montgomery became an MIA. Anske retired after 33 years in the Department of Defense.

He then attended Wesley Theological Seminary and became the pastor of several small churches. He also served on many Emmaus retreats as the spiritual director.

Anske became well known as a master woodcarver, studying at a school in Germany. After teaching himself to hand make nutcrackers, he, “The Yankee Chipper”, demonstrated them at the Smithsonian Institute for many years, at which time he donated that year’s model. Many churches have statues and plaques he carved, serving to memorialize him.

He was also an avid radio-controlled airplane hobbyist.

He often “farewelled” someone by saying, “My boss is your co-pilot; make sure you get him home safely for me.”

He was preceded in death by his wife of 53 years, Lois Anske.

Survivors include his wife June, and children: Lee Anske III, Cheryl Harding, Steven Anske, Len Williams Anske and their spouses, 11 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Pastor Leander H. “Lee” Anske, 82, a retired local pastor, died Oct. 28, 2016. A memorial service was held Nov. 4 at the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church in Fairfield, Pa.

MARION J.G. BOWMAN | 1935-2017

Marion J.G. Bowman was born Dec. 5, 1935, to Marion and Douglass Bowman Sr. in Baltimore. As a young child, she accepted Christ and was baptized at Mt. Olivet Christian Church. She attended public school in Baltimore, Harrisonburg, Va., and Martinsburg, W. Va. She graduated from Bennett College at the age of 19.

Bowman was a public school teacher and later a policewoman in Baltimore, then found her niche as a social worker. She received her Masters of Social Work from Howard University in 1966. After feeling her call to preach many years later, she received a Masters of Divinity and a Masters in Theology from Princeton Seminary. Bowman was ordained in 1994.

She served Asbury-John Wesley UMC in Germantown 1992-1994, and Union Street UMC in Westminster, 1994-1996, at which time she went on Extension Ministry. Her ministry was to fulfill a vision of ministry at the Barden/Bowman School of Excellence Inc. and Isaac Ministry of Joy that functioned under it. She retired in 1998.

She was preceded in death by her son Fred W. Green Jr.

Survivors include her sons, D'Monroe of Reseda, Cal., and Jay Bowman and wife Sharon. Also surviving are two grandchildren, three step-grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The Rev. Marion J.G. Bowman, formerly known as Jackie Collins, died July 22, 2017. A funeral service was held Aug. 1 at Locust UMC in Columbia with the Rev. Jane Wood officiating. Burial was at Arbutus Memorial Park.

CALVIN P. CROSSON | 1921-2017

Calvin Percy Crosson was born in Clinton, S.C., May 25, 1921, and received his elementary and high school education in Greenville, S.C. He received the B.A. Degree from Howard University and a Bachelor of Divinity from Howard University Divinity School in 1961. He was awarded an honorary Doctorate of Divinity from Virginia Seminary in June 1984.

During 34 years of ministerial service, he began ministry in the Baltimore-Washington Area in 1947, as a local preacher in the old Washington Annual Conference at Grace UMC in Fairmount Heights. He also pastored Eastern UMC in Baltimore (1956-1966); Mt. Zion UMC in Washington (Georgetown), 1966-1969; Jones Memorial UMC in Baltimore, (1969-1976); Howard Park (1976-1978); and John Wesley UMC in Baltimore, (1978-1990). During the 12 years there, he raised the level of stewardship tremendously, fundraising was cut out and tithing was emphasized, and he began a multi-million dollar renovation program.

He retired in 1990 and became Minister of Spiritual Life and Development at Hills Memorial Church and Minister of Evangelism at Asbury UMC in Washington, D.C.

During his ministry, he also served on conference and district committees. These included: Board of Evangelism and the Urban Work Committee in the mid-60s; Camps and Statisticians Committee, 1966–1972; Committee on Work and Administration from 1970–1974; the Board of Trustees, N.M. Carroll Home, Board of Ordained Ministry, Conference Relations Committee and the Joint Review Committee. He was a Supervising Elder from 1980 to 1984.

He and his wife Bessie married in 1976 and she worked with him as a devoted and faithful team member until her death in 2008. He often said, “My life would be a mess if it wasn’t for Bess.”

Crosson was an avid traveler, traveling around the world. His most meaningful and noteworthy trip was to the Holy Land, where he walked Mt. Sinai and preached at the Garden of Gethsemane.

Survivors include his children: Delores Jones, William Clark Jr. and Carol Clark-White, seven grandchildren and 16 great- grandchildren.

The Rev. Calvin P. Crosson, 96, died July 4, 2017, at Asbury Village in Gaithersburg. A Celebration of Life Service was held July 13 at Goshen UMC, officiated by the Rev. Eric W. King.

JAMES W. DIGGS | 1934 - 2018

James Diggs was born Aug. 17, 1934, in Washington D.C., the son of the late George and Aleathia Brown of Calvert County, Md. He attended school in the Calvert County School system.

He served his country in the Vietnam War in the U. S. Air Force. After discharge, he continued his government service as a civil servant for the Federal Government for more than 30 years and retired from Fort Meade

Army Base in Maryland.

He and Frances Adele Diggs were married in 1987. They had four children who survive.

As he neared retirement, Diggs acknowledged his call into the Gospel Ministry. He obtained his college and seminary degrees and became an Ordained Minister in The United Methodist Church. He pastored Bethesda UMC in Valley Lee, Mount Calvary UMC in Charlotte Hall; and Shiloh UMC in Newburg. Preaching and being a pastor and daily serving the Lord was a great joy for him.

After serving more than 11 years at Shiloh, Diggs retired and united with First Missionary Baptist Church of Lexington Park. He remained faithful until his health began to fail in 2013.

He served as a leader of the Boy Scouts in Lusby. He and his wife enjoyed traveling and attending gospel programs. He loved to sing and was a member of the Gospel Group, "The Zion Methodist Men." He also enjoyed time with his family, eating and watching sports.

Survivors include his wife; daughters Janet Velveta and Velma and their husbands; sons Wayne, Jamie and his wife; stepdaughters Barbara Curtis and Marsha McManus; stepson Lionele Curtis; 15 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren; and one great-great grandchild.

The Rev. James W. Diggs, a retired Associate Member, died March 6, 2018, at Medstar St. Mary's Hospice in Callaway. A funeral service was held March 19 at the First Missionary Baptist Church in Lexington Park.

DENNIS EDWARD DORSCH | 1944-2018

Dennis Edward Dorsch was born Aug. 2, 1944, in Baltimore City, the only child of Rebecca Tormolian and Baldwin Edward Dorsch. He attended Poly and Catonsville High School and Western Maryland College. He also studied at Johns Hopkins University.

For seven year he was the assistant to the comptroller of the Johns Hopkins Hospital and then comptroller of Kent & Queen Anne's Hospital.

He and the late Roberta Funk Dorsch married in 1969; she died in January 2016. They had one daughter.

In 1971, he answered God's call to ordained ministry and entered Wesley Theological Seminary. He began his ministry at St. John's of Hamilton UMC, where he served 1973-1978. From 1978 to 1990, he was appointed to Ellerslie UMC where he successfully merged two congregations. Wherever he served he was immersed in the local community. For four years, 1990-94, he was the senior pastor for the East Cumberland Parish, with eight churches, and three other pastors. He moved to Accokeek in 1994 where he served until he retired in 2008. There, he worked tirelessly with families in need, organizing a community food pantry, a Thrift Shop and other responses to the hungry and homeless.

Throughout his life Dorsch felt strongly about mentoring youth. Since beginning his service as a pastor, he identified and mentored 44 individuals through their call to be clergy.

As a young man, he was active in his local Boy Scout troop and on its regional committees. He was active in Sunday School and also worked on the Baltimore-Washington Conference Annual Meeting Planning Committee. That experience led to him writing speeches for both Baltimore Mayor Theodore McKeldin and President Lyndon B. Johnson who were attending the conference.

After retirement, he and his wife moved back to Catonsville where he was a tireless advocate for justice and inclusion. Shortly before his death, he participated in the March for Our Lives against gun violence in Washington and a Lobby Day rally in Annapolis for Health Care for the Homeless. He was also a docent at Lovely Lane UMC.

His hobbies included stamp collecting and participating in Sherlock Holmes groups. He didn't miss an opening day for the Baltimore Orioles since 1954.

Survivors include his daughter Brenda Dorsch.

The Rev. Dennis E. Dorsch, a retired Elder, died March 3, 2018. A Memorial service was held April 28 at Catonsville, officiated by the Rev. Mark Waddell.

ROBY HAROLD EASTRIDGE | 1925-2018

Roby Harold Eastridge was born Feb. 17, 1925, in Teas, Virginia. He was a graduate of the University of Tennessee with a B.S. in Business Administration.

He joined the U.S. Air Force in 1943 and was a member of the 20th Air Force, 13th Fighter Command on Iwo Jima, Okinawa, Luzon and the Philippines until his discharge in February 1946. His military rank was Staff Sargent – Squadron Sergeant Major. He then joined the United States Reserves from 1948-1952.

He and Katherine Nell Barnes married in 1953 and had two sons, who survive.

After college, he worked at the Sperry Farragut Company in Bristol, Tenn., as a Supervisor from 1952-1956, then moved to Maryland to follow his calling into ministry. He received his M.Div. from Wesley Theological Seminary in 1961.

He spent 31 years as pastor of: Urbana UMC during seminary (1958-1961); Walkersville-Lewistown Charge (1962-1964); Lexington Park UMC (1964-1968); Brooklyn Heights UMC (1968-1969); Howard Park UMC (1969-1975); Trinity UMC (1975-1977) and First UMC in Laurel (1977-89), from which he retired and the Eastridges moved to Johnson City, Tenn. There he served on the staff at Munsey Memorial UMC for two years (1989-90).

Survivors include his wife of 65 years; two sons, Jeffrey Eastridge and Jonathan Eastridge of Ellicott City; and a granddaughter.

EMMANUEL M. GITLIN | 1922-2017

Emmanuel M. Gitlin was born Nov. 9, 1922, in Zdolunow, Poland (now in the Ukraine), the son of the late Moses H. Gitlin and Clara S. Pikman Gitlin. He completed his secondary education in Great Britain, and attended Columbia Bible College, Texas Christian University and Duke University, where he received his M. Div. in 1946 and a PhD in 1953. He was ordained in the Minnesota Conference in 1951.

From 1950 to 1957, he served several Methodist churches in Minnesota, Missouri and North Carolina. An avid reader all his life, he continued to accumulate degrees from various universities and held teaching appointments under Methodist Bishops at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1953-1957; Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, 1947-1961; Bethune-Cookman College, Daytona Beach, Fla., 1961-63; University of Florida, Gainesville, Fla., 1963-67.

From 1968 to 1990, he was a professor of religion both in the United States and internationally, but spent most of it at Lenoir Rhyne University, under the Lutheran Synod, where he retired in 1991. He withdrew from the Baltimore Conference in 1968 and was reinstated to the conference in 1991. Following retirement, he did missionary work in Croatia and Poland, where his father founded the Radisti Seminary. He spoke eight languages and served as a lecturer for Lutheran and Baptist seminary programs in Russia in the Russian language.

“Dr. Gitlin was a tireless servant for God whom he knew from all angles,” commented Kenneth Harmon, one of his students, in a memorial note. “He taught religion and he did missionary work, but I’ll always remember that in Dr. Gitlin’s wonderfully cluttered office was some kind of short-wave or ham radio. He used it to communicate with oppressed people around the world, to pray with them and share the Good News.”

He was preceded in death by his wives, Ethel Barlow and Helen Edmiston Gitlin who died in 2008.

Survivors include his wife, Lidiya Dubchak; daughter, Sharon Jane Gitlin of Raleigh, NC; son, David Ernest Gitlin and wife of Tallahassee, Fla; step-sons: Elijah Dubchak of Charlotte, N.C., Vladimir Dubchak of Hickory, N.C., and their wives; three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and five step-grandchildren.

Rev. Emmanuel M. Gitlin of Hickory, N.C., died June 13, 2017. He had served in the Baltimore-Washington Conference for a short time, left in 1968 and spent most of his ministerial career in extension ministries as a professor and missionary. His funeral service was held June 17, at St. Andrews Lutheran Church in Hickory, officiated by the Rev. Richard Fritz and Rabbi Dennis Jones.

CLIFFORD L. HARRISON | 1927-2018

Clifford L. Harrison was born in Newburgh, N.Y., Sept. 16, 1927. He was raised in Ridgewood, N.J. and after graduating from Ridgewood High School, attended Drew University for one year, but withdrew in 1945 to enlist in the Army Air Corps. He served as a control tower operator in Japan.

He was discharged in 1947 and enrolled in Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., where he met his future bride, Dorothy “Dottie” Lilja. They married in 1952.

He graduated with a B.A. in history in 1951. After a few years as a probation officer, Harrison graduated from Wesley Theological Seminary in 1965. He earned a Doctor of Ministry degree from Lancaster Theological Seminary in 1979.

During his career as a United Methodist minister, he served Parkwood in Edgewater (1963-67); West Liberty UMC in Baltimore County (1967-70); Emanuel UMC in Catonsville (1970-79); Glenelg UMC (1979-87); and Concord-St. Andrews UMC (1987-93), when he retired. His interest in bereavement led him to do work as a part-time chaplain at Howard County General Hospital and with Hospice of Howard County.

After he and his wife moved to Crumland Farms in 2002, he started a support group for caregivers of those with Alzheimer’s disease and other dementias. He also started a retired clergy support group.

Harrison will be remembered for his compassion, sense of humor and his love of music, art and nature. He was a devoted Baltimore Orioles fan.

Survivors include his wife Dorothy L. Harrison; two sons, Slim Harrison of Emmitsburg and David Harrison of Boston, and their wives; daughters, Joyce Walsh of Lawrence, Kansas, and Judy Johnson of Columbia, and their husbands; three grandchildren, two step-grandchildren, a great granddaughter; and a brother.

The Rev. Clifford L. Harrison died Feb. 11, 2018, at Homewood at Crumland Farms in Frederick. A funeral service was held there March 10, officiated by the Revs. Barbara Kerhner Daniel and Suzanne Morris.

KENNETH S. JONES | 1919-2017

Kenneth Jones was born in Glen Rock, New Jersey, Aug. 17, 1919, the second son of Howard Kenneth Jones and Bessie Belle Applegate Jones. His family moved to Baltimore when he was young. He graduated from Baltimore City College.

Jones started his career as a reporter for The Baltimore Sun newspaper in 1937. He also worked as a Program Director with radio station WITH.

He was featured in a LIFE Magazine story in 1938 as a typical American urban youth, and was drafted into the Army in 1942, where he was part of the team that liberated the town of Pilsen in Czechoslovakia.

After discharge, he completed a college degree at American University; during that time he served as assistant pastor at then-Metropolitan Methodist Church. There he met his first wife, Edlea Janice Kelly. They married in 1948, just before he entered Yale Divinity School where he received his MDiv. They had three sons. She died in a car accident in October 1989.

He served St. Luke Methodist Church in Woodlawn from 1951-56, when he and his wife became missionaries to the then-Belgian Congo. First, they spent a year in Belgium preparing for missionary service. Their service there ended with an evacuation by the U.S. government in the middle of the night because of the civil war in the newly named country of Zaire.

Upon their return from Africa, Jones served as Director of Public Relations for Bishop John Wesley Lord in Washington, D.C. From 1967 to 1977, he was appointed to Faith UMC in Rockville, then Mt. Vernon Place in Baltimore, 1977-1983. There he hosted a weekly half-hour Sunday morning radio program that helped to build up and revive that inner-city congregation. He was appointed a District Superintendent of the Annapolis District in 1984 and retired in 1986.

Jones served several interim pastorates in his retirement years. For many years he was the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission Coordinator for the Northeastern Jurisdiction. He led more than 25 volunteer trips to the Caribbean, Russia, Europe and Africa. He was instrumental in starting the Seminary Library at the United Methodist Seminary in Moscow.

Baltimore Mayor William Donald Schaefer recognized Jones as a key contributor to life in Baltimore in his "Baltimore's Best" program. He published two books, "Twelve Came Riding" about 12 modern-day pastors who rode horses to Baltimore for the 1966 Bicentennial Celebration of Methodism; and a memoir, "Angels Up Ahead."

He and Larocca "Rocky" Tewell Swain married in September 1992. She died in June 2016.

Survivors include three sons: the Rev. Jeffrey W. Jones, pastor of North Bethesda UMC and his wife, Elaine; the Rev. Bruce A. Jones, pastor of La Plata UMC and his wife, Dawn; and Kelly S. Jones and his wife, Mary, of Hudson, Ohio; 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Kenneth S. Jones, a retired Elder, who was a missionary to the Belgian Congo and a district superintendent died Sept. 29, 2017, in the Wilson Health Care Center of Asbury Methodist Village. A Memorial Service was held at Faith UMC in Rockville Nov. 10. He donated his body to the Maryland Anatomy Board for scientific research.

PAUL SOUTHWELL JONES | 1917-2017

Paul Southwell Jones was born Aug. 3, 1917, to the late Rev. James T. and Dorothy S. Jones.

He was "received on probation" in 1939, ordained a Deacon in 1944 and an Elder in 1945.

Jones began his ministry in South Illinois and South Georgia conferences and in 1945 came to the Baltimore Conference where he served Mt. Nebo. In 1947, he moved to Burtonsville until 1953, when he was appointed to Arlington. In 1958, he served Union in D.C. until 1961, when he took leave for the Florida Conference. Three years later in 1964, he returned to the Baltimore Conference and was appointed to Christ in Landover Hills, followed in 1969 to Wesley Memorial UMC in Catonsville. Staying in Catonsville, in 1977, he moved across town to Trinity UMC, then in 1980 to First UMC in Lanham. He retired in 1982.

His wife, Rebecca Whiting Jones, preceded him in death.

Survivors include his daughter Julene J. Crooks and her husband Clement of Hanover, Pa.; two granddaughters and their husbands and one great-granddaughter.

The Rev. Paul Southwell Jones, at 100, was the longest-serving clergy member of the Baltimore-Washington Conference before his death Oct. 6, 2017, at the Charlestown Retirement Community in Catonsville. His life was celebrated at Bethany UMC in Ellicott City, Oct. 9, with the Rev. David Simpson officiating.

LEON KESS | 1929-2017

Leon Columbus Kess was born Dec. 9, 1929, in Baltimore, to the late Leon Columbus Kess Sr. and Sarah Hooks Kess, one of five siblings. He was educated in the Baltimore school system, attended Washington Bible College, Baltimore Community College and Morgan State University, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. At Morgan State he was an outstanding track star.

He was drafted into the U.S. Army from 1951-1955 and in 1953 married his high school sweetheart Letitia Louise Leeper, who grew up in the same Fairfield community he did. They had five children.

While serving in Linz, Austria, in 1954, he heard the call to ministry and upon discharge began serving as associate pastor at the CME church in his hometown community. He served in various capacities in the CME churches until 1970, when he began as Minister of Visitation at Ames UMC. From 1974 to 1983, he was appointed as senior pastor of the South River Charge of Annapolis, which included Chews UMC, Hope UMC and St. Mark UMC. In 1983, he became senior pastor of Queen's Chapel UMC and remained there until he retired 17 years later. After retirement (2000) he served in ministerial roles at Mt. Zion UMC in Ellicott City, Locust UMC and Mt. Zion UMC in Magothy.

In 1987, he was declared legally blind, but with the help of his wife, continued his studies and received his M. Div. from Howard University in 1990. His credentials were accepted in the Baltimore-Washington Conference in 1993.

Survivors include his wife of 64 years, five children: Terrence Calvin Kess (Cheryl), Sandra Florence Kess Vitch (Roland), Gayle Cynthia Kess, Rev. Dr. Lavonia Elizabeth Kess McIntyre (Victor) and David Jonathan Kess; nine grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, a goddaughter, Pamela Fraizer Richardson; and adopted sons: Minister Taricio Simms and Rev. Jeffrey Smith.

The Rev. Leon C. Kess, Jr., a retired Elder, died Dec. 22, 2017, the anniversary of his father's death. A Celebration of Life service was held Dec. 30 at Queens Chapel UMC with lay servants, Drs. Gregory and Delila Parham, officiating. Also participating were the Revs. Ianther Mills, George DeFord, pastors from other denominations and family.

HARRY A. LEDGARD | 1935-2017

Harry A. Ledgard was born Nov. 17, 1935, to the late Clarence and Margaret Ledgard in McKeesport, Pa. He was a history buff in his early years and wrote several local area histories. He was a graduate of Dickinson University and received his M.Div. from Wesley Theological Seminary.

Ledgard and Pauline “Polly” Louise Harrison met while both were counselors at Camp Manidokan. They married soon after and had a marriage of 34 years until her death in 1999.

Ledgard began serving churches in 1958 in the Central Pennsylvania Conference. He transferred to Baltimore-Washington Conference in 1963 and was appointed to Winfield. From 1967-1969, he served Lodge Forest UMC, then Emmanuel UMC in Scaggsville. After a year’s sabbatical in 1975, he was appointed to First UMC in Brunswick, then in 1982 to Walkersville UMC. Walkersville was his “most notable” appointment and both he and his wife are buried there. A mid-year transfer took him to St. Andrews of Annapolis for a few months then in 1989 to Arden, W. Va. In 1994, he moved to Havre de Grace UMC, but went on disability leave in December 1995. He retired in 1998.

His professional life focused on the study and understanding of the true meaning of biblical scripture. During his years in the pulpit, he made several journeys to the Holy Land to further his education and understanding of the life of Jesus Christ. He worked to support racial & social justice causes throughout his life as he stood for inclusiveness, unity and respect for all.

Survivors include his daughter Christina Ledgard of Columbia, son Philip Ledgard and his wife Nikki, and three grandchildren.

The Rev. Harry A. Ledgard, a retired Elder, died Dec. 27, 2017. A service to celebrate his life was held Jan. 5, at Glen Mar UMC with the Rev. Rod Miller officiating. District Superintendent Conrad Link participated.

DOUGLAS McARTHUR LOGAN | 1942-2017

Douglas McArthur Logan was born April 23, 1942, in Buckingham County, Va., to the late Rev. Nathaniel Logan and Nellie Banks Logan, the sixth child in the family. He graduated from high school while working as a school bus driver. It wasn’t until 1980 that he received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the Washington International College, and two years later a Master of Divinity from Howard University.

Logan was a Vietnam veteran, serving with the U.S. Army from 1966 to 1968. He worked in several sales positions, as a director of Adults with Dependents for the National Council of Churches (1984-1987) and in several other capacities, while serving first a Baptist Church then United Methodist churches, and supporting his family.

While pastoring at Mt. Vernon UMC (1970-1973), he met and married the former Andrea Robinson and acquired a family of three. They later had two sons.

Logan also served Strawbridge UMC in New Windsor, 1974-1976, and 1976-1982 as pastor of St. Mark’s UMC in Laurel. From 1982 to 1985, he served Community UMC in Washington, D.C., then Lewin UMC until 1990. From 1990-1993, he pastored Good Hope Union, then in 1993 moved to the Adam’s-Mt. Zion UM Charge in Lothian. He was then appointed to the Mt. Zion church as a full-time pastor for a year until he retired in 2005. During his pastorates at St. Mark’s and the Adams-Mt. Zion Charge, he completed extensive building campaigns.

Logan served in district and conference committees, including on the BWC Board of Trustees from 1994-2004. He was the instructor at Leadership Days from 1996-2004 for classes on the trustees.

He loved the ministry and in his spare time loved to garden and fish, sharing his bounty with family and friends. His wife says that the reason her father let them marry was because he was a good fisherman.

Survivors, in addition to his wife of 44 years, Andrea Logan, include twin daughters, Lesley Robinson and Lisa Long and her husband who live in Hampton, Va.; the Rev. Darren Logan of Hyattsville; the Rev. Douglas C. Logan and his wife of Baltimore; Fredrick "Rick" Logan of Hyattsville; eight grandchildren and twin great-grandsons.

The Rev. Douglas M. Logan, a retired Elder, died July 20, 2017, at the Veterans Hospital in Washington, D.C., after a long illness. The Life Legacy Celebration was held July 29, at Queen's Chapel UMC in Beltsville, with the Rev. R. David Hall, officiating.

LLOYD C. MCCLARREN | 1926-2018

Lloyd C. McClarren was born in West Decatur, Pa., Dec. 4, 1926, to the late Maynard and Hazel (Williams) McClarren. He had eight siblings. He was a graduate of the former Philipsburg High School, and graduated from Pennsylvania State University in agriculture in 1951. He graduated from Evangelical School of Theology in Myerstown, Pa., in 1965.

Before entering the ministry, he served in the U.S. Army and was an agricultural teacher.

He originally served in the Central Pennsylvania Conference, then came into the Baltimore-Washington Conference in 1970 to pastor the Clarksburg Circuit for three years. From 1973 to 1982, he was appointed to St. Paul's UMC in Baltimore. His next appointment was Grace UMC in Cumberland, 1982-88; then to the Wesley Charge in Cumberland until his retirement in 1990.

He was first married to Jane (Schucker) McClarren, then the Rev. Eleanor (Diggs) McClarren, both of whom preceded him in death. He had two children, a daughter Linda Lee and a son, Dennis McClarren, both also preceded him in death.

He married Evelyn (Smeal) Undercofler on Valentine's Day 1995; she survives and is in poor health. Also surviving are three sisters, a brother and a daughter-in-law, Mary Beth Undercofler.

The Rev. Lloyd McClarren, a retired Associate Member, died Feb. 8, 2018, in West Decatur, Pa. A memorial service was held at Salem UMC in West Decatur, Feb. 17. Pastor Michael Knepp officiated.

MARTIN LUTHER MCKENNEY | 1933-2017

Martin Luther McKenney was born May 12, 1933, the only child of the late Rev. Martin McKenney and Alleean Frazier McKenney. He was raised by his parents and grandmother in Gloucester County, Virginia. He graduated from high school in Merchantville, New Jersey, and enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He served four years during the Korean War, then entered Morgan State College in Baltimore, graduating in 1959.

He entered Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta for one year, where he often visited and listened to the sermons of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at Ebenezer Church. He received his MDiv from Wesley Theological Seminary and was ordained in the former Washington Conference in 1961.

He and Nampeo Dorothy "Dot" Ross married in 1961 and had two children.

McKenney's first church in 1961 was Union in Westminster, then in 1963, he became associate at Metropolitan in Baltimore. A year later he was appointed to John Wesley in Glen Burnie. He withdrew for two years, then was appointed to serve Central-Summerfield in Baltimore. A year at St. Marks UMC in Hanover, then from 1983-1987, he was appointed to Lincoln Park UMC in Washington, D.C. He moved to Fairhaven Parish in Gaithersburg from 1987-1992, when he was appointed superintendent of the Annapolis District until 1995 and moved to an appointment to Union UMC in Upper Marlboro, where he served until he retired in 1997. He then served interim positions at several churches and in 2011 affiliated as the retired pastor at Saint Paul in Oxon Hill.

His ministries included providing spiritual leadership to diverse groups of people, including to congregations in some of the churches he pastored facing major transitions. He and his wife made a mission trip as short-term missionaries to Sierra Leone. In 1961, he and his wife participated in the March on Washington, and throughout the Civil Rights movement in many Civil Rights activities. In retirement, they loved to travel and went to Russia, the Mediterranean, Central and South America. One of his hobbies was reading World War II history books and autobiographies.

Survivors include his wife of 56 years; daughter Gilesa Allean Black and her husband; son Daniel McKenney; one grandchild; god-children Tyrone Ross Jr. and Patricia Jackson and their spouses; and many others.

The Rev. Martin L. McKenney, a retired Elder, who served as superintendent of the Annapolis District from 1992 to 1994, died Friday, Nov. 10, 2017, after years of illness. A memorial service was held Nov. 20, at St. Paul UMC in Oxon Hill. The Rev. Daryl Williams officiated and the Rev. Rodney Smothers gave the eulogy. Other participating pastors included District Superintendent Evan D. Young, the Revs. Sylvester Gaines and Robert Rodeffer.

LESLIE GORDON METCALF | 1936-2017

Leslie Gordon Metcalf was born July 18, 1936, the youngest of nine children born to William and Norma (nee Bruce) Metcalf. He grew up in Baltimore City and attended Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, Baltimore Junior College and Johns Hopkins University. He received his Masters of Divinity degree from Wesley Theological Seminary, and later his Doctor's Degree in Theology.

Metcalf served as a mechanic on jets in the United States Marine Corps and Marine Reserve from 1957-1963.

He started his Ministry in the Evangelical United Brethren Church, which united with the Methodist Church to become The United Methodist Church in 1968. His pastorates included St. Matthews UMC in Baltimore, 1964-1975; St. Luke's UMC in Woodlawn, 1975-1986; Parkside UMC, Trinity UMC in Catonsville, and Pasadena UMC where he retired the first time. In retirement, he went to Eastport UMC and retired again, then served at Rockland UMC and Melville Chapel UMC, which turned out to be for seven years. Wherever he served, he was always very active in the church, the community and with the youth.

Metcalf was chaplain at Baltimore area hospitals and served on many church related boards including at the Conference level. He was chairman of the Community Relations Task Force under Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro's Crime Commission, 1968-1972, and was appointed as a representative to Governor Mandel's Planning Commission.

He developed and taught a special speech and communication course for the Baltimore City Police Department, taught at Essex Community College, taught college level courses in psychology at Jessup prison and the Community College of Baltimore.

He was involved in politics in Baltimore City, helping get William Donald Schaefer elected as mayor and serving as his press aide and special aide.

For his community service, he received more than 30 citations.

He was also an active Mason, where he served as Chaplain in his early years, beginning in 1966. This grew into service as Grand Chaplain for the Grand Lodge of Maryland and in several other Mason orders, passing on to his sons the love of Masonry.

He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Katherine (nee Wolf), his sons William A. Metcalf and Leslie Metcalf Jr., daughters Karen Metcalf and Donna Metcalf. He also leaves three grandchildren and one great grandson.

The Rev. Leslie Gordon Metcalf, died June 10, 2017, at Gilcrest Hospice Care in Towson. A private graveside service was held June 19.

WILLIAM “BILL” T. MILLER | 1928-2017

William “Bill” Thomas Miller was born in Stewartstown, Pa., May 1, 1928. His parents Murvin and Almeda Shaw Miller had one other child, a son, Robert E. Miller. Miller attended Stewartstown High School.

After graduation he worked in a store for a couple of years before attending West Virginia Wesleyan College, where he graduated with degrees in Bible and English. While in college he participated in groups that went to local churches where he would preach and work with youth groups. His summers were spent in New York working in a church as an assistant running a youth program and in New Jersey working in a mental hospital.

After graduating from West Virginia Wesleyan College, Miller attended Wesley Theological Seminary, then in Westminster, where he graduated with a degree in theology. He was ordained in the Baltimore-Washington Conference where he served churches for 38 years. These included Idlewyld, Montgomery, Mt. Nebo, Susquehanna, Highland Avenue, Essex, Ashton, Parkside, and Magothy, from which he retired in 1991.

He made two exchange trips to England, the first to Liverpool where he served two churches for eight weeks, and the second to Margate on the North Sea, also serving two churches for eight weeks.

In 1954 Rev. Miller married Loretta Bryan in Derby, Conn. Survivors include her and their son Joel and two grandchildren. A daughter, Melissa Anne, preceded him in death.

The Rev. William Thomas Miller, a retired Elder, died Oct. 31, 2017. A funeral service was held Nov. 6 at Linden-Linthicum UMC with the Rev. Gayle Annis-Forder officiating. The Rev. Donald Hohne participated.

MARY BROWN OLIVER | 1934-2017

Mary Brown was born Jan. 1, 1934, to the late Hillary and Mary Louise Brown in Washington, D.C. She was educated in the D.C. Public Schools System. She and the late Charles Washington Oliver married in 1956 and had three children. He died in 2010. She continued her education, obtaining a Bachelor of Science Degree from the District of Columbia Teachers College, a Master of Arts Degree from Trinity College, and a Master of Divinity Degree from Howard University.

She was the first African-American woman to serve as a district superintendent in the Baltimore-Washington Conference (and the second denominationwide). She served from 1990-1998 as the district superintendent of the Washington Central District and Dean of the Cabinet. From 1994-1998, it was known as the Washington-Columbia District; today it is the Greater Washington District.

Prior to being a superintendent, she served at Westphalia UMC, 1983-1988. From 1988-1990, she was the first African-American pastor at Northwood-Appold and led the church to paying off its mortgage. She then became a D.S. for eight years. Afterward, she served St. Paul UMC in Oxon Hill from 1998 to 2003, the first female pastor in its 207-year-old history. She retired in 2003.

Prior to her call to ministry, Oliver was a dedicated educator in the D.C. Public Schools, focusing on building reading skills. She was an assistant principal and a summer school principal at Webb, J.O. Wilson, Birney and Richardson Elementary Schools.

Oliver received many community and clergy awards. These included the Outstanding Women's Award from Black Ministers Awards Committee, the Preaching Award from Prince George's County and the Mary McLeod Bethune Award from the National Council of Negro Women. She was inducted into the Preacher's Hall of Fame in May 2005. In 1990, Baltimore City Mayor Kurt Schmoke declared a special "Rev. Mary Brown Oliver Day."

Survivors include her three children: Howard and Latasha Oliver, Allyson and Marvin Jones, and Clayton Oliver; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Rev. Mary Brown Oliver, a retired Elder, died Sept. 5, 2017. A Celebration of Life service was held Sept. 16 at National UMC (Metropolitan Memorial) in Washington, D.C., following viewings at Ebenezer UMC on Sept. 15 and preceding the service. The Rev. Bresean A. Jenkins officiated at the service. Bishop LaTrelle Easterling brought greetings and many clergy participated. These included Pastor Lucinda Kent and the Revs. Helen Fleming, Joe Daniels, George DeFord, Alfreda Wiggins, and Gerard Green, superintendent of the Greater Washington District. Retired Elder John Blanchard gave the eulogy.

COLIN PHILLIPS | 1947-2017

Colin Anthony Phillips was born June 13, 1947, in Cleveleys, England, the son of the late Walter and Isabel Phillips. He was a graduate of the University of Kent and Bristol University in England, and held various degrees from Brown University, Wesley Theological Seminary, Lancaster Seminary, and Towson University.

During his 40-years pastoral career, he also worked as a licensed mental health professional with agencies serving victims of domestic violence and as a counselor in the prison system. His churches included the Liberty Charge, 1978-1981, Cowenton UMC, 1981-1990, Presbury UMC in Edgewood, 1990-1995; Dorsey Emmanuel UMC, 1995-2003; Salem UMC in Hebbville, 2003 until his retirement in 2011. After retirement he pastored Walkersville, 2011 to 2013, then St. Paul in New Windsor for a year, and finally Trinity in Emmitsburg until 2014.

He served on the Board of Directors of the Strawbridge Shrine, but one of his proudest accomplishments was the founding of the Night of Peace family shelter at Salem UMC, the only family shelter in Baltimore County at the time. The shelter opened in 2004 and remains open today serving mothers and children.

During vacations and leisure time, Phillips loved Big Bend National Park in Texas, music, cinema, travel, writing and attending Orioles games with his son and family.

Survivors include his wife, Deborah Phillips; son, Alex Phillips and wife Kristi; step-daughter, Abigail Ford; a brother and a godson, Nathan Kapsin.

The Rev. Dr. Colin Phillips, 70, a retired Elder, died Dec. 1, 2017 after a 15-month battle with cancer. A memorial service was held Dec. 9 at St. Paul UMC in New Windsor.

DIANE LOUISE RAINEY | 1945-2017

Diane Louise Rainey was born Feb. 27, 1945. She was a registered nurse, working the night shift, while she was a student at Wesley Theological Seminary. In 1989, she pastored Dickerson UMC, and for two years Hughes UMC in Wheaton. She was ordained an Elder in 1992.

Rainey was passionate about learning, and in 1992 received a Master of Social Work degree from the University of Maryland, then in 1997, a PhD from the Institute for Clinical Social Work in Chicago. She earned the Certificate in Adult Psychoanalysis from the Washington Psychoanalytic Institute.

She and Joe Rainey met at then-Metropolitan Memorial UMC in 1987 and married in April 1988, when both were in their 40s, twice divorced, each with three children. He wrote of his wife, "We realized we knew more about separation and divorce than about the nurture and work of building a happy marriage." They found ways and had 30 years together before her death.

One of her hobbies for the last few years of her life was crocheting, which she taught herself, then made baby blankets for the Angel Closet in the maternity department of Inova Fairfax Hospital.

She donated her body to medical science through the Virginia Anatomical Program. "I won't need it anymore," she told her husband.

Among the things Rainey was grateful for, her husband said, were meaningful work; the opportunity to work side by side as partners in their practice as well as their marriage; for travel and to see so much of God's world.

She was a deeply spiritual person, beginning and ending every day with prayer together with her husband. Facing an important decision, she would say, "We need to pray about it," he said.

Survivors, in addition to her husband, include daughters Kym Harrison of Windsor Mill, and Vicki Perham of Concord, N.H.; son Kevin Litten of Boyds; step sons Gregory Rainey of Portland, Ore. and Jonah Rainey of San Diego, Calif.; step daughter Chelsea Todd of Rockville; six grandchildren and four step grandchildren.

The Rev. Diane L. Rainey, wife of the Rev. Joe S. Rainey, died Sept. 10, 2017, from cancer in a hospice in Arlington, Va. A Memorial service was held Oct. 7 at Bethesda United Church of Christ with the Rev. Darla Dee Ledger officiating.

LUCIUS ROSS JR. | 1948-2017

Lucius Ross Jr. was born Dec. 15, 1948 in Washington, D.C. to the late Lucius Ross Sr. and Rose Ella (Lee) Ross. He was educated in the public school systems of Washington and Prince Georges County. He attended Prince Georges Community College and Wesley Theological Seminary.

Ross worked for the federal government for 33 years, primarily at the Department of Health and Human Services. He retired in 2000 to enter ministry full-time until his retirement in 2011.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank those persons who have been influential in my life as friends, co-workers, ministers or people who touched my life along the way," he wrote for the memorial service program. He went on to list: Helen Joanne Moore, "a calming force in my life;" James Parker, Ellis Jones and the late Clarence Fletcher as life-long friends. Included in his thanks were the Rev. Dr. Yvonne Mercer-Staton, her son Lawrence A. Staton and her late husband. He acknowledged the Rev. Gertie Williams and her daughter Donna Williams, the Rev. Joan Jones and Brother Bobby Thompson. "Then there are my Fathers in Ministry," he said, "Rev. Dr. Gainger Browning, Jr. and the late Rev. Dr. Leonard R. Felton." Also included were two young adults from St. Paul UMC, Tina and Sherdette.

Survivors include two daughters: Nicole V. Ross of Havre de Grace and Danielle Renee Ross of Washington, D.C.; and four grandchildren. He is also survived by a sister.

The Rev. Lucius Ross Jr. died June 16, 2017. A service was held at Hughes Memorial UMC, with the Rev. Yvonne Mercer-Staton giving the homily. Also participating were the Revs. Paul Johnson, Joan Jones and Gertie Williams.

RUTH CUSTER ROSS | 1921-2018

Ruth Custer Ross was born May 21, 1921, in Garrett, Ind., the daughter of the late A.J. and Sadie (Grube) Custer. She had five brothers. She was a graduate of Garrett High School (1938), Purdue University (1944), and Wesley Theological Seminary (1978).

As a student she served Keen Memorial for a year. In 1978, she was appointed to Rodgers Ford UMC for three years. From 1981 to 1984, she served Westminster Parish, then was appointed to Ames UMC in Pikesville from where she retired in 1988. She also served at Timonium UMC.

She and M. Nelson Ross, who graduated from High School together, married in 1944 and had four children.

Ross had a lifelong interest in the fabric arts. She was a weaver, quilter and knitter. As a member of the Baltimore Heritage Quilters' Guild, she taught quilting. Well into her 90s, she knitted more than 500 newborn baby hats for the Dupont Hospital nursery in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

She was preceded in death by her husband.

Survivors include her sons Steven (Jean), Craig (Carol Ann), and David (Deborah), and daughter Carol Wirth; seven grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. She is also survived by a brother, sister-in-law, several nieces and nephews.

The Rev. Ruth Custer Ross, a retired Elder, died May 8, 2018. A memorial service was celebrated at Timonium UMC May 19.

J. WILLIAM "BILL" TALBOTT

Though no longer a member of the Baltimore Washington Conference, Bill Talbott grew up in the conference and had served churches for 17 years. He was born in Pikesville to W. Charlton and Jean Talbott. His childhood church was Sudbrook UMC. When he was 17 he received his License to Preach.

He went to Frostberg State Teacher's College where he met his future wife, and then to American University followed by Wesley Theological Seminary where he received a Master's of Divinity. Later he earned his Doctorate of Ministry.

He served in the Baltimore-Washington Conference from 1962-1979, including United Methodist churches at Exeter Memorial; a three-point charge in Bolivar, W. Va., Roland Avenue/Evergreen; Salem and Back River.

"We're not sure what we will miss most about Dad," wrote his daughters as they listed several quirks of his personality. But, "what we will miss most about him is how loyal he was to his canine pets; how willing he was to help others, how through his eyes everyone, everyone is the same – God’s children.”

He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Joanne; daughters Tammy Crotts and the Rev. Alexis “Alex” Talbott; a niece and three nephews, their spouses and families. He is also survived by his sister.

The Rev. Dr. J. William “Bill” Talbott died March 26, 2018, in Delray Beach, Florida. A memorial service was held at Back River UMC with the Rev. Donna Lee Nelson officiating. Memorial services were also held in Florida.

ALVA DANIEL TICE | 1926-2018

Alva Daniel “A.D.” Tice was born May 23, 1926, in Boynton, Pa., to Simon and Naomi Yoder Tice. He graduated from Eastern Mennonite High School in Harrisonburg, Va., received a BA from Frostburg State College and an MDiv from Wesley Theological Seminary.

He and Rebecca Townsend Tice were married in 1944. They had four children.

He served as an ordained minister for 58 years in Mennonite, United Methodist and Brethren churches. In the Baltimore-Washington Conference, his appointments included Emmanuel in Cumberland, 1965-1972; and First UMC in Bradbury Heights, 1972-1981. He then pastored Washington Square in Hagerstown, 1981-1984; and Francis Asbury in Berkeley Springs, W. Va., from 1984 until March 1988, when he took a leave of absence. He retired in 1988.

Tice was a lifelong learner, including as a student of philosophy, politics and classical music. He was an eager traveler and a lively historian, regaling all who would listen to his entertaining, poignant and sometimes humorous ancestral stories reaching back to the early 1800s. He was an active member in Lions Clubs, serving as past chapter President at Massanutten, where he resided at the Bergenheim for the last 22 years of his life prior to an eight-month stay at Avante Nursing Home.

Survivors include his wife of 73 years, Rebecca Tice, and four children: A. Daniel Tice and his wife Paula Douglass of Bruceton Mills, W.Va.; the Rev. H. Kent Tice and his wife, the Rev. JoAnne Alexander of Charles Town, W.Va.; Patrima Tice of Alexandria, Va.; and Rebecca Tice of Falls Church, Va. In addition, he is survived by seven grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

In the final year of his life, Tice told many people, “I’m ready to go. I’m not in a hurry but I’m ready.”

The Rev. Alva Daniel “A.D.” Tice, a retired Elder, died July 14, 2017, in Harrisonburg, Va. A memorial service was held July 22 at Mt. Olive Brethren Church in McGaheysville, Va. Interment is at the Mountain Valley United Methodist Church cemetery.

LAITY

JULIE FLINCHUM | 1964-2018

Julie Elizabeth Kessler Flinchum was born in Annapolis Jan. 23, 1964, to Thelma Ann Blandin Kessler and Christian George Kessler, Jr. She was a graduate of Chesapeake Senior High School in Pasadena, studied at the University of Maryland University College and in 2017 received her Certificate in Theological Studies from Princeton Theological Seminary.

This year marked her 30th anniversary as an employee of the Anne Arundel Medical Center, primarily working in the Pharmacy Department as the Controlled Substance and Automation Technology Specialist. Julie was also trained and served as a Hospice volunteer.

She was a member of several United Methodist churches over time, including as youth director, from 2007-2012, at Good Shepherd UMC in Waldorf. A dedicated lay person, she served many roles within the various local churches, districts, and in the Annual Conference. Among her joys were serving on Quality of Life Retreats and as an AIDS buddy. She served on Walk to Emmaus teams and traveled to New York for the United Nations Seminar. Flinchum was a teacher in the School of Christian Mission and in the Discipleship Academy and as an adult leader on the Rock Team. Her gifts included leading youth and adults in arts that enhanced worship including drama, puppets and dance. A leader in mission, Flinchum served on mission trips to Nicaragua, Pittsburg, and Mississippi (Katrina relief efforts).

She was very proud of her work as the BWC Director of Lay Servant Ministries. In that position Flinchum established the Lay Servant Ministries Committee and developed guidelines and procedures to implement the modifications of the 2016 Book of Discipline within the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

Survivors include two sons, Jon Flinchum and his wife, Shelby, and Justin Flinchum and his wife Kimberly; three grandchildren; and her mother, Thelma Ann Blandin Kessler. Two of her four siblings also survive.

Julie Elizabeth Flinchum, the Baltimore-Washington Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries, died Feb. 25, 2018, at Hospice of the Chesapeake in Pasadena, in the company of her Sesi (which means sister in Swahili), Patricia Sebring. She ended her six-month battle with ovarian cancer as the music of one of her favorite songs, "I Can Only Imagine," played on her I-phone. A Celebration of Life service was held Saturday, March 10, at Lovely Lane UMC. Her pastor and "sister of the heart," Rev. Dr. Patricia L. Sebring, conducted the service. Her remains will travel with her family to her favorite destination, the islands and blue waters of the Caribbean.

CLERGY SPOUSES

LAVERNE ARCHIBALD | 1928-2017

LaVerne Thomson Archibald was born March 31, 1928, in Bellevue, Pa., the oldest of five children to Olga Seitz and Andrew Thomson. Her grandmother was instrumental in her first six years. She graduated from the Avalon Public Schools in 1945 and went to Stenotype Institute of Pittsburgh.

She and Elmer Thomas, a neighbor, married in 1947 after his discharge from the Navy.

Archibald worked first at the Diamond Alkali Company then for Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance, until their move to Falls Church, Va., where her husband was employed as an electrical engineer. They later moved to Aldelphi, Md. The Thomases had three children who survive. After the youngest started school, she took classes at the University of Maryland, but her marriage broke up and she began working as a secretary to support the family before graduating. She worked for many years with the National Park Service.

She and James Archibald were married in 1974, the second marriage for each. They both brought three children to the marriage.

By the time they were married, Jim Archibald had been serving in churches since 1950, first in the Northern Illinois Conference, and from 1955, in the Baltimore Conference. He was serving Capitol Hill UMC in D.C. at the time of the marriage, and remained there until 1978, when he was appointed to Good Shepherd UMC in Silver Spring, which they served together until 1987. His last appointment was Damascus-Friendship Charge, from which he retired in 1996. He then had an interim appointment at Colesville UMC, which lasted two years.

The Archibalds moved to Florida in September 1999, having decided health and age made it difficult to care for a house.

Survivors include, in addition to her husband, daughters Dyan Thomas of Herndon, Va., and Gay Roderick and her husband of Harrisonburg, Va; a son Jim Thomas; stepdaughter Katharine Viets and her husband of Stamford, Conn., stepsons Jim and his wife of Darien, Conn., and Will Archibald and his partner of Albany, Ga.; nine grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Laverne Archibald, the wife of the Rev. James P. Archibald, a retired Elder, died June 17, 2017, after a long battle with lymphoma, at Penney Farms, Florida. A memorial service was held there Aug. 19.

MYRTLE H. BROOKS | 1925-2018

Myrtle Holloway Brooks was born Sept. 7, 1925, to the late Myrtle and Marion Holloway in Marion, S.C. She grew up in Bethel UMC in Marion, and attended elementary and secondary schools in the Marion County Public Schools. She held a Bachelor's Degree from South Carolina State University.

She pledged the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and Eastern Star and went on to further her education, obtaining a Doctoral Equivalency.

She accomplished her goal to be a teacher and started her career at her elementary school. Wherever her husband was appointed, she continued to teach elementary school in several Montgomery County schools. After 40 years, she retired.

She and Pastor Thomas H. Brooks were married in 1948, and moved to Montgomery County, Md. She was a devoted elementary school teacher, at the same time serving as "First Lady" at the churches, he pastored.

Thomas Brooks was ordained an Elder in 1949 and served in the Washington Conference at: St. James' Church in White Sulpher Springs, and Roncersville (1950-1953); Sharp Street in Sandy Springs (1953-1961); and Jerusalem in Rockville (1961-1966). After the merger of the Baltimore and Old Washington Conferences, he served: Hughes Memorial in Washington, D.C. (1966-1974); Ames Memorial in Baltimore (1974-1975); and Cecil Memorial UMC in Annapolis (1975-1978) where he died on Oct. 21, 1978.

After his death, she continued as an active and faithful member of Cecil Memorial for the rest of her life. She served as a Communion steward, taught Bible school, helped organize and run the church's Easter egg hunts, and served on the Nurse's Unit. She was on the Board of Child Care, where she donated a steeple in her husband's memory.

She was preceded in death, in addition to her parents and husband, by two sisters and three brothers.

Survivors include a sister and several nieces and nephews, as well as great-nieces and great-nephews.

Myrtle H. Brooks, 93, the wife of the late Rev. Thomas H. Brooks, died Jan. 1, 2018. A Memorial Service was held Jan. 10 at Cecil Memorial UMC in Annapolis, pastored by the Rev. Patricia A. Turnage. A Delta Omega Service preceded the funeral. The Rev. Kirkland Frazier officiated and gave the Eulogy.

ELAINE WALKER CROWE | 1920-2018

Elaine Walker Crowe, the daughter of the late Milton Raymond Walker and Frances Eleanor (Daughton) Walker, was born Sept. 10, 1920, in Wilna, Md. She attended rural one-, two- and three-room schools in Harford County and graduated from Bel Air High School in 1937. She received a Bachelor of Science degree from St. Joseph College in Emmitsburg in 1941, and taught English, Library, and Secretarial Science to grades seven through eleven in Havre de Grace and Bel Air.

She and Raymond Crowe met as counselors at Junior High Camp at Western Maryland College in Westminster. When she and the Methodist pastor decided to marry in 1949, she retired from teaching. He retired in 1978 and they settled in Forest Hill. He died in 1985.

Over the years, together they served Midland, Cresaptown, Linden Heights and Ferndale Charges. While at Cresaptown, their children were born.

Crowe was active in church since a teenager, serving as a teacher, choir member, director, organist, Communion steward and pastor's wife. She was a member of the United Methodist Women at all levels: local church, district, and conference, receiving five membership pins for her service. She was a Lay Speaker, a member of Annual Conference and an officer in the Asbury Methodist Home Guild.

While teaching in Bel Air in 1949, she was initiated into the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, an international society for Key Women Teachers. For 42 years she served as the Maryland State Treasurer for the organization. Until 1990, she was also treasurer/manager of the Epworth Federal Credit Union, a credit union for Methodist ministers of the Baltimore Conference. After her retirement, she continued to serve the credit union as a member of the board, a member of the credit committee and as secretary until 2010.

Crowe was also active in community work, serving as chairman of the Federal Food Distribution in Bel Air, an officer of the Bel Air Golden Age Club, and the Harford County AARP. She was nominated as one of Harford County's Unsung Heroines and also as one of Harford's Most Beautiful People.

Survivors include son Stephen R. Crowe and wife, Lillian, of Airville, Pa.; daughter, Rachel Fox of Brooklyn, Md.; four granddaughters, five grandsons; numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. A sister and her husband also survive.

Elaine Crowe, the wife of the late Rev. Raymond Crowe, died Jan. 2, 2018, in Bel Air. A service was held Jan. 8 at Bel Air UMC.

CHARLOTTE ZIMMER DIXON | 1929-2018

Charlotte Berlene Zimmer was born in Sayre, Pa., the daughter of the late Ray and Laura 'Chloe' Zimmer. She was a child prodigy, discovered in her late elementary years and sponsored by an anonymous donor throughout her education. This would inspire her throughout her life and ultimately lead her to the loves and commitments of her life, her church and her career.

She and Philip Jarvis Dixon were married Aug. 30, 1951. She served in music in the many churches where he was appointed: the Chase Circuit, 1954-56; Elkridge 1956-1958; Lovely Lane, 1958-61; St. Paul in Chevy Chase, 1961-64; Hamline, 1964-67; College Park, 1967-70; St. Luke's 1970-73; Corkran Memorial, 1973-1980; Francis Asbury, 1980-82; Concord-St. Andrews, 1982-87; and coordinator of pastoral ministries in Charlestown, W. Va. for a year until his retirement in 1988. The Dixons moved to Ocean Pines, where he served the Community Church and she continued many performances as soloist, actor and director.

She received her B.A. from Syracuse University and M.A. degree in Sacred Music from Boston University. Charlotte Dixon, contralto, acquired her reputation in Washington, D.C. through numerous performances as soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra, Constitution Hall, Lisner Auditorium and the Kennedy Center.

Dixon became internationally known as she performed Herman Berlinsky's original music as 'The Wife of Job' in the Oratorio "Job." Todd Duncan came out of retirement at the opening of the Kennedy Center to perform this important piece of music with his student Charlotte. She also sang the world premiere of Berlinsky's "The Glass Bead Game" in Carnegie Hall, and his "Litanies for the Persecuted," in the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine in New York City. She has appeared in numerous Baltimore Opera productions including the role of Miss Todd in "The Old Maid and the Thief," which she created for that opera's television debut. This television special received an Emmy nomination.

Dixon received many glowing reviews for her singing roles in Washington's dinner theaters. She launched a number of dinner theater productions as soloist, actor and director in churches, including Lovely Lane UMC, the Hamline Opera Society in Washington, D.C., and several in the Community Church in Ocean Pines. Her singing and teaching skills were employed by Montgomery Community College, Catholic University in Washington, D.C., and the Montgomery County Teachers Association.

Her years of initiating community involvement in the musical productions, her contagious enthusiasm and knowledge of the performing arts were as much a part of her spiritual life as her professional one. Her desire to enhance and enrich the worship and community with art wove seamlessly into her husband's life as a pastor in the BWC.

Survivors include her two daughters; Kirsta Rae (Dixon) McCullough, and Dawn Karina-Dixon Greene and her husband Ronald B. Greene, Esq. of Frankford, Del.; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Charlotte Berlene Zimmer Dixon, 89, died March 29, 2018, at Coastal Hospice in Salisbury. She was the widow of the late Rev. Dr. Philip Jarvis Dixon, who died in 2001. A memorial service was held April 3, at the Community Church at Ocean Pines.

KATHERINE "NELL" EASTRIDGE | 1931-2018

Katherine "Nell" Eastridge was born in Wytheville, Virginia, March 8, 1931. She was a graduate of Towson State College with a B.S. degree in 1974 and a Master's of Education in 1981.

She worked in the payroll departments at Rutherford Freight Lines and Sperry Farragut Company in Bristol, Tenn., where she met her husband.

She and the Rev. Roby Eastridge married in 1953, and had 65 years together before his death. They had two sons who survive.

The Eastridges moved to Maryland and she began a career in education, in the St. Mary's County School System from 1958-1965, then teaching in elementary schools in the Baltimore City School System for 25 years. She was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, an international honor society in education.

For 34 years, she supported her husband as a pastor's wife, as he served Urbana UMC (1958-1961); Walkersville-Lewistown Charge (1962-1964); Lexington Park UMC (1964-1968); Brooklyn Heights UMC (1968-1969); Howard Park UMC (1969-1975); Trinity UMC (1975-1977) and First UMC in Laurel for 12 years, 1977-1989, from which he retired. They then moved to Johnson City, Tenn., and she became an active member of Munsey UMC.

Survivors include her two sons, Jeffrey Eastridge who lives in California, and Jonathan Eastridge of Elkridge; and a granddaughter.

Katherine "Nell" Eastridge, the wife of the late Rev. Roby Eastridge, who died in February, died April 12, 2018. A Memorial service was held May 12, at Glen Mar UMC, with the Rev. Rod Miller officiating.

BEN H. GRIFFITH | 1921-2017

Ben H. Griffith Jr. was born on a homestead near Nera Vista, NM, Sept. 11, 1921, to Benjamin Harrison Griffith and Ethel Drena West. He had a brother and sister.

He grew up in Pueblo, Colo., and graduated from the Pueblo Community College. He and Jessie Grisham, whom he met at the Wesley Foundation at the University of Colorado, married in 1945, the year he graduated with a BS in electrical engineering.

They moved to Wisconsin where two sons were born, then to Baltimore in 1950 to work at Westinghouse Electric Corporation, where he worked for 40 years. Another son was born in 1950, and after his retirement and a move to Columbia in 1961, their last son was born.

He told his sons many stories throughout the years he worked for Westinghouse, said fourth son, Daniel, “and some of the important projects he worked on.”

He was supportive of Jessie Griffith’s call to ministry in 1971, and her pursuit of the degrees for nearly a decade that led to her ordination as an Elder in 1981.

Throughout their lifetimes, the Griffiths were very active in The United Methodist Church. Ben Griffith sang in the choirs in the churches she served, which included Alberta Gary UMC and Mount Zion UMC in Finksburg. He occasionally preached as a lay leader.

Griffith was a devoted father and active with his sons at the YMCA of Greater Baltimore, and as president of the Dads and Sons Association for the YMCA Camp. He was treasurer of the Glenelg PTA. He and the boys gardened side by side and did projects around the house. He once built a model train platform with lit-up houses, recalled Dan Griffith.

The Griffiths moved to Asbury Methodist Village in Gaithersburg, and when his wife moved into the Wilson Health Care Center in 2016, he moved into Kindley Assisted Living. She died in March 2016 after 71 years of marriage.

Survivors include four sons, Ben H. III, Andrew David, Stanley Paul and Daniel Jesse Griffith of Sterling, Va.

MARGARET ROWLAND McCORMICK | 1924-2018

Margaret Rowland was born June 23, 1924, in Rochester, NY, the daughter of the late Rev. Henry Hosie Rowland and Mildred Ament Rowland.

Growing up she realized her true passion and joy was music. She began studying piano with her mother at an early age. She studied at the St. Louis Conservatory of Music with pianist Gottfried Galston who had studied piano in Vienna, Austria, with teachers who traced their lineage back to Ludwig van Beethoven. She continued her studies at the Julliard School in New York City. The highlight of McCormick's college career was playing the Rachmaninoff Concerto No. 2 in C Minor with the St. Louis Philharmonic.

Peggy Rowland married the late Rev. Clifford "Mac" Caldwell McCormick Jr. in 1948, a marriage that lasted 56 years until his death in 2004. They had three children who survive.

McCormick was a church organist, pianist and choir director in the churches her husband served. These included Strawbridge Church prior to 1952 when he was appointed to the Johnsville-Middleburg Charge, then spent a year at Calvary Church in Baltimore and a year as chaplain intern at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, D.C. From 1957 to 1961, he served Friendship Church in Anne Arundel County, then Strawbridge 1961-1969, the New Windsor Parish 1969-1974, and as chaplain to the Springfield Hospital Center in Sykesville 1974 to 1988 when he retired. After his retirement he pastored Brick UMC for five years.

Peggy McCormick passed on her love of music to many piano students over more than 60 years. She also composed many original compositions in the sacred choral, secular choral and piano genres. Several of her sacred choral works were sung by the adult choir of St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Frederick.

Survivors include her three children: Joan Yatsevitch of Santa Fe, N.M.; William McCormick and wife Monika of Middletown; and James Michael McCormick and wife Susan of Gardners, Pa. She is also survived by eight grandchildren and their spouses, two step grandchildren; and 14 great grandchildren, who called her Granny Tickle Bug.

Margaret "Peggy" Rachel McCormick, the wife of the late Rev. Clifford "Mac" McCormick, died April 14, 2018. A Celebration of Life Service was held June 11, at Piney Creek Presbyterian Church in Taneytown.

KATHERINE JEAN RODEFFER | 1932-2018

Katherine Jean Bodmer Rodeffer, known as Jean, was born Aug. 29, 1932, to Mary Katherine Shumate Bodmer and Gordon Augustus Bodmer. She grew up in Washington, D.C., attended Eastern High School and the University of Maryland, where she graduated with a B.A. in Spanish and English.

She taught at High Point High School until her marriage to the Rev. Robert Rodeffer in 1955 and began her life as his partner in ministry. His ministerial career took them first to Seat Pleasant until 1962, when he was appointed to Trinity in Prince Frederick, 1962-1967. This was followed by Hamline, 1967-70, First UMC in Lanham, 1970-76; and Grace UMC in Gaithersburg from 1976 to 1990. In 1990, he was appointed District Superintendent and served two terms until his retirement in 1998.

Wherever they were, she became involved in the United Methodist Women, teaching Sunday School, directing a children's choir and other ministries. She was also active outside the church, as a substitute teacher, nursery school teacher, and in organizations such as the Free State Doll Study Club and the Beltsville Young-at-Heart Club. She always found time to attend her children's and grandchildren's concerts, special programs, awards ceremonies, athletic events and graduations.

In spite of a cancer diagnosis in 2015, Rodeffer continued to live her life fully, taking multiple cruises (one two weeks before her death), attending UMD Women's Basketball games, club meetings and church activities.

Survivors are her husband of 62 year., daughters, Kathy Rodeffer (Gretchen), Carolyn Rodeffer, and Mary Ann Vaughan (Michael); and seven grandchildren.

Katherine Jean Rodeffer, the wife of the Rev. Robert K. Rodeffer, a retired Elder, died Jan. 14, 2018. Her Celebration of Life service was held at Emmanuel UMC in Beltsville, Feb. 10.

LUCILE OLSON GUNN SOPER | 1924-2018

Lucile May Olson was born March 22, 1924, in Cleveland, Ohio, the daughter of the late Arthur and Loyola (Snyder) Olson and graduated from Smithsburg High School. She was a graduate of Shepherd University in Shepherdstown, W.Va.

Soper was an educator who taught elementary school at Pangborn Elementary in Hagerstown, and at Jackson Road Elementary School in Silver Spring.

She and the Rev. Elgar Soper married in 1966, after he was widowed. As a pastor's wife, she devotedly served each United Methodist parish alongside her husband. These included Good Shepherd UMC, 1966-72 and Colesville UMC, 1972-79, when he retired. In retirement he served four years at Sandy Hook UMC. She loved music and enjoyed singing in choirs and choral groups. He died in 2016.

Lucile enjoyed her family and friends, music and her faith. The beloved matriarch of a very large and blended family, she put family first, always with a cheerful and positive perspective and words of encouragement to all.

Surviving are three children from her first marriage: Delia Gunn Bonenberger and husband, Dolf, of Springville, N.Y.; Adele Gunn Gill and husband, Donald, of Boonsboro; and Timothy Gunn and wife, Tracy, of Charlotte, N.C.; step-children: David Stanley Soper and wife, Pamela, of Southern Shores, N.C.; Stewart Michael Soper and wife, Alison, of Salisbury; and Cheryl Soper Damico Vincent of Clarkston, Mi.; 10 grandchildren; 10 step-grandchildren, and 23 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Christine Harp, of Parkton.

Lucile May Olson Gunn Soper, wife of the late Rev. Elgar Soper, died March 30, 2018, at Frederick Memorial Hospital. A Memorial Service was held May 12, at Homewood at Crumland Farms, in Frederick. Burial was private at Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

ELIZABETH FERGUSON SMITH | 1934-2018

Elizabeth Ferguson was born Jan. 17, 1934, in Washington, D.C., the daughter of the late Remick and Anna Ferguson. She was a graduate of the University of Maryland with a Master's Degree in social work.

She was employed as a social worker and retired from Asbury Methodist Village. As hobbies, she enjoyed gardening and quilting.

She and the Rev. Donald Montgomery Smith married in 1955. They had four children who survive. He died in 2010.

She was a devoted pastor's wife and served with him in his appointed churches: the Morgan Charge from 1971-1978, Ferndale UMC from 1978-1983 and Trinity UMC in Frederick for one year, followed in 1984 to Rockland UMC in Ellicott City where they remained until he retired in 1997.

In addition to her husband, she was predeceased by her son Steven M. Smith.

Surviving her are daughters Stephanie Ann and husband Bill Price of Frederick, Susan Jane and husband Jay Belt of Westminster, Sherrie Jean and husband Rodney Harrison of Westminster; 11 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Elizabeth Ferguson Smith, the widow of the late Rev. Donald M. Smith and a resident of Homewood at Frederick, died May 1, 2018, at Frederick Memorial Hospital. A funeral service was held May 17 at Crosswind Church in Westminster.

PHOEBE “BETTY” SPARKS | 1931-2017

Phoebe “Betty” Brubaker Sparks was born Jan 3, 1931, in Altoona, Pa., to the late Joseph and Catherine “Dolly” Brubaker. She was a graduate of Altoona High School and the Philadelphia Bible Institute (now Carin University) where she and Hayden Sparks met. They married in 1953 and had four children.

She was supportive of her husband’s ministry through seminary and through the many churches he served, as choir director, teacher and hostess. The churches included: Prospect-Marvin, 1956-1958; Montgomery in Damascus, 1958-1963; Poolesville, 1963-1977; St. Matthews UMC in Hagerstown, 1977-1978, then the charge St. Matthews Cearfoss-Mt. Zion, for a year. He then was appointed to St. Matthews-Mt. Zion Charge, 1979-1985, and St. Matthews until 1989. His last appointment was to the Wolfsville Charge from 1989 until he retired in 1996.

Betty Sparks, with her daughter Sharon Trent, started the Four Seasons Florist in Smithburg and operated it for eight years. It is still in operation today.

Her children always believed she was an angel in disguise and called her “Queenie.” She taught Good News Clubs for children as a representative for Child Evangelism Fellowship.

A son, Hayden “Randy” Sparks Jr., died Feb. 17, 2016.

Survivors include her husband of 64 years, daughters Susan Garvin of Winston Salem, N.C., Sharon Anne Trent of Frederick, and Laurie Robinette of Bloxam, Va., and their husbands; 14 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren.

MATILDA LEE TAVENNER | 1932-2017

Matilda Lee Tavenner was born June 11, 1932, in Bethesda, Md., the daughter of Clinton E. Thomas and Louise Seal Thomas.

She and Julian Tavenner were married in 1951 at Hyattsville UMC. They had two children. She helped him with his education in college, seminary, and two years of Clinical Pastoral Education in Washington, D.C., hospitals. At the same time, she worked on her college education, majoring in English and minoring in early childhood development.

He began attending seminary in 1955, and served his first church from 1957-1960 at Mt. Zion-Emmanuel. From 1960-1962, he was appointed to Mt. Zion in Highland, then 1962-1965 to Lay Hill, followed by Havre de Grace, 1965-1971, and Westminster Parish from 1971-1978. At that time he became Religious Activities Coordinator at Asbury Methodist Home and in 1986, the Chaplain for Asbury Methodist Village. From 1992 to 1993, he was Director of the Department of Pastoral Care at Asbury Village, then retired in 1993.

She was always a supportive pastor’s wife, active in church activities such as church school teacher, Bible study leader, prayer circle leader and lay speaker. She attended almost all church services.

During these years she also had a variety of employment including as secretary in the Insecticide Division at the Department of Agriculture in Beltsville; night telephone operator for the Telephone Company; accountant for Sears; substitute teacher for special education students; and at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda.

During her leisure time she enjoyed reading, writing and spending it with her children and grandchildren.

Survivors include her husband of 66 years; daughter Katherine L. Figgett of Frederick; son Mark S. Tavenner of Mt. Airy; and five grandsons.

In a letter she wrote to her family, she said “I was so fortunate to have all of you as family. It was a joy to watch you grow up. My prayer is that you will have love, peace, and success in your future. And remember that God is always with us. When one door is closed, another door will be opened.”

Matilda Tavenner, the wife of the Rev. Julian A. Tavenner, a retired Elder, died May 24, 2017, at the Quincy Nursing Home in Quincy, Pa., after a short illness. A graveside service was held June 4 at the Blue Ridge Cemetery in Thurmont.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

REPORT ON THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (Affiliate) (collectively referred to as the Conference), which comprise the Combined Statements of Financial Position as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, and the related Combined Statements of Activities and Cash Flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

BASIS FOR QUALIFIED OPINION

As more fully described in Note 8 to the combined financial statements, the Conference accounts for post-retirement health benefit obligations on a pay-as-you-go basis. In our opinion, accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the funded status of the post-retirement health benefit obligations be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. The effects on the combined financial statements of the preceding practice are not reasonably determinable.

QUALIFIED OPINION

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter discussed in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the combined financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Conference as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (BWC) was formed to provide for the promotion of the Christian faith, missionary, and benevolent causes.

BWC Borrower, LLC was formed to finance, manage, and maintain property and operate a management business for this purpose. BWC is the sole member of BWC Borrower, LLC.

The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (Episcopal Office) was formed to manage many aspects of BWC, including presiding over sessions, overseeing fiscal and program operations, and ensuring fair process.

PRINCIPLES OF COMBINATION

The combined financial statements include the accounts of BWC, BWC Borrower, LLC and the Episcopal Office (collectively referred to as the Conference). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS CODIFICATION

All references in the combined financial statements to the Codification refer to the Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. The Codification is the single source of authoritative GAAP in the United States.

BASIS OF ACCOUNTING

The accompanying combined financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America on the accrual basis of accounting, whereby revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Under the Codification, the Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted.

Unrestricted net assets are assets that are neither permanently restricted nor temporarily restricted by donor-imposed stipulations. These resources include:

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUED
The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

- Operating – to support operations
- Property – restricted for property acquisitions
- Medical Benefits – designated by the Board to fund medical premiums
- Designated for Loans – to fund low interest loans to the United Methodist Churches
- Designated for Post-Retirement Health Benefits – to fund post-retirement health benefits

Temporarily restricted net assets are contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by the passage of time or can be fulfilled by use for specified purposes.

Permanently restricted net assets are contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by the Conference's actions.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Conference considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Conference maintains its cash in financial institutions which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Conference believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

FUNDS DUE TO OTHERS

Amounts represent proceeds from the sale of a church property, which is due to the Greater Washington District.

INVESTMENTS

Under the Codification, investments are recorded at fair value. Investments received as gifts and bequests are recorded at fair value at the gift date. To adjust the carrying value of the investments, realized and unrealized gains and losses are reported in the Combined Statements of Activities. See Note 3 for further discussion of the valuation of investments.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUED
Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

The Conference invests in a professionally managed portfolio that contains stocks and bonds of publicly traded companies, mutual funds, and pooled investments. Such investments are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market, and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with such investments and the level of uncertainty related to the changes in the value of such investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near-term would materially affect investment balances and the amounts reported in the combined financial statements.

OTHER RECEIVABLES

Other receivables include amounts due from individuals and organizations related to the Conference for pension and medical costs. At December 31, 2017 and 2016, management recorded an allowance for uncollectible accounts of $966,296 and $911,016, respectively.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment greater than $2,500 are recorded at cost if purchased or fair value at the date of the donation if gifted. Lesser amounts are expensed. Depreciation is determined using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets.

APPORTIONMENTS

The Conference receives a significant portion of its revenue in the form of apportionments from local churches that are members of the Conference. Apportionments are accepted from the local churches; however, they are not a legal obligation. As such, apportionments are recognized as revenue when received, since the amount to be received is undeterminable until paid by the local churches. The Conference's apportionment policy is to include apportionments received by Tuesday following the second Sunday subsequent to the date of the accompanying Combined Statements of Financial Position. Apportionments are used to fund mission and ministries of the Conference and General Church World Services.

MEDICAL PAYMENTS

The Conference receives premiums from local churches that are members of the Conference. These premiums are used to pay for medical insurance for clergy and lay employees of the Conference.

CONTRIBUTIONS

In accordance with the Not-for-Profit Entities Revenue Recognition Topic of the Codification, contributions received are recorded as either unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUED
The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

permanently restricted support. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted, either temporarily or permanently, by the donor. The Conference's policy is to utilize temporarily restricted support against qualifying expenses as they are incurred.

CAMPING REGISTRATION AND EVENTS

The Conference receives registration fees for camps owned and operated by the Conference. The Conference also hosts numerous seminars and conferences throughout the year, for which registration fees are collected by the Conference. Revenue is recognized in the year such services and events occur.

PROGRAM EXPENSE

Apportioned funds categories represent the following:

- Discipleship – All department staffing costs for the Councils on Ministries and Human Resource Development as well as the activities of the ministries, missions performed within the Conference, establishing new churches, growth of existing churches, activities and programs undertaken to develop both clergy and lay religious education, and spiritual enrichment of all clergy and lay persons within the Conference
- Stewardship – All financial and administrative components of the Conference, including the treasury function, trustees, pension and health benefits for clergy and lay employees and costs of the Conference Center offices
- Leadership – Costs for departments linked directly to the Bishop's office
- General Church and Jurisdictional Apportionment – Funds collected by the Conference from local churches and designated by the Conference to send to General Church and World Services

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Conference has evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the combined financial statements through May 17, 2018, the date the combined financial statements were available to be issued.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

NOTE 2 INCOME TAXES

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from filing tax returns as a religious organization. In addition, the Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Conference is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code.

The Conference follows the provisions of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes under the Income Taxes Topic of the Codification. The Codification requires the evaluation of tax positions, which include maintaining its tax-exempt status and the taxability of any unrelated business income, and does not allow recognition of tax positions which do not meet a “more-likely-than-not” threshold of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Management does not believe it has taken any tax positions that would not meet this threshold.

NOTE 3 VALUATION OF INVESTMENTS

Investments at December 31, 2017 and 2016 consisted of the following:

| | 2017 | 2016 |
|------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Common Stocks | $ 1,804,951 | $ 1,484,043 |
| Nonpublic Mutual Funds | 7,329,630 | 5,642,807 |
| Bond Mutual Funds | 234,042 | 219,382 |
| Pooled Investments | 41,751,265 | 33,594,636 |
| Total | $51,119,888 | $40,940,868 |

Investment income for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 consisted of the following:

| | 2017 | 2016 |
|--|---------------------|---------------------|
| Interest and Dividends (Net of $83,024 and $63,249 of Investment Fees, Respectively) | $ 121,680 | $ 106,688 |
| Realized Gain on Sale of Investments | 389,225 | 3,320 |
| Unrealized Gain on Investments | 6,034,885 | 2,602,950 |
| Total | $ 6,545,790 | $ 2,712,958 |

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the Codification establishes a hierarchal disclosure framework, which prioritizes and ranks the level of market price observability used in measuring investments and other financial instruments at fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUED
The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United

identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 – Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical investments as of the reporting date. The Conference considers its investments in common stocks and mutual funds to be Level 1 investments.

Level 2 – Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date, and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies. The Conference considers certain nonpublic mutual funds and pooled investments to be Level 2 investments.

Level 3 – Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. The Conference does not currently hold any Level 3 investments.

In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may be categorized into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, an investment's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Conference's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the investment. There were no changes in these methodologies during the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Common Stock and Bond Mutual Funds: Valued at quoted prices in an active market

Nonpublic Mutual Funds: Valued at the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

Pooled Investments: Investments through the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church (General Board), which consist of diversified nonpublic mutual funds and are valued using the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

The methods described above may produce a fair value that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

The table below presents the balances of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the hierarchy as of December 31, 2017:

NOTE 4 NOTES AND MORTGAGES RECEIVABLE

Notes receivable of $779,580 and $954,292 in 2017 and 2016, respectively, represent the net amount of loans issued at interest rates ranging up to 4.5%.

Future maturities of these notes at December 31, 2017 are as follows:

|---|-------------------|
| Year Ending December 31, 2018 | $ 192,722 |
| 2019 | 130,436 |
| 2020 | 119,716 |
| 2021 | 102,577 |
| 2022 | 72,537 |
| Thereafter | 854,073 |
| | 1,472,061 |
| Less: Allowance for Doubtful Notes Receivable | 692,481 |
| | $ 779,580 |

Two mortgages receivable bear interest at fixed rates of 7% and 6% and require monthly payments of principal and interest of $1,658 and $13,254 through April 2031 and January 2020, respectively. A lump-sum payment of the remaining balance is required for the mortgage receivable maturing in January 2020. A third mortgage receivable bears interest at a rate of 2% for the first year, increasing 1% annually to 6% at December 2020, through the maturity date of November 2037. Monthly payments of principal and interest of $1,594 are required in the first year, $1,740 in the second year, $1,886 in the third year, and $2,184 through maturity.

| | $11,085,339 | $ 11,740,136 |

The Conference owns approximately 570 acres of land used by the Outdoor Ministries. The land was donated to the Conference during the period 1948 through 1960 for which no value was determined and, therefore, no amount is included in the Combined Statements of Financial Position.

Depreciation expense was $743,880 and $729,907 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

NOTE 6 NOTES PAYABLE

The Conference has a note payable to the Board of Childcare of the United Methodist Church. Borrowings bear interest at 3.25%, subject to adjustment at specified dates. The note requires quarterly principal and interest payments through June 30, 2029. The note is collateralized by the conference center in Maple Lawn, Maryland and the West River Methodist Center property. The balance on this note was $4,054,018 and $5,270,000 at December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Future maturities at December 31, 2017 are as follows:

|-------------------------------|---------------------|
| Year Ending December 31, 2018 | $ 413,333 |
| 2019 | 413,333 |

| 2022 | 413,333 |
| Thereafter | 1,987,353 |
| | $ 4,054,018 |

NOTE 7 PENSION EXPENSE

The Conference participates in three multi-employer pension plans which are administered by the General Board. The Conference provides pension benefits for members of the clergy under the three plans. Services provided prior to January 1, 1982 are covered by a defined benefit plan (Pre-82 Plan). The General Board estimated the Conference's portion of the Pre-82 Plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $34,000,000, and the total plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $295,000,000.

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 1981 are covered by the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference did not contribute any funds to MPP during 2017 or 2016. The General Board estimated MPP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $387,000,000.

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 2006 are covered under the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference contributed approximately $2,520,000 and $3,110,000 to CRSP for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The General Board estimated CRSP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $136,000,000.

The risks of participating in a multi-employer plan are different from a single-employer plan in the following aspects:

- a. Assets contributed to the multi-employer plan by one employer may be used to provide benefits to employees of other participating employers.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUED
The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

- b. If a participating employer stops contributing to the plan, the unfunded obligations of the plan may be borne by the remaining participating employers.
- c. If the Conference chooses to stop participating in its multi-employer plan, the Conference may be required to pay the plan an amount based on the underfunded status of the plan, referred to as a withdrawal liability.

Lay employees of the Conference are covered by a defined contribution plan (Plan). The level and funding of retirement benefits to individual participants of the Plan are determined annually by the Conference within certain guidelines established by the General Board. The Conference contributed approximately $312,000 and $450,000 to the Plan for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

NOTE 8 POST-RETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFITS

Post-retirement health benefits for all retired personnel and their spouses, widows, and widowers are provided under a discretionary plan administered by the General Board. The Conference accounts for the obligation on a pay-as-you-go basis, and the cost of post-retirement health benefits was approximately $1,292,000 and $1,486,000 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. GAAP requires the funded status of post-retirement obligations, representing the difference between plan assets and accumulated post-retirement obligations, be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. At December 31, 2017, using the most recent actuarial report available, the accumulated benefit obligation for post-retirement health benefits is approximately $37,000,000, at an assumed discount rate of 3.55%. For 2017, the assumed annual rate of increase in the cost of covered health care benefits is 7.00%. It is assumed to decrease gradually to 5% in 2019 and remain at that level thereafter. A one percentage point increase or decrease in the assumed health care cost trend rate would have an approximate 12% to 15% effect on the accumulated benefit obligation.

NOTE 9 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Conference leases office space in Washington, D.C. and Hagerstown, Maryland under leases which expire through July 2022.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

At December 31, 2017, the future minimum rental commitments are as follows:

|-------------------------------|-------------------|
| Year Ending December 31, 2018 | $ 62,294 |
| 2019 | 57,671 |
| 2020 | 59,974 |
| 2021 | 62,368 |
| 2022 | 37,216 |
| | $ 279,523 |

Rent expense was $74,995 and $73,544 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

The Conference subleases space under leases which expire through July 2022. Future minimum payments expected to be received are as follows:

|-------------------------------|-------------------|
| Year Ending December 31, 2018 | $ 51,760 |
| 2019 | 30,000 |
| 2020 | 30,000 |
| 2021 | 30,000 |
| 2022 | 17,500 |
| | $ 159,260 |

The Conference has approximately $4,000,000 of contingent receivables. These contingent receivables are conditional donations made by the Conference to churches that are members of the Conference and are required to be repaid only if the churches cease to be members.

NOTE 11 ENDOWMENT FUNDS

The Conference's permanent endowment consists of various donor restricted funds established to provide a source of income for ongoing donor advised program expenses. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

INTERPRETATION OF RELEVANT LAW

The Conference has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA), enacted in Maryland on April 14, 2009, as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund, and (c) the change in unrealized gains and losses of invested endowments to the extent allocations do not reduce the endowment value below the original corpus. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the donor's stipulations or unrestricted net assets.

RETURN OBJECTIVES AND RISK PARAMETERS

The Conference's investment policy is to provide a common investment vehicle, which will generate a stable and continuously growing income stream to support operations. The overall investment goal is to preserve the purchasing power of the future stream of endowment payout for those funds. Other goals include maximizing return within reasonable and prudent levels of risk and maximizing the value of the endowment while maintaining liquidity needed to support spending in prolonged down markets. The Conference seeks a return on investment consistent with levels of investment risk that are prudent and reasonable given medium- to long-term capital market conditions and investment objectives.

CORRECTION FORM, 2018 JOURNAL

Much of the information in this Journal, including addresses and phone numbers are pulled from Arena, the online database of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. If you find your personal or church contact information is incorrect, please follow the instructions below. Each person is responsible for keeping their own information up to date.

Logging into Arena:

1. In your browser, go to www.bwcumc.org and click on “Sign In” at the top of the page.
2. If you know your username and password, type them in the fields provided.
3. If you’ve forgotten your username or password, click on “Forgot your Password” in the body of that page. Follow the instructions to request your username and password. This information will be sent to the e-mail address linked to your record.
4. We highly recommend you change your user name and password to something that’s easy to remember. You may do so by clicking on “My Contact Info” on the left navigation and following the instructions below.

Changing your contact information:

1. Follow the instructions above to log in.
2. Once logged in, on the left navigation, click on “My Contact Info.”
3. Click the “Edit” box at the top of the page.
4. Type changed information into the appropriate fields.

Errors in appointment history or church relationships may be reported to Office of Communications AND your Regional Administrator by June 30, 2019.
